Combat Medic World War II:

Combat Medic World War II John A. Kerner, M.D., 2014-06-04 Here in Combat Medic we see a bright and talented young physician transformed into a front line battlefield medic in the greatest battle of WWII the Normandy Invasion In this personal reflection his heart and courage are played out with genuine humanity Dianne Feinstein United States Senator It is with great pleasure that I learned through the office of the President of the French Republic of your nomination to the rank of Chevalier in the French Legion of Honor Guy Wildenstein President the American Society of the French Legion of Honor Dr Kerner is a physician s physician the history of a gifted scholar teacher administrator and most important of all doctor The Honorable Barbara Boxer United States Senator Combat Medic is a page turner It is a miracle that I have this manuscript to read that you lived to write it Professor Barth Marshall USF Fromm Institute A decorated medical officer s harrowing and insightful portrait of war on the battlefield from northern France to Germany More than fifty years after the carnage at Normandy Dr John Kerner draws from his wartime journals and letters home to present a candid and insightful portrait of war Medical units under his charge pushed through western Europe improving on the treatment and transportation of the wounded during some of the most brutal fighting of the war Amidst the mud and blood of combat this decorated medical officer shares a time and place when living beyond each day was in serious question Kerner s account includes some of the greatest moments of World War II the dramatic breakout of the Normandy hedgerow country the thrilling dash across France in 1944 and the exhilarating seige of Bastogne during the Battle of the Bulge Kerner s achievement of saving lives often with improvised methods and shells flying overhead is a gripping account of man s noble humanity in the midst of horrifying inhumanity

Combat Medic, World War II John Kerner, 2002 The Medic Leo Litwak, 2025-05-01 Leo Litwak was a university student when he joined the Army to fight in World War II a naive callow eighteen year old son prepared to join other soldier boys being hauled off to war In 1944 he found himself in Belgium in the middle of the waning European war a medic trained to save lives but often powerless to do much more than watch life slip away It was hard fighting that took Litwak and his rifle company into the heart of Germany at the close of the war But Litwak learned there was more to war than fighting more to understand than maps and ammunition In the final months of the war he watched the men in his company tenderly serve food at a Passover seder for a dozen brutalized Jewish women newly liberated from slavery He watched those same men torture and execute defenseless German soldiers He fell in love at the Moulin Rouge in a scene straight out of a Toulouse Lautrec painting The men in his company were dreamers thieves friends killers revolutionaries and heroes They were the men of their time sometimes brave sometimes compassionate sometimes cruel sometimes loving usually scared They were held together by loyalty only to be scattered by the war s end The Medic is the gritty wise bighearted and unflinching account of one man s quest to find sense in war and its aftermath

young men drafted in WWII was transported from a simple hard working life in rural America in 1942 to a complex stressful environment that would forever change his life Nothing could have prepared him for the experiences he encountered as a combat medic and ambulance driver with the Third Army led by Blood and Guts General George S Patton Jr Parker was part of the D Day invasion After landing at Normandy he spent more than ten months on the front lines supporting the armored divisions through five major campaigns in France Luxembourg and Germany A gifted storyteller Parker presents a self deprecating narrative filled with keen insights and colorful descriptions of day to day life with fellow infantrymen officers civilians and enemy soldiers As his saga unfolds it describes the transformation of a na ve and cocky country boy into a battle weary survivor struggling to maintain his dignity compassion and humanity In Combat Medic Parker demonstrates a startling recall of events from decades ago including detailed descriptions of people places and even conversations indicating just how much of an impact those war years had on him V-mail Keith Winston,1985 A collection of letters written by a medic in Europe during World War II Combat Medic Isadore L. Valenti,1998 Looking Back Ronald E. Coe,2010-07-15 Halfway through his undergraduate education at Colby College Ron enrolled in the U S Army Reserve and served during the Second World War as a combat medic with K Company in the 414th Regiment of the 104th Timberwolf Division As a soldier he was awarded a Purple Heart for a shrapnel injury to the left leg and back and a Silver Star for gallantry in action his desire in writing this work was not to tell the gory details of war but to tell the emotional and human side of war These pages could easily be filled with bloody stories of mangled bodies and vivid depictions of the war that are a part of every medic s daily life While these vivid details remain etched in his memory to what avail would these horrid memories be today for the reader or for the legacy of those whose lives were taken by war These stories evoke emotions that cannot help but touch the reader with the humanistic side of this war these soldiers whose lives were taken as such young ages and by such cruel and unfair circumstances were despite their nationalities all human beings They were young men whose lives and potential before the war were not much different than his COMBAT MEDIC WWII John a. Kerner M. D.,2012-08-15 Editorial Reviews From Booklist Called to active duty late in 1943 University of California San Francisco surgical resident Kerner went to England with the Thirty fifth Infantry Division in May 1944 Landing in Normandy shortly after D Day he was involved in combat for 264 days in France the Low Countries and Germany He glorifies neither himself nor the military but describing much individual and small group heroism shows how hard pressed American forces ill informed about the enemy often had to throw badly trained replacements into the front lines where they naturally suffered many casualties Kerner frequently describes personal highlights such as diving for cover while assisting a patient and receiving the rarely given Combat Medic Award after riding the outside of a tank blasting its way through the siege at Bastogne Kerner based the book on his letters that their recipients saved and thereby writes with more immediacy than mere perhaps clouded memories might allow Giving his account unexpected depth is his knowledge of popular piano music and of European furniture and buildings the latter

