Contemporary German Literature Frauke Matthes, 2023-05-13 The complex nexus between masculinity and national identity has long troubled but also fascinated the German cultural imagination This has become apparent again since the fall of the Iron Curtain and the turn of the millennium when transnational developments have noticeably shaped Germany's self perception as a nation This book examines the social and political impact of transnationalism with reference to current discourses of masculinity in novels by five contemporary male German language authors Specifically it analyses how conceptions of the masculine interact with those of nationality ethnicity and otherness in the selected texts and assesses the new masculinities that result from those interactions Exploring how local discourses of masculinity become part of transnational contexts in contemporary writing the book moves a consideration of masculinities from a native into a transnational sphere

Generational Shifts in Contemporary German Culture Laurel Cohen-Pfister, Susanne Veas-Gulani, 2010 The concept of the generation in today's German culture and literature and its role in German identity In the debates since 1945 on German history and culture the concept of generations has become ever more prominent Recent and ongoing shifts in how the various generations are seen and see themselves in relation to history and to each other have taken on key importance in contemporary German cultural studies The seismic events of twentieth century German history are no longer solely first generational lived experiences but are also historical moments seen through the eyes of successor generations The generation seen as a category of memory thus holds a key to major shifts in German identity The changing generational perspectives of German writers and filmmakers not only reflect but also influence these trends exposing both the expected differences between generational views and unexpected continuities Moreover as younger artists reframe recent history older generations like the 1968ers are also contributing to these shifts by reassessing their own experiences and cultural contributions This volume of new essays applies current discourse on generations in German culture to contemporary works dealing with major sociohistorical events since the Nazi period Contributors Svea Brunert Laurel Cohen Pfister Friederike Eigler Thomas C Fox Katharina Gerstenberger Erin McGlothlin Brad Prager Ilka Rasch Susanne Rinner Caroline Schaumann Maria Stehle Reinhild Steingruber Susanne Veas Gulani Laurel Cohen Pfister is Associate Professor of German at Gettysburg College and Susanne Veas Gulani is Assistant Professor of German and Comparative Literature at Case Western Reserve University

Phantoms of War in Contemporary German Literature, Films and Discourse A. Fuchs, 2008-01-09 Phantoms of War in Contemporary German Literature Films and Discourse offers an up to date and comprehensive analysis of fundamental shifts in German cultural memory Focusing on the resurgence of family stories in fiction autobiography and in film this study challenges the institutional boundaries of Germany's memory culture that have guided and arguably limited German identity debates Essays on contemporary German literature are complemented by explorations of heritage films and museum discourse Together these essays put forward a compelling theory of family narratives and a critical evaluation of generational discourse      Aesthetics and Politics in Modern German Culture Brigid Haines, Stephen R. Parker, Colin Riordan, 2010 The papers were delivered at a conference Aesthetics and Politics in Modern German Culture which was held in honour of Professor Rhys W Williams the conference took place from 31 August to 2 September 2008 at the University of Wales Conference Centre Gregynog Hall Foreword      German History in Modern Times William W. Hagen, 2012-02-13 This history of German speaking central Europe offers a very wide perspective emphasizing a succession of many layered communal identities It highlights the interplay of individual society culture and political power contrasting German with Western patterns Rather than treating the Germans as a collective whole whose national history amounts to a cumulative biography the book presents the pre modern era of the Holy Roman Empire the nineteenth century the 1914 45 era of war dictatorship and genocide and the Cold War and post Cold War eras since 1945 as successive worlds of German life thought and mentality This book s Germany is polycentric and multicultural including the multinational Austrian Habsburg Empire and the German Jews Its approach to National Socialism offers a conceptually new understanding of the Holocaust The book s numerous illustrations reveal German self presentations and styles of life which often contrast with Western ideas of Germany      Grimmelshausen's Views on Contemporary German Life as Expressed in the Simplicianische Schriften Gabriel Anna Louisa Schaefer, 1938      Studies in German Literature in the Nineteenth Century John Firman Coar, 1903      The Outlook , 1908      The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee, 1929 Includes section Reviews and notices of books      German Life Ethlyn T. Clough, 1913      Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1909      Contemporary German Cultural Studies Alison M. Phipps, Senior Lecturer in German Alison Phipps, 2002 As the study of German comes under the influence of other disciplinary approaches the notion of culture has evolved from one focused largely on the arts to an approach which understands culture as the way of life of a people or a period This introductory book examines contemporary German culture not only in the context of its intellectual life the media the arts political figures and events but also in the context of the theories and methodologies of cultural studies anthropology and sociology Providing a critical assessment of the diversity of German culture and identity Contemporary German Cultural Studies focuses on the contemporary period and at the same time considers the influence of the past and forces such as globalization The emphasis is on the interpretation and analysis of the varieties of German cultures the processes the practices and the performances The book also explores intercultural issues including the implications of studying German culture from an anglophone perspective      Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. 1902-1906 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1908      Announcement of Courses ... Pomona College (Claremont, Calif.), 1929      Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1902      Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of
