Colonialism And The Destruction Of The Mind

Lewis Samuel Feuer

Colonialism And The Destruction Of The Mind:

The French Colonial Mind: Violence, military encounters and colonialism Martin Thomas, 2011-01-01 Violence was prominent in France's conquest of a colonial empire and the use of force was integral to its control and regulation of colonial territories. What if anything made such violence distinctly colonial? And how did its practitioners justify or explain it? These are issues at the heart of The French Colonial Mind: Violence, Military Encounters and Colonialism. The second of two linked volumes, this book brings together prominent scholars of French colonial history to explore the many ways in which brutality and killing became central to the French experience and management of empire. Sometimes concealed or denied, at other times highly publicized and even celebrated, French violence was so widespread that it was in some ways constitutive of colonial identity. Yet such violence was also destructive, destabilizing for its practitioners and lethal or otherwise devastating for its victims. The manifestations of violence in the minds and actions of imperialists are investigated here in essays that move from the conquest of Algeria in the 1830s to the disintegration of France's empire after World War II. The authors engage a broad spectrum of topics ranging from the violence of first colonial encounters to conflicts of decolonization. Each considers not only the forms and extent of colonial violence but also its dire effects on perpetrators and victims. Together, their essays provide the clearest picture yet of the workings of violence in French imperialist thought.

Colonial Psychiatry and the African Mind Jock McCulloch, 1995-01-12 In this first history of psychiatry in colonial Africa, Jock McCulloch describes the clinical approaches of well-known European practitioners including Frantz Fanon and Wulf Sachs. They operated independently of one another. Yet despite their differences, they shared a coherent set of ideas about the African Mind based on the colonial notion of African inferiority. By exploring the association between settler ideology and psychiatric research, this study examines colonial science as a system of knowledge and power.

Imperialism and the Anti-Imperialist Mind Lewis Samuel Feuer, 1989-01-01 In this major work, Lewis S. Feuer examines critical distinctions between progressive and regressive imperialism. He explores causes of anti-imperial ideologies, noting that unlike the spoliation that took place under regressive Tartar, Spanish, and Nazi colonizations, civilization flourished during the progressive imperialism of Hellenic, Macedonian, Roman, and modern British eras of empire building. Feuer holds that it is erroneous to blame the relative backwardness of colonial peoples on the imperialism of Western democratic nations. In case after case, the character of colonial rulers determined economic development and democratic reform alike. Pursuing the theme of progress versus regression, Feuer compares the imperialism of the United States with that of the Soviet Union to the detriment of the latter in nearly every instance. His effort constitutes nothing short of a fundamentally new perspective on the lessons of modern history and the mistakes of modern analysts of international affairs. Feuer opens as well a new chapter in political psychology with his study of such anti-imperialist intellectuals as Hobson, Morel, and Leonard Woolf. His portrait of Emin Pasha, the heroic Jewish governor of Equatorial Sudan, suggests a living model for Conrad's Lord Jim. Unlearning

Languages that Control the Mind Vladan Sutanovac, 2025-10-14 The edited collection Unlearning Languages That Control the Mind ULCM is to be read as a continuous multi voiced work on what takes place when we forget that unlearning is a part of our existence as much as learning As the world as we know it finds itself at a critical juncture yet again how we talk about the continuously amassing genocidal invasions and authoritarian occupations of our minds thoughts bodies and environments will affect how we experience process and counter them on a day to day basis Based on this ULCM offers its readers a singular interdisciplinary blueprint of the inner and outer workings of motivated language use when in service of mind engineering and engineered acting As such it is a valuable enabling resource for anyone looking to identify and unlearn the languages that mask belief traps and cognitive distortions set up by various antisocial actors to keep our day to day cognition and acting confined to society as engineered laboratory With its interdisciplinary breadth and engaging multimodal content this handbook breaks new grounds in actionable application of science as accessible community enabling tool for seeing through i e dismantling belief traps and mental distortions that turn language use into mindbody abuse Canonization, Colonization, Decolonization Seodial Frank Hubert Deena, 2001 This comparative study of theory and literature illustrates the complexity of colonial and canonical marginalization on the bases of race class and gender Through the use of cultural criticism and selected British African African American Native American and Caribbean texts Canonization Colonization Decolonization demonstrates how colonialism and the traditional literary canon exploit and oppress how writers of color have turned stumbling blocks into stepping stones how subtleties of literary and cultural imperialism can undermine the process of decolonization and how prosperity succeeds where adversity has failed to trap writers of color into compromise and complacency It advocates that works by writers of color reflect a multiplicity of interdisciplinarity intertextuality and multiculturalism the hallmark of a new discovering and creative literature The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1996 Evaluating Indigenous African Tradition for Cultural Reconstruction and Mind Decolonization Durodolu, Oluwole Olumide, Chisita, Collence T., Marutha, Ngoako Solomon, Familusi, Olumuyiwa Olusesan, 2024-08-22 This book examines the relevance of indigenous African tradition to cultural reconstruction and evaluates the place of African culture in the global context This book is an essential resource for academics students researchers and anyone interested in understanding the relevance of African Traditional Religion in contemporary times and the need for cultural reconstruction and mind decolonization for the betterment of the African continent and the world at large The Global Intercultural Communication Reader Molefi Kete Asante, Yoshitaka Miike, Jing Yin, 2013-06-26 The Global Intercultural Communication Reader is the first anthology to take a distinctly non Eurocentric approach to the study of culture and communication In this expanded second edition editors Molefi Kete Asante Yoshitaka Miike and Jing Yin bring together thirty two essential readings for students of cross cultural intercultural and international communication This stand out collection aims to broaden and deepen the scope of the field by placing an emphasis on diversity including work from

The Nation That Fears God Prospers Chammah J. Kaunda,2019-01-15 Through its strength in numbers and remarkable presence in politics Pentecostalism has become a force to reckon with in twenty first century Zambian society Yet some fundamental questions in the study of Zambian Pentecostalism and politics remain largely unaddressed by African scholars Situated within an interdisciplinary perspective this unique volume explores the challenge of continuity in the Zambian Pentecostal understanding and practice of spiritual power in relation to political engagement Chammah J Kaunda argues that the challenge of Pentecostal political imagination is found in the inculturation of spiritual power with political praxis The result of this inculturation is that Zambian Pentecostals sacralize the political authority of state power through the charisma of the national president and other major political personalities It has also contributed to the construction of Zambian Pentecostal leadership that is deified rather than leadership that is formed through the struggles and experiences of the marginalized and powerless Kaunda argues that the solution does not lie either in desacralization of powers or the separation between the church and the state but rather in rethinking the Christ event as a paradigm for the recovery of Pentecostalism s sociopolitical prophetic dynamism

Anti-Colonialism and Education George Jerry Sefa Dei,Arlo Kempf,2006 There is a rich intellectual history to the development of anti colonial thought and practice In discussing the politics of knowledge production this collection borrows from and builds upon this intellectual traditional to offer understandings of the macro political processes and structures of education delivery e g social organization of knowledge culture pedagogy and resistant politics The contributors raise key issues regarding the contestation of knowledge as well as the role of cultural and social values in understanding the way power shapes everyday relations of politics and subjectivity In reframing anti colonial thought and practice this book reclaims the power of critical oppositional discourse and theory for educational transformation Anti Colonialism and Education The Politics of Resistance includes some the most current theorizing around anti colonial practice written specifically for this collection Each of the essays extends the terrain of the discussion of what constitutes anti colonialism Among the many discursive highlights is the interrogation of the politics of embodied knowing the theoretical distinctions and connections between anti colonial thought and post colonial theory and the identification of the particular lessons of anti colonial theory for critical educational practice Essays explore such key issues as the challenge of articulating anti colonial thought as an epistemology of the colonized anchored in the indigenous sense of collective and common colonial consciousness the conceptualization of power configurations embedded in ideas cultures and histories of marginalized communities the understanding of indigeneity as pedagogical practice and the pursuit of agency resistance and subjective politics through anti colonial learning The book is relevant for students teachers community social workers and field practitioners interested in pursuit of education for social transformation It is a must read for students of sociology sociology of education anthropology political science and history This book provides new ways to think about education as an anti colonial project The essays offer powerful insights into the politics of colonialism anti colonialism as they are contested in education and society LINDA SMITH University of Auckland New Zealand Every student parent and educator today has been marinated in Eurocentric colonial thought and ideologies that continue to create multiple forms of domination and oppression The challenge of comprehending and remedying colonialism and racism and their destructive practices is the penetrating analysis of leading antiracist educator George Dei his co editor Arlo Kempf and other contributors to this excellent collection These authors offer in Anti Colonialism and Education The Politics of Resistance a brilliant contribution for resisting the ever present overarching force and practice in everyone's daily life and for inspiring multiple sites of anti colonial practice to create a more enriched society MARIE BATTISTE Mi kmaw educator and Director Aboriginal Education Research Centre University of Saskatchewan Canada Hans Kohn Analyzes the Russian Mind IñUñriñ Kariñañkin, Evgeniñ Grigor'evich Plimak, 1966 Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, 1996 The Colonial Legacy in Caribbean Literature: Colonialism & the destruction of the mind : psychosocial issues of race, class, religion & sexuality in the novels of Roy Heath Amon Saba Saakana, 1987 Revolutions of the Mind Dionne Bennett, Valerie Smith, Marcyliena H. Morgan, 2003 Sovereignty, Colonialism and the Indigenous Nations Robert Odawi Porter, 2005 This book is an extensive compilation of readings focused on the meaning of sovereignty and self determination in relation to Indigenous nations and peoples in the United States The overall purpose of the book is to afford readers the opportunity to study and analyze the interplay of legal political economic and cultural factors that contribute to the debate surrounding the status of Indigenous nations and peoples within American society The book is divided into three parts with each part prefaced by a set of questions for the reader to consider The first part explores the meaning of Indigenous nation sovereignty from three different perspectives the Indigenous nations and peoples the colonizing peoples and the international community The second part then addresses the different ways in which this sovereignty is threatened The last part of the book explores the variety of approaches by which Indigenous nation sovereignty may be preserved and strengthened in the future The readings included are extraordinarily broad in scope and are designed to promote vigorous student inquiry and discussion In addition to including a wide variety of authors the works include speeches testimony policy statements law cases statutes articles book chapters and newspaper stories The materials are extensively edited with few footnotes and citations so as to focus the reader on important concepts and to facilitate overall understanding The book is intended for use in both law school and non law school courses relating to law and policy dealing with Indigenous nations and peoples American history and international law and policy governing minorities and Indigenous peoples The book is also designed for use in undergraduate courses and seminars Neo-colonialism, Post-colonial Ecology, and Ecofeminism in the Works of Native American, Chicano/A, and International Writers Jia-Yi Cheng-Levine,1998 Mexicos of the Mind Brian Russel Rourke,1999 Unsettling Queer Anthropology Margot Weiss,2024-04-12 This field defining volume of queer anthropology foregrounds both the brilliance of anthropological approaches to queer and trans life and the ways queer critique can reorient and transform anthropology The Agitated Mind of God Dale T.
