Columbia Guide To The Holocaust:

The Columbia Guide to the Holocaust Donald L. Niewyk, Francis R. Nicosia, 2000 Offers a general history of the Holocaust and addresses many of the core issues and debates surrounding it The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G. S. Coetsier, 2014-01-09 In The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G S Coetsier breaks new ground by demonstrating the Jewish existential nature of Etty Hillesum's spiritual and cultural life in light of the writings of Martin Buber Emmanuel Levinas and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Hillesum's diaries and letters written between 1941 and 1943 illustrate her struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Second World War and the Shoah By finding God under the rubble of the horrors she rediscovers the divine presence between humankind while taking up responsibility for the Other as a way to embrace justice and compassion In a fascinating accessible and thorough study Coetsier dispels much of the confusion that assails readers when they are exposed to the bewildering range of Christian and Jewish influences and other cultural interpretations of her writings The result is a convincing and profound picture of Etty Hillesum's path to spiritual freedom

The Pius War Joseph Bottum, David G. Dalin, 2010-03-16 In the brutal fight that has raged in recent years over the reputation of Pope Pius XII leader of the Catholic Church during World War II the Holocaust and the early years of the Cold War the task of defending the Pope has fallen primarily to reviewers These reviewers formulated a brilliant response to the attack on Pius but their work was scattered in various newspapers magazines and scholarly journals making it nearly impossible for the average reader to gauge the results In The Pius War Weekly Standard's Joseph Bottum has joined with Rabbi David G Dalin to gather a representative and powerful sample of these reviews deliberately chosen from a wide range of publications Together with a team of professors historians and other experts the reviewers conclusively investigate the claims attacking Pius XII The Pius War and a detailed annotated bibliography that follows will prove to be a definitive tool for scholars and students destined to become a major resource for anyone interested in questions of Catholicism the Holocaust and World War II Final Solution David Cesarani, 2016-11-08 The first year 1933 Judenpolitik 1934 1938 Pogrom 1938 in 1915 16 and of some six million Jews from 1939 45 were the most extreme instances of mass murder in the First and Second World Wars respectively This book examines the development and dynamics of both genocides While bringing out the many differences in the origins course and nature of the crimes the book argues that both need to be placed into the context of the wider violent agendas and demographic schemes of the perpetrator states In the earlier case it is important to consider the Ottoman violence against Assyrian Christians and Greek Orthodox subjects and programs of forced assimilation of non Turkish Muslim groups including many Muslims victimized by other states In the later case it is impossible to understand the development of the final solution of the Jewish question without paying attention to Nazi policy against Slavic groups the disabled and Europe s Romany population Both genocides furthermore need to be examined in the deeper contexts of the multi causal violence resulting from the collapse of the eastern and southeastern European dynastic empires from the late nineteenth century and from the establishment of new types of state in their aftermath Finally the book explains why these two major genocides occupy very different places in our contemporary memorial culture It argues that the memory politics of the Armenian genocide illustrate the very tight limits to what we can expect in the way of meaningful international concern for ongoing genocides Meanwhile the instrumentalization of the memory of the Holocaust can actually inhibit self criticism on the parts of the western states that increasingly foreground Holocaust memorial days and museums in their civic education
