Fraser, Yu-Chieh Li, 2020-07-20 This volume offers a path breaking reassessment of Xu Bing's oeuvre by analyzing the diverse cultural environments in which his work has developed since the Book from the Sky It contains three lecture transcripts and eight art historical essays these explore themes such as Xu's animal works audience participation new ink prints realism socialist spectacle and word play A critical question addressed in this volume is what carries art to a global level beyond regional histories and cultural symbols

Absorbing critical essays on contemporary Chinese aesthetics addressing the social context and philosophical concerns that underlie Xu Bing's key works. The authors analyze Xu's art shedding light on the tangled history of socialism and neoliberalism in the Post Mao period. Prof. Dr. Lothar Ledderose, Senior Professor, Institute of East Asian Art, University of Heidelberg. Art and Artists of Twentieth-Century China, Michael Sullivan, 2023-12-22. This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture. Michael Sullivan, recognized throughout the world as a leading scholar of Chinese art, vividly documents the conflicting pulls of traditional and Western values on Chinese art and provides 364 illustrations in color and black and white to show the great range of artistic expression and the historical processes that occurred within various movements. A substantial biographical index of twentieth-century Chinese artists is a valuable addition to the text. Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation, despair and hope. He expertly conveys the diverse and at times bizarre intertwining of Chinese cultural history and art during this century. Included are the intense debates between traditionalists and reformers, the creation of the first art schools and the birth of the idea, shocking in ethnocentric China, that art is a world language that obliterates all frontiers. The scholarly traditions of classical Chinese painting, the belated discovery of Western modernism, the artistic upheaval under Communism and China's rethinking of the very nature of art, all have a place in Sullivan's fascinating history. Michael Sullivan has known many of the major figures in China's modern art movement of the 1930s and 1940s and has also gained the confidence of younger artists who rose to prominence following the 1979 Peking Spring. This long-awaited book, richly documented and abundantly illustrated, is a capstone to Sullivan's work and will be enthusiastically welcomed by art lovers everywhere. Ink Art, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2013. Featuring 70 works in various media: paintings, calligraphy, photographs, woodblock prints, video, and sculpture that were created during the past three decades. Ink Art: Past as Present in Contemporary China will demonstrate how China's ancient pattern of seeking cultural renewal through the reinterpretation of past models remains a viable creative path. Although all of the artists have transformed their sources through new modes of expression, visitors will recognize thematic, aesthetic, or technical attributes in their creations that have meaningful links to China's artistic past. The exhibition will be organized thematically into four parts and will include such highlights as Xu Bing's dramatic Book from the Sky (ca. 1988), an installation that will fill an entire gallery; Family Tree (2000), a set of vivid photographs documenting a performance by Zhang Huan in which his facial features and his identity are obscured gradually by physiognomic texts that are inscribed directly onto his face; and Map of China (2006) by Ai Weiwei, which is constructed entirely of wood salvaged from demolished Qing dynasty temples.
