Contemporary Landscapes of Contemplation Rebecca Krinke, 2005-11-14 Introduction Contemplation landscapes of contemplation contemporary Rebecca Krinke Attending Marc Treib On the transcendent in landscapes of contemplation Heinrich Hermann Map of memory an interview Michael Singer with Rebecca Krinke Contemplative landscapes restorative landscapes Rebecca Krinke Berlin typology of contemplation Lance Necker Filling a void creating contemporary spaces for contemplation John Beardsley Contemplation, Distraction, Interruption Brooke Courtney White, 2003

Neuroscience for Designing Green Spaces Agnieszka Olszewska-Guizzo, 2023-05-30 Urban parks and gardens are where people go to reconnect with nature and destress But do they all provide the same benefits or are some better than others What specific attributes set some green spaces apart Can we objectively measure their impact on mental health and well being If so how do we use this evidence to guide the design of mentally healthy cities The Contemplative Landscape Model unveils the path to answer these questions Rooted in landscape architecture and neuroscience this innovative concept is described for the first time in an extended format offering a deep dive into contemplative design and the science behind it In the face of the global mental health crisis and increasing disconnection from nature design strategies for creating healthier urban environments are what our cities so sorely need This book delves into the neuroscience behind contemplative landscapes their key spatial characteristics and practical applications of the Contemplative Landscape Model through case studies from around the world Landscape architects urban planners students land managers and anyone interested in unlocking the healing power of landscapes will find inspiration here The Making of Place John Dixon Hunt, 2015-11-15 Gardening is rich in tradition and many gardens are explicitly designed to refer to or honor the past But garden design is also rich in innovation and in The Making of Place John Dixon Hunt explores the wide varieties of approaches aesthetics and achievements in garden design throughout the world today The gardens Hunt explores offer surprising new ideas about how we can carve out a space for respite in nature Taking readers to gardens public and private busy and hidden away to botanical gardens small parks university campuses and vernacular gardens Hunt showcases the differences between cultures and countries around the globe including the United States United Kingdom France Germany China and Australia Richly illustrated The Making of Place is sure to enchant and inspire even the most modest of home gardeners Cinematic

Landscape and Emerging Identities in Contemporary Latin American Film María Soledad Paz-MacKay, Argelia González Hurtado, 2024-03-06 Cinematic Landscape and Emerging Identities in Contemporary Latin American Film offers a series of perspectives produced from a diverse array of aesthetic and theoretical approaches that build on previous studies about cinematic landscape and space while addressing it from a regional perspective This book explores how contemporary Latin American filmmakers have included created or transformed different types of landscapes in their works The chapters highlight the centrality of landscape as a meaningful space in film composed in addition to the image sound and movement

The core of the edited collection revolves around films where landscape emerges as a crucial element to transmit the urgency of issues affecting diverse Latin American societies The representation of emerging social actors such as Indigenous groups Afro Latin Americans LGBTQIA communities migrants environmentalists and women offers a localized view of sociocultural political and environmental challenges from marginalized and dissenting voices Temporalities, Texts, Ideologies

Bobby Xinyue,2024-01-11 Temporalities Texts Ideologies provides a new analysis of the significance of time in Classical and early modern literature demonstrating that literary temporality continually intervenes in questions of ontology hierarchy and politics Examining a diverse range of texts from Homeric epic to eighteenth century poems on the Last Judgement this collection of essays contends that temporality in literature sits at the heart of how authors from antiquity through to the early modern period understood and negotiated the structures that shaped their lives and may shape lives to come Approaching the topic through four themes the essays in this volume highlight the ways in which time is construed as relational contestable and politically inflected The authors show that variations in temporalities enable texts to critique the interactions or tensions between tradition and change agency and determinism social system and individual experience The result is a refreshing approach to literary figurations of time that responds to the recent temporal turn in the humanities engages with current critical trends such as ontological analysis and ecological criticism and opens up an exciting new direction for future research on the connection between time text and context Landscape as Territory Clara Olóriz,2020-01-28 Landscape as Territory is a cartographic book project that critically addresses the agency of architects in the so called Urban Age understanding the notion of territory as a field of design praxis through which Interconnected landscapes are produced Territory understood as a political technology has the capacity to involve architects and designers into complex social political technical legal strategic and economic processes that are both historical and geographical engines of contemporary urbanization Islands in Northern Norway Territorial praxis is interrogated in a collection of threaded theory and design contributions where essays pose key questions that are addressed through projective cartographies unfolding arguments related to three sections 1 territory 2 critical cartographies and 3 agency Vernacular Architecture Newsletter ,2006
