Contemporary Irish Society An Introduction:

Contemporary Northern Irish Society Colin Coulter, 1999 New expanded edition of a classic anthropology title that examines ethnicity as a dynamic and shifting aspect of social relations Contemporary Irish Society Michel Peillon, 1982

The Quality of Life Richard Pine, 2021-06-09 These essays represent a selection of 40 years commentary on the political dimensions of cultural life They address the entire spectrum of culture from theories of international communication to the provision of cultural and leisure facilities at local level As a former consultant to the Council of Europe the author has developed a penetrating insight into the decision making process between local authorities and citizens groups which is discussed in two seminal papers from the 1980s which pioneered the concept of Cultural Democracy In addition the book s close readings of novels and plays by Irish and Greek writers explore the way that all writing and forms of self expression have a political message and repercussions Cad chuige an Ghaeilge? Hilary Tovey, 1989 Contemporary Ireland Eoin O'Malley, 2017-08-24 In the last quarter century Ireland has experienced dramatic political and economic change This broad ranging text provides an accessible and up to date introduction to Irish society politics and culture as well as developments in its economy and place in Europe and the world Schools and Society in Ireland Sheelagh Drudy, Kathleen Lynch, 1993 A wide ranging textbook for courses in both education and sociology The text discusses major current issues in Irish education including control ideology inequality ability groupings co education and the curriculum The text also examines educational policy changes over the past 25 years Working-Class Women in Irish Literature and Theatre Clara Mallon, Salomé Paul, 2025-07-25 Working Class Women in Irish Literature and Theatre critically engages with works of theatre both by and about working class women historically and presently Addressing professional and community theatre productions from both textual and performative perspectives this volume focuses on works of theatre by practitioners directors playwrights and performance artists across rural and urban contexts Irish theatre has a long history of signifying social class Yet the representations of working class women in Irish theatrical history also encompass several problematic issues starting with the fact that these depictions were created by male writers like J M Synge and Se n O Casey to name but a few Nonetheless the theatre s emphasis on embodied performance and its ability to reach its public in an unmediated way has attracted working class engagement perhaps more than other art forms in Ireland Contemporary playwrights in the Republic and the north of Ireland have tirelessly striven to illuminate working class women s lived experiences and have reframed the characterisation of working class women by drawing out the intersection of social class with sexualities ethnic minorities and racial identities This edited collection also includes the voices of directors playwrights and performers who identify with a working class social background offering first hand accounts of their lived experience in the theatre industry Belongings Mary P. Corcoran, Perry Share, 2008 The contributors to this volume deal with the notion of belonging how it evolves manifests itself is shaped and challenged across a range of contexts in contemporary Ireland In Belongings the reader is invited to contemplate recent developments in Irish society through the eyes of sociologists who scrutinise a series of events and issues relevant to the years 2005 and 2006 The book provides sociological insights into such diverse topics as the Michael Neary case the Miss China Ireland pageant Paddy Power's provocative advertisements and the Jumbo Breakfast Roll It revisits events such as the 2006 commemoration of the 1916 Rising the opening of the Dundrum Town Centre and the Irish Ferries dispute Issues such as apartment living new planned communities the busyness of everyday life the attraction of self help books and the fervour of Munster mania are examined in a fresh and engaging way BOOK JACKET Belfast Peter Shirlow, Brendan Murtagh, 2006 Examines segregation and its impact on social divisions and the peace process The Anti-Imperialist and Nationalist Struggle of Halide Edib Adivar and Lady Augusta Gregory Neslihan G.

Albay, 2020-03-04 This book offers a comparative study on the literary configurations of nation state identity in the works of the contemporaneous Halide Edib Adivar and Lady Augusta Gregory specifically focusing on their roles as social reformists female activists and anti imperialists through the components of national identity such as gender language and transnational exchanges It exposes the critical stance adopted by Lady Gregory and Halide Edib against British imperialism and questions if these writers exhibit a local or international outlook of anti imperialism It is the first comparative study on Lady Gregory and Halide Edib and explores how their anti imperial stances shaped or influenced their sense of national identity It will allow the reader to reach a unique evaluation of the literary works of these two writers with different cultural backgrounds but similar national ideals Books in Print, 1977 The Information Revolution and Ireland Lee Komito, 2004 This book focuses on issues arising from the technological revolution that we are all experiencing It is not intended to be an exhaustive or definitive discussion of the digital revolution or the Information Society nor does it proclaim or denounce the new Information Society However whether there is a new economic political and social order emerging or not and whether the new order is beneficial or detrimental to citizens all agree that significant changes are taking place Often it seems as though we are all bystanders watching change take place but having very little participation in the process The central issue in this book is that technology including the new information and communications technology linked with the Information Society is not a force external to society and beyond the control of society it is an integral part of society Komito does not try to predict the future his aim is to encourage individuals to contribute to policy choices so that the society that emerges is one that citizens desire rather than one that is not of their making or choosing He encourages discussion and thought rather than proclaiming conclusions By using Irish examples the book will be of especial value on Information Studies courses for Irish students but by dealing with global issues in a highly readable way this book will be applicable to courses elsewhere

Books in Print Supplement, 1982 Ulster Folklife, 1987 Études irlandaises, 1994 Paperbound Books in Print, 1983 Ireland Ronaldo Munck, 1985-10-20 International Yearbook of Organizational Democracy, 1983

Culture and Politics in Northern Ireland, 1960-1990 Eamonn Hughes, 1991 Seeks to correct some of the distortions propagated about Northern Ireland by the media's emphasis on violence and division within the province. The book examines various aspects of life in Northern Ireland and especially the role of the arts in transcending sectarian barriers. Prejudice in Ireland Revisited Mícheál Mac Gréil, 1996
