Contemporary Rhetoric W. Ross Winterowd, 1975 Essays on Classical Rhetoric and Modern Discourse Robert J. Connors, Lisa S. Ede, Andrea A. Lunsford, 1984 Eighteen essays by leading scholars in English speech communication education and philosophy explore the vitality of the classical rhetorical tradition and its influence on both contemporary discourse studies and the teaching of writing Some of the essays investigate the rhetorical and historical issues Others show the bearing of classical rhetoric on contemporary problems in composition thus blending theory and practice Common to the varied approaches and viewpoints expressed in this volume is one central theme the 20th century revival of rhetoric entails a recovery of the classical tradition with its marriage of a rich and fully articulated theory with an equally efficacious practice A preface demonstrates the contribution of Edward P J Corbett to the 20th century revival and a last chapter includes a bibliography of his works Techne, from Neoclassicism to Postmodernism Kelly Pender, 2011-05-21 Techne from Neoclassicism to Postmodernism offers a deconstructive reading of the debates that have surrounded the term techne in rhetoric and composition explaining how we can affirm its value as a theory and pedagogy of writing without denying the legitimacy of the postmodern critiques that have been leveled against it Perspectives on Rhetorical Invention Janet Atwill, Janice M. Lauer, 2002 Rhetorical invention the discursive art of inquiry and discovery has great significance in the history of spoken and written communication dating back to the ancient Greeks and Romans Yet invention has received relatively little attention in recent discussions of rhetoric writing and communication This collection of essays is the first book in years to focus on current research in rhetorical invention The contributors include many well established scholars as well as new voices in the field They reflect a variety of approaches and perspectives theory history culture politics institutions pedagogy and community service Several of the essays address the relationship between invention and postmodernism some by refiguring invention others by challenging postmodernism Still other essays explore multicultural conceptions of invention the civic function of invention and rhetoric and the role of rhetorical invention in institutions and in community problem solving Taken together these essays provide a much needed forum for ongoing study of rhetorical invention within the framework of recent developments in both scholarship and the culture at large If inventional research is to continue and flourish notes Janice Lauer in her foreword it must remain sensitive to shifts in epistemology ethics and politics The essays in this volume undertake this effort The Editors Janet M Atwill is associate professor of English at the University of Tennessee The author of Rhetoric Reclaimed Aristotle and the Liberal Arts Tradition and coauthor of Four Worlds of Writing Inquiry and Action in Context and Writing A College Handbook she has published articles in Rhetoric Review Encyclopedia of Rhetoric and the Journal of Advanced Composition Janice M Lauer is Reece McGee Distinguished Professor of English at Purdue University where she founded directed and teaches in the graduate program in Rhetoric and Composition She is coauthor of Four Worlds of Writing and Composition Research Empirical Designs and has published numerous articles on rhetoric and

The Legacy of Kenneth Burke Herbert W. Simons, Trevor Melia, 1989 Capturing the lively modernist milieu of Kenneth Burke's early career in Greenwich Village where Burke arrived in 1915 fresh from high school in Pittsburgh this book discovers him as an intellectual apprentice conversing with the moderns Burke found himself in the midst of an avant garde peopled by Malcolm Cowley Marianne Moore Jean Toomer Katherine Anne Porter William Carlos Williams Allen Tate Hart Crane Alfred Stieglitz and a host of other fascinating figures Burke himself who died in 1993 at the age of 96 has been hailed as America's most brilliant and suggestive critic and the most significant theorist of rhetoric since Cicero Many schools of thought have claimed him as their own but Burke has defied classification and indeed has often been considered a solitary eccentric genius immune to intellectual fashions But Burke's formative work of the 1920s when he first defined himself and his work in the context of the modernist conversation has gone relatively unexamined Here we see Burke living and working with the crowd of poets painters and dramatists affiliated with Others magazine Stieglitz's 291 gallery and Eugene O'Neill's Provincetown Players the leftists associated with the magazines The Masses and Seven Arts the Dadaists and the modernist writers working on literary journals like The Dial where Burke in his capacity as an associate editor saw T S Eliot's The Wasteland into print for the first time and provided other editorial services for Thomas Mann e e cummings Ezra Pound and many other writers of note Burke also met the iconoclasts of the older generation represented by Theodore Dreiser and H L Mencken the New Humanists and the literary nationalists who founded Contact and The New Republic Jack Selzer shows how Burke's own early poems fiction and essays emerged from and contributed to the modernist conversation in Greenwich Village He draws on a wonderfully rich array of letters between Burke and his modernist friends and on the memoirs of his associates to create a vibrant portrait of the young Burke's transformation from aesthete to social critic

Beyond Outlining Betty Cain, 1992 This book is a unique long needed comprehensive study of whole discourse form going beyond traditional prescriptions Ancient and contemporary innovations are combined with a new theory and practical application The author rescues the organization of persuasive explanatory prose from long neglect and unimaginative traditional formulas She demonstrates a new theory of form fluency in analyses of student texts and applies it in new form heuristics that go beyond outlining The main audience for this book will be professors and graduate students in the growing discipline of rhetoric composition or any teacher or writer interested in new ideas about organizing discourse A Handbook of Modern Rhetorical Terms Linda Woodson,1979 Written Communication for Engineers, Scientists, and Technical Writers University of Michigan. Engineering Summer Conferences,1983 Rhetoric and Ideology Charles W. Kneupper,1989 Ethical Issues in College Writing Fredric G. Gale,James L. Kinneavy,Phillip Sipiora,1999 Ethical Issues in College Writing is the first systematic book length exploration of ethics in college writing It includes essays by many of the most respected scholars in the field The book should be of interest to writing teachers at universities colleges community colleges and technical colleges across the country Better Writing for Lawyers Tim Perrin,Law Society of Upper Canada,1990 Written Communications for Engineers, Technical Writers, and Managers Using Personal Computers University of Michigan. Engineering Summer Conferences,1984 Out of Style Paul Butler,2008-01-31 Paul Butler applauds the emerging interest in the study of style among scholars of rhetoric and composition arguing that the loss of stylistics from composition in recent decades left it alive only in the popular imagination as a set of grammar conventions Butler s goal in Out of Style is to articulate style as a vital and productive source of invention and to redefine its importance for current research theory and pedagogy Scholars in composition know that the ideas about writing most common in the discourse of public intellectuals are egregiously backward Without a vital approach to stylistics Butler argues writing studies will never dislodge the controlling fantasies of self authorized pundits in the nation s intellectual press Rhetoric and composition must answer with a public discourse that is responsive to readers ongoing interest in style but is also grounded in composition theory Research in the Teaching of English ,1981 Literary Nonfiction Chris Anderson,1989 Collection of essays by literary critics who are also teachers of writing and literature Each shares Anderson s view that nonfiction prose crosses genre and discipline boundaries A Rhetoric for Writing Teachers Erika Lindemann,1982 The English Quarterly ,1978 Visions of the Wretched Nabil Cherni,2004
