The Contemporary American Poets Mark Strand, 1969 By 1940 the revolution we call Modernism had run its course the battle against the nineteenth century had been won with time's help and the poetry of experimentation was so secure that it became a new academicism Whereas we had gone out of our way in earlier decades to make a pact with the most radical poet of the nineteenth century Walt Whitman we accepted quite matter of factly our association with Longfellow In fact it is part of the character of American poetry since 1940 to have made friends with everyone Mark Strand from the Preface
