Colonial Strangers Women Writing The End:

Colonial Strangers Phyllis Lassner, 2004 Lassner's analysis reveals how writers such as Muriel Spark Olivia Manning Rumer Godden Phyllis Bottome Elspeth Huxley and Zadie Smith insist that World War II is critical to understanding how and why the British Empire had to end British Decolonisation and the Female Middlebrow Novel Anne Wetherilt, 2025-09-01 British Decolonisation and the Female Middlebrow Novel offers the first detailed discussion of middlebrow fiction by women writers who personally witnessed the dismantling of the British Empire the intensification of the Cold War and the domestic tensions following the arrival of thousands of migrants from Britain's former colonies Studying selected novels by Cecilie Leslie Elspeth Huxley Mary McMinnies Han Suyin and Kamala Markandaya this study demonstrates that women's middlebrow writing reveals a much deeper engagement with the politics and economics of decolonisation than is usually ascribed to the genre As Anne Wetherilt argues by transcending the politics of domesticity the female middlebrow registers a critique of both Britain's colonial history and mainstream conceptions of decolonisation as a well managed transition from empire to commonwealth As such the middlebrow novel of the immediate post war decades takes us back to a place where the end of empire was imagined rather than denied and the ambiguities of British colonial politics exposed rather than repressed The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction, 1945-2010 David James, 2015-10-06 The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction since 1945 provides insight into the critical traditions shaping the literary landscape of modern Britain

The Postcolonial Indian Novel in English Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, 2011-01-18 Indian writers of English such as G V Desani Salman Rushdie Amit Chaudhuri Amitav Ghosh Vikram Seth Allan Sealy Shashi Tharoor Arundhati Roy Vikram Chandra and Jhumpa Lahiri have taken the potentialities of the novel form to new heights Against the background of the genre's macro history this study attempts to explain the stunning vitality colourful diversity and the outstanding but sometimes controversial success of postcolonial Indian novels in the light of ongoing debates in postcolonial studies It analyses the warp and woof of the novelistic text through a cross sectional scrutiny of the issues of democracy the poetics of space the times of empire nation and globalization self writing in the auto meta docu fictional modes the musical pictorial cinematic and culinary intertextualities that run through this hyperpalimpsestic practice and the politics of gender caste and language that gives it an inimitable stamp This concise and readable survey gives us intimations of a truly world literature as imagined by Francophone writers because the postcolonial Indian novel is a concrete illustration of how language liberated from its exclusive pact with the nation can enter into a dialogue with a vast polyphonic ensemble Life in the Writings of Storm Jameson Elizabeth Maslen, 2014-09-30 Margaret Storm Jameson 1891-1986 is primarily known as a compelling essayist her stature as a novelist and champion of the dispossessed is largely forgotten In Life in the Writings of Storm Jameson Elizabeth Maslen reveals a figure who held her own beside fellow British women writers including Virginia Woolf anticipated the Angry Young Women such as Doris Lessing and was an early champion of such European writers as Arthur

Koestler and Czesław Miłosz Jameson was a complex character whose politics were grounded in social justice she was passionately antifascist her novel In the Second Year 1936 raised the alarm about Nazism but always wary of communism An eloquent polemicist Jameson was as president of the British PEN during the 1930s and 1940s of invaluable assistance to refugee writers Elizabeth Maslen's biography introduces a true twentieth century hedgehog whose essays and subtly experimental fiction were admired in Europe and the States Who Shall Enter Paradise? Shobana Shankar, 2014-10-15

Who Shall Enter Paradise recounts in detail the history of Christian Muslim engagement in a core area of sub-Saharan Africa's most populous nation home to roughly equal numbers of Christians and Muslims It is a region today beset by religious violence in the course of which history has often been told in overly simplified or highly partisan terms This book reexamines conversion and religious identification not as fixed phenomena but as experiences shaped through cross-cultural encounters experimentation collaboration protest and sympathy Shobana Shankar relates how Christian missions and African converts transformed religious practices and politics in Muslim Northern Nigeria during the colonial and early postcolonial periods Although the British colonial authorities prohibited Christian evangelism in Muslim areas and circumscribed missionary activities a combination of factors including Mahdist insurrection the abolition of slavery migrant labor and women's evangelism brought new converts to the faith By the 1930s however this organic growth of Christianity in the north had given way to an institutionalized culture based around medical facilities established in the Hausa emirates The end of World War II brought an influx of demobilized soldiers who integrated themselves into the local Christian communities and reinvigorated the practice of lay evangelism In the era of independence Muslim politicians consolidated their power by adopting many of the methods of missionaries and evangelists In the process many Christian men and formerly non-Muslim communities converted to Islam A vital part of Northern Nigerian Christianity all but vanished becoming a religion of outsiders Tulsa Studies in Women's Literature, 2008 Feminist Periodicals, 2004 Approaches to Teaching Wiesel's Night Alan Rosen, Alan Charles Rosen, 2007 Elie Wiesel is an internationally known author human rights advocate and lecturer Night his first book 1956 in Yiddish 1958 in French 1960 in English a new English translation appeared in 2006 has become a classic memoir of a Jewish survivor of the Holocaust The seventeen essays of this volume in the MLA series Approaches to Teaching World Literature examine the historical cultural and literary contexts of Wiesel's book as well as strategies for teaching it in the classroom Part 1 Materials provides resources on the Jewish ghettos and concentration camps of World War II on the Jewish faith and religious practices on the genre of victims diaries on the critical reception of Night on Wiesel's other work and on available audiovisual materials Part 2 Approaches addresses many subjects among them Wiesel's narrative techniques the representation of Auschwitz the use of different languages the comparison of Wiesel with Primo Levi the problems of memory and bearing witness the Christian response to the Holocaust and the challenge of teaching a grim and painful text to students Ariel, 2008 New Books on Women and Feminism, 2004 Victorian

Periodicals Review ,2007 Anglo-Jewish Women Writing the Holocaust Phyllis Lassner,2008-08-20 In its rigorously researched analysis of Anglo Jewish women writing the Holocaust this book highlights the necessity of their inclusion in the evolving canon of modern British literature Addressing the question of why the Holocaust is still being written this study brings together Kindertransport writers those of the Second Generation and those writers who have no personal or communal connection to the Holocaust but who have felt compelled to testify to the painful adaptations or betrayals of refugees by the nation which rescued so many In her significant critical interpretations of memoirs plays poetry and novels Lassner shows how these writers complicate theories of trauma and memory by using fantasy and the Gothic as a response to silence as well as to the historical and narrative relationship between endangered European Jews and Britain s cultural and political responses to them Choice ,2006-03 Journal of the African Literature Association ,2007 Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature Modern Humanities Research Association,2004 Includes both books and articles The Writers Directory ,2013 Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation
