Colonies Of The Heart:

Colonial Migrants at the Heart of Empire Ismael García-Colón, 2020-02-18 Colonial Migrants at the Heart of Empire is the first in depth look at the experiences of Puerto Rican migrant workers in continental U S agriculture in the twentieth century The Farm Labor Program established by the government of Puerto Rico in 1947 placed hundreds of thousands of migrant workers on U S farms and fostered the emergence of many stateside Puerto Rican communities Ismael García-Colón investigates the origins and development of this program and uncovers the unique challenges faced by its participants A labor history and an ethnography Colonial Migrants evokes the violence fieldwork food lodging surveillance and coercion that these workers experienced on farms and conveys their hopes and struggles to overcome poverty Island farmworkers encountered a unique form of prejudice and racism arising from their dual status as both U S citizens and as foreign others and their experiences were further shaped by evolving immigration policies Despite these challenges many Puerto Rican farmworkers ultimately chose to settle in rural U S communities contributing to the production of food and the Latinization of the U S farm labor force

Colonial and Postcolonial Rewritings of "Heart of Darkness" Regelin Farn, 2005 Joseph Conrad's novella Heart of Darkness 1899 is taught and read all over the world Everywhere novelists and travel writers respond to it in their own creative work I discuss 30 responses or rewritings from Africa India the Caribbean Australia Europe and the US Their perspectives include those of groups who identify with Conrad's Europeans and groups who feel close to his Africans and increasingly those of groups who situate themselves between these two extremes in various ways I identify world wide developments as well as themes strategies and paradigm shifts that correlate with different geopolitical situations Rewriters address the contribution Conrad has made to the identities of his very different readers and the patterns he has suggested for encounters In ever more intense dialogues people from all backgrounds work through images of themselves and of each other However like Conrad's narrator they also become aware of limits of language and communication Rewriters act as rereaders of the many layers of meaning in Heart of Darkness and thus imply that the reader's experience is as important as the author's This approach is increasingly developing into a use of discourse analytical methods in non theoretical texts Rewritings can bring Heart of Darkness close to the reader's life Rewriters champion processes of highly personal learning and unlearning as well as political and social approaches and can thus help readers rework their own cultural backgrounds Accordingly I both use close reading methods and take into account political and didactic intentions In conclusion I recommend reading Heart of Darkness together with one or more of its rewritings and outline some ideas for teaching such combinations After comprehensive introductions to Heart of Darkness and to the theory of rewritings I discuss works by the following authors in a convenient handbook format Ford Madox Ford Hueffer Leonard Woolf W Somerset Maugham Andre Gide Louis Ferdinand Celine Graham Greene Charlotte Jay Patrick White Chinua Achebe Wilson Harris Ngugi wa Thiong'o Tayeb Salih Arun Joshi J M Coetzee V S Naipaul Robert Silverberg Caryl Phillips David Dabydeen Marlene NourbaSe Philip
