Contemporary Public Opinion Issues And The News:

Contemporary Public Opinion Maxwell E. McCombs, Edna F. Einsiedel, David Hugh Weaver, 1991 This book discusses the public opinion process with a focus on the role that the news media play in shaping public opinion Although heavily influenced by the agenda setting perspective the view that the news media define the important issues of the day and determine how these issues are presented the authors neither support nor refute this claim They present instead a variety of contemporary scholarship integrated into a coherent picture of public opinion for a general audience Contemporary Public Opinion Maxwell McCombs, 2017-06-29 Cover Half Title Title Copyright Contents Preface PART ONE INTRODUCTION Chapter One Communication and Public Opinion Chapter Two The Agenda Setting Role of Mass Communication PART TWO EXPLORING THE NEWS Chapter Three Practices Values and Traditions in Journalism Chapter Four Framing the News PART THREE REPORTING THE NEWS Chapter Five Shaping the News Agenda Chapter Six Exposure to News PART FOUR IMAGINING THE NEWS Chapter Seven Knowledge of Public Affairs Chapter Eight Forming Images and Opinions Chapter Nine Participation in Public Affairs PART FIVE CREATING PUBLIC OPINION Chapter Ten The Transfer of Interests Author Index The Influentials Gabriel Weimann, 1994-09-30 Although opinion leadership has been the subject of numerous studies in areas ranging from politics to fashion and in many societies and cultures The Influentials represents the first systematic analysis of the concept It offers a multidisciplinary presentation of the definitions typologies methods and findings of opinion leadership from its early formulation through the emergence of the first empirical evidence to the most recent research Weimann examines opinion leadership and personal influence in a number of areas including marketing public opinion and elections education fashion science agriculture and health care He also examines the growing criticism of the model based on theoretical and empirical weaknesses of the original concept and evaluates for the first time modifications that have emerged including a new measure the PS Scale and its testing and application The final chapters for the first time link opinion leadership with the important theoretical and research tradition of agenda setting The Oxford Handbook of American Public Opinion and the Media Robert Y. Shapiro, Lawrence R. Jacobs, 2013-05-23 With engaging new contributions from the major figures in the fields of the media and public opinion The Oxford Handbook of American Public Opinion and the Media is a key point of reference for anyone working in American politics today Making the News Amber E. Boydstun, 2022-12-22 Media attention can play a profound role in whether or not officials act on a policy issue but how policy issues make the news in the first place has remained a puzzle Why do some issues go viral and then just as quickly fall off the radar How is it that the media can sustain public interest for months in a complex story like negotiations over Obamacare while ignoring other important issues in favor of stories on balloon boy With Making the News Amber Boydstun offers an eye opening look at the explosive patterns of media attention that determine which issues are brought before the public At the heart of her argument is the observation that the media have two modes an alarm mode for breaking stories and a patrol mode for covering them in greater depth While institutional incentives often initiate alarm mode around a story they also propel news outlets into the watchdog like patrol mode around its policy implications until the next big news item breaks What results from this pattern of fixation followed by rapid change is skewed coverage of policy issues with a few receiving the majority of media attention while others receive none at all Boydstun documents this systemic explosiveness and skew through analysis of media coverage across policy issues including in depth looks at the waxing and waning of coverage around two issues capital punishment and the war on terror Making the News shows how the seemingly unpredictable day to day decisions of the newsroom produce distinct patterns of operation with implications good and bad for national politics

News Narratives and News Framing Karen S. Johnson-Cartee, 2005 News Narratives and News Framing is a revealing look at how the media's construction of news affects our political economic and social realities In this introduction to the theory behind news framing Karen Johnson Cartee pulls together elements from communication journalism politics and sociology to create a picture of how news forms these realities for the public With its comprehensive reference section and suggestions on how to influence the news agenda this is a beneficial resource for students in political communication media criticism and communication theory Visit our website for sample chapters The Anthropology of News and Journalism S.
