

The book cover features a collage of historical images. At the top, a group of men in formal attire are posed for a group portrait. Below this, on the left, is a building with Chinese characters '媽祖廟' (Mazu Temple) and '望角' (Wangjiao). In the center, there is a document with handwritten text. On the right, a portrait of a man in a suit is visible. The bottom half of the cover is dominated by a large, dense crowd of people, likely Chinese immigrants, gathered in an open space.

Colour Confusion And Conceptions The History Of The Chinese In South Africa:

Colour, Confusion and Concessions Melanie Yap, 1996-01-01 For more than 300 years Chinese have been part of the fascinating mix of people who make up the inhabitants of the southern tip of Africa One of the smallest and most identifiable minority groups in arguably the most race conscious country in the world they have not up to now been the focus of serious historical attention This detailed and descriptive chronological account aims to fill a gap in available histories by providing a comprehensive record of the Chinese in South Africa from the earliest times to the mid 1990s A History of Overseas

Chinese in Africa to 1911 Li Anshan, 2017-10-26 A History of Overseas Chinese in Africa to 1911 explores early Chinese knowledge of and contacts with Africa through Chinese literature on Africa and current archeological evidence suggesting Sino African trade existed as early as the seventh century Li provides readers with an uncomplicated history of Chinese in Africa examining their story from multiple perspectives using approaches and sources found in economic history social history international relations and migration in world history While Li maintains the first group of Chinese were prisoners brought by the Dutch from Southeast Asia in the seventeenth century the vast majority of early Chinese in Africa were free immigrants and contract laborers that established key communities and organizations It is these early Chinese which laid foundations for and provide important context in interpreting the recent flow of Chinese migrants and capital into various parts of Africa The book should be of value to African and world historians sociologists anthropologists and students of African and Asian studies Colour, Confusion and Concessions Melanie Yap, Dianne Leong Man, 1996 For more than 300 years Chinese have been part of the fascinating mix of people who make up the inhabitants of the southern tip of Africa One of the smallest and most identifiable minority groups in arguably the most race conscious country in the world they have not up to now been the focus of serious historical attention This detailed and descriptive chronological account aims to fill a gap in available histories by providing a comprehensive record of the Chinese in South Africa from the earliest times to the mid 1990s Africa in Global History Toyin Falola, Mohammed Bashir Salau, 2021-12-06 This handbook places emphasis on modern contemporary times and offers relevant sophisticated and comprehensive overviews It aims to emphasize the religious economic political cultural and social connections between Africa and the rest of the world and features comparisons as well as an interdisciplinary approach in order to examine the place of Africa in global history This book makes an important contribution to the discussion on the place of Africa in the world and of the world in Africa An outstanding work of scholarship it powerfully demonstrates that Africa is not marginal to global concerns Its labor and resources have made our world and the continent deserves our respect Mukhtar Umar Bunza Professor of Social History Usmanu Danfodiyo University Sokoto and Commissioner for Higher Education Kebbi State Nigeria This is a deep plunge into the critical place of Africa in global history The handbook blends a rich set of important tapestries and analysis of the conceptual framework of African diaspora histories imperialism and globalization By foregrounding the authentic voices of

African interpreters of transnational interactions and exchanges the Handbook demonstrates a genuine commitment to the promotion of decolonized and indigenous knowledge on African continent and its peoples Samuel Oloruntoba Visiting Research Professor Institute of African Studies Carleton University     1913, Satyagraha, Passive Resistance and its Legacy ,2025-10-27 This book marks the centenary of the 1913 Satyagraha Passive Resistance movement in South Africa with the various contributors critically examining the significance and relevance of satyagraha from different vantage points Satyagraha first coined developed and practised in South Africa continues to challenge and inspire individuals and peoples far and wide With unrelenting conflicts across the world leading to deaths violence and displacements of families and communities the need for social and political transformation and the moral quest for the harmony of all humanity is as pressing today as it ever was The volume is significant as it forces us to not only deepen our critical understanding of the past but also to know this past as the legacy from which we draw for the present and future The essays here show that there has been a continual attempt to understand and grapple with the term Satyagraha Some have been at pains to remind adherents of the essence of Satyagraha At the same time there were those who modified and adapted Satyagraha according to their own understandings and objectives or who used the idea as a strategy rather than as an ideal While some clung to the ideal of Satyagraha others did not violate its principles through a lack of understanding but felt that a purist interpretation was not feasible on the ground The shifting and fluid differences on a wide spectrum among many who worked with Gandhi or with his concept of Satyagraha are reflected in the essays in this collection     Quarterly Bulletin of the National Library of South Africa ,2012     Journal of Natal and Zulu History ,2005     South Africa in the Twentieth Century ,2000     Journal of Chinese Overseas ,2008     Guide to South African Reference Books Reuben Musiker,Naomi Musiker,1997 Only a small proportion of the more than 1 100 entries have been retained from the earlier editions and supplements 1955 to 1983 more publications reflecting social and economic changes in South Africa have been included and the annotations are more extensive The main focus is on references such as dictionaries yearbooks and encyclopedias but handbooks manuals and histories are cited if no conventional references exist on the subject The selection is not limited to books published in South Africa The arrangement is by broad subject headings following the Dewey Decimal system The annotations are primarily descriptive but evaluations creep in now and again Distributed by Books International Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR     The Notorious Syndicalist Jonathan Hyslop,2004 Chronicles the life of J T Bain who was a pioneer of socialist ideas in South Africa and for a fleeting moment in 1919 was labeled the dictator of Johannesburg     Multilingualism and Exclusion Pol Cuvelier,2007     From Prohibited Immigrants to Citizens Jonathan Klaaren,2017 Jonathan Klaaren blends legal and social history in this engaging account of early conceptions of South African citizenship He argues that distinctively South African notions of citizenship and nationality come out of the period 1897 to 1937 through legislation and official practices employing the key concept of prohibited immigrant and seeking to regulate the mobility of three population groups African Asian and European Further he makes the case that the regulation and administration of immigrants from the Indian sub continent in particular provided the basis for the vision and eventual reality of a unified although structurally unequal South African population This book fits into the growing field of Mobility Studies which seeks to understand and document the migration of people both within and across national borders while exploring the origins of those borders In addition to nationality and citizenship it touches on African pass laws the origins of the Public Protector the scheme importing Chinese labour to the gold mines the development of internal bureaucratic legality and India South Africa intra imperial relations With its attention to the role of law in state building and its understanding of the central place of implementation and administrative law in migration policy this book offers a distinctive focus on the relationship between migration and citizenship
