Coloured Stars Edward Powys Mathers, 1918 Coloured Stars, Versions of Fifty Asiatic Love Poems Edward Powys Mathers, 2023-07-18 This beautiful collection of love poetry features fifty poems from across Asia translated into English by the renowned translator Edward Powys Mathers Each poem is a celebration of love capturing the essence of romance in a different culture and time The perfect collection for poetry lovers and romantics everywhere This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Coloured Stars; Versions of Fifty Asiatic Love Poems Edward Powys Mathers, 2012-08-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy Coloured Stars Edward Powys Mathers, 2016-09-16 Excerpt from Coloured Stars Versions of Fifty Asiatic Love Poems There is an opportunity of knowing in brilliant English translations much of the poetry Of China and Japan of India and Persia and Arabic poetry is accessible but I believe this book to be the first general English anthology Of Asiatic verse It is haphazard as such books must be until some polyglot scholar gives a whole life to the matter Variety was the only aim possible in a space so small and therefore I have selected love poems of different centuries and of both primitive and subtle peoples If readers care to turn to Anthologie de l amour Asiatique compiled by Adolphe Thalasso the late editor of the Revue Orientale in Constantinople they will find a full and clear study of Asia s love poetry and see also how much I owe to this erudite and stimulating authority M Thalasso s work first showed me beauty and interest in the songs Of almost unknown literatures In some instances I have translated directly and only from his book in others I have gratefully taken his direction and traced poems back to their sources Versions also of some of the Chinese poems given here will be found in the incomparable Livre de jade of Mme Judith Gautier Reference to the texts Of other poems is easily made at various libraries except with regard to a dozen which I have personally collected These last have not before I think been given a European form About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Coloured Stars ,1965 Black Marigolds and Coloured Stars Edward Powys Mathers,2004 Long overdue reissue of beautifully lyrical translations of Asiatic love poems from a variety of languages

The New Age ,1922 John O'London's Weekly ,1919 Catalogue A. Dulau & Co,1925 The Dial Francis Fisher Browne,Waldo Ralph Browne,Scofield Thayer,1919 Chinese Songs in a French Key Pauline Yu,2025-08-19 In early 1867 a book of poems stunned the French literary world Titled The Book of Jade it featured Chinese calligraphy and named ancient Chinese poets as sources leaving readers uncertain whether the collection was a translation or a French author's invention Though the book was published under a pseudonym the author was quickly recognized as Judith Gautier the young daughter of a prominent writer Resembling neither contemporary French verse nor any conventional translation of the day The Book of Jade opened the eyes of readers throughout Europe to classical Chinese poetry Chinese Songs in a French Key tells the extraordinary story of the birth rebirth and rich afterlife of The Book of Jade Pauline Yu traces the research and creative process behind the book including Gautier's collaboration with a Chinese refugee known as Tin Tun Ling She shows through juxtapositions with original Chinese texts how Gautier's imaginative strategies conveyed core elements of Chinese poetry to a European audience Yu explores how the work's influence reverberated across French letters Anglo American modernist poetry and the international history of translation The story also unfolds within Gautier's network of luminaries such as Victor Hugo Richard Wagner and John Singer Sargent and against the backdrop of France's discovery of China through scholarship and plunder Drawing attention to Gautier's audacity and accomplishments this deeply researched and elegantly written book provides new perspectives on the surprising routes cultural transmission can take

A History of Western Appreciation of English-translated Tang Poetry Lan Jiang,2018-03-08 This book examines the development of English translated Tang poetry and its propagation to the Western world It consists of two parts the first of which addresses the initial stage of English translated Tang poetry's propagation and the second exploring its further development By analyzing the historical background and characteristics of these two stages the book traces the trend back to its roots discusses some well known early sinologists and their contributions and familiarizes readers with the general course of Tang poetry's development In addition it presents the translated versions of many Tang poems The dissemination of Tang poetry to the Western world is a significant event in the history of cross cultural communication From the simple imitation of poetic techniques to the acceptance and identification of key poetic concepts the Tang poetry translators gradually constructed a classic Chinese style in modern American poetry Hence the traditional Chinese culture represented by Tang poetry spread more widely in the English speaking world producing a more lasting impact on societies and cultures outside China and demonstrating the poetry's ability to transcend the boundaries of time region nationality and culture Due to different cultural backgrounds the Tang poets or poems admired most by Western readers may not necessarily receive high acclaim in China. Sometimes language barriers and cultural differences make it impossible to represent certain allusions or cultural and ethnic concepts correctly during the translation process. However, in recent decades the translation of Tang poetry has evolved considerably in both quantity and quality. As culture is manifested in language and language is part of culture, the translation of Tang poetry has allowed Western scholars to gain an unprecedented understanding of China and Chinese culture.