Medic! Robert L. Smith,2001 The is the recollection of combat in Europe during World War II of then naive nineteen year old Army medic Robert L Smith responsible for saving the lives of severely wounded GIs under the worst possible conditions The author recounts his journey of remembrance which he took with his wife half a century later Using a hand drawn map from the war Smith retraced his route with the 112th Regiment 28th Infantry Division from Omaha Beach in Normandy to deep into Germany Recounting his experiences on the front Smith captures the trauma of a young man s survival in war In the chronicle of his trip back to old battlegrounds he illuminates his experiences with the wise perspective of age

A Doctor's War Arthur L. Ludwick, Jr., M.D.,Peggy Ludwick,2022-09-26 A medical officer in the 34th Red Bull Infantry Division on the front lines of World War II Lt Col Maj Arthur L Ludwick Jr was responsible for the well being of traumatized and wounded American soldiers through some of the bloodiest engagements in North Africa and Italy Kasserine and Fondouk Passes Hill 609 Monte Pantano Cassino and Anzio He was awarded both the Purple Heart and Silver Star unusual combat commendations for an unarmed medical officer His letters home detail his experiences with keen observations of the people and landscapes Based on Ludwick s letters and an archive of interviews military documents and photos this multifaceted narrative compiled by his daughter also tells the story of her discovery of her father as the young man she never knew     A Time to Remember William Wallace Wenzel,2008     Military Review ,2005     Head Strong Michael D. Matthews,2014 Changes in the world s political landscape coupled with radical advances in the technology of war will greatly alter how militaries are formed trained and led In Head Strong Psychology and Military Dominance in the 21st Century Michael D Matthews explores the many ways that psychology will make the difference for wars yet to come     A Companion to American Military History James C. Bradford,2009-11-03 With more than 60 essays A Companion to American Military History presents a comprehensive analysis of the historiography of United States military history from the colonial era to the present Covers the entire spectrum of US history from the Indian and imperial conflicts of the seventeenth century to the battles in Afghanistan and Iraq Features an unprecedented breadth of coverage from eminent military historians and emerging scholars including little studied topics such as the military and music military ethics care of the dead and sports Surveys and evaluates the best scholarship on every important era and topic Summarizes current debates and identifies areas where conflicting interpretations are in need of further study     Praise the Lord and Pass the Penicillin Dean W. Andersen,2015-09-01 He was a chemistry student in college on his way home for a visit when news of Pearl Harbor came over the car radio Like 16 million others from his generation Dean W Andersen was called to active military duty and spent the next 38 months of his life as a medic in the Pacific war theater This memoir shows that the human feelings of fear loss anger hate patriotism and solidarity were the same then as they have been for every war since The experiences of the greatest generation can comfort and advise young people today who may well be faced with challenges as great as those met so long ago Based on 93 letters written home to his wife and parents during his time away at war this book includes information that was disallowed by censors and in some cases cut out of his correspondence Though the history of the European theater in World War II is well documented considerably less information is available about the war in the Pacific The author recalls the many aspects of his experience from landing on beaches in the South Pacific amid exotic birds and animals and interacting with the people of New Guinea to evacuating wounded soldiers through steaming jungles and snake infested swamps and over high mountains to facing machine gun fire and watching snipers kill the last man in a column of marchers The book includes many interesting photographs that have never been published including images of the Japanese surrender     Medic! Robert Joseph Franklin,2006-01-01 Lt Gen George S Patton remarked that the 45th Infantry Division is one of the best if not the best division that the American army has ever produced Such praise came at a steep price for the 45th saw some of the fiercest fighting in the European campaign from Sicily to Anzio and from southern France into Germany and racked up one of the highest casualty rates Through it all medic Robert Doc Joe Franklin drafted in 1942 and thrust into combat with no specific training or knowledge for treating war wounds soldiered on fighting as hard to keep his men alive as the enemy fought to kill them His medical story one of the first of World War II is told here with simplicity unflinching honesty and grit Studded with memorable vignettes of a friend who smells the Germans long before they appear the dog that acts as an artillery spotter the lieutenant who can't see beyond a few hundred feet Franklin's memoir documents the almost unbearable drama of ground gained and lives lost as well as the terrible human toll of battle on himself his comrades and civilians quite literally caught in the crossfire A rare look at the fight for lives laid on the line Medic brings to life as never before the reality of war      World War II Resources on the Internet Roland H. Worth, 2002 This book is a guide to the enormous number of World War II resources available on the Internet Section One contains addresses of websites with information pertaining to pre war international diplomacy and crises in Europe and Asia and United States and Allied wartime diplomacy in Europe and Asia Section Two lists websites containing information about the world at war particularly those providing overviews of the war or specifically covering the fighting in Europe the Mediterranean the Pacific Islands or mainland Asia Sites listed in Section Three contain information about selected major civilian and military leaders of the war years including Charles de Gaulle Adolf Hitler Chiang Kai Shek General Douglas MacArthur Benito Mussolini General George S Patton Jr Franklin D Roosevelt Joseph Stalin Tojo Hideki and Harry S Truman to name a few For each site listed a brief description and summary of its information is provided      Infantry Combat Medics in Europe, 1944-45 T.

Shilcutt, 2013-05-23 Medics learned quickly to ignore standing operating procedures in order to save lives but tensions within infantry units created a paradoxical culture of isolation and acceptance This groundbreaking work examines training and combat experiences of soldiers working in Battalion Aid Stations and those who went as aid men to the line companies
