Contemporary Literary Theory A Glossary:

A Glossary of Contemporary Literary Theory Jeremy Hawthorn, 1998-01 Now in its third edition the Glossary of Contemporary Literary Theory has been revised and expanded to include many of the new terms in this volatile and fast changing field A substantial number of new entries come from the increasingly influential area of post colonialism e g neo Tarzanism mediascape and nativism many are new or previously unremarked terms in the field as a whole e g cyborg queer theory script and habitus and many entries have been revised as our understanding of the theoretical terminology has evolved to need redefinition A Concise Glossary of Contemporary Literary Theory Jeremy Hawthorn, 1998 Taking words from a variety of sources and from a range of different languages and cultures it is little wonder that contemporary literary theory poses peculiar difficulties of usage and understanding This third edition of Hawthorn's acclaimed glossary contains a host of new terms revises many of the previous entries sometimes very substantially and includes both an expanded bibliography and detailed recommendations for further reading A Glossary of Literary and Cultural Theory Peter Brooker, 2016-12-08 The Glossary of Literary and Cultural Theory provides researchers and students with an up to date guide through the vibrant and changing debates in Literary and Cultural Studies In a field where meanings are frequently complex and ambiguous this text is remarkable for its clarity and usefulness This third edition includes 17 entirely new entries and updates to more than a dozen others which address key concepts and contemporary positions in both literary and cultural theory New entries include Actor Network Theory Anthropocene Ecocriticism Digital Humanities Postcapitalism World A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory Raman Selden, Peter Widdowson, Peter Brooker, 1997 The Literature fourth edition of this reader's guide remains true to the ideals of previous editions providing a concise guide to contemporary literary theories The book covers a vast range of differing forms of English literature Introducing Literary Theories Julian Wolfreys, 2001 Introducing Literary Theories is an ideal introduction for those coming to literary theory for the first time It provides an accessible introduction to the major theoretical approaches in chapters covering Bakhtinian Criticism Structuralism Feminist Theory Marxist Literary Theories Reader Response Theories Psychoanalytic Criticism Deconstruction Poststructuralism New Historicism Cultural Materialism Postcolonial Theory Gay Studies Queer Theories Cultural Studies and Postmodernism A table of contents arranged by theoretical method and a second arranged by key texts offer the reader alternative pathways through the volume and a general introduction which traces the history and importance of literary theory complete the introductory material In each of the following chapters the authors provide a clear presentation of the theory in question and notes towards a reading of a key text to help the student understand both the methodology and the practice of literary theory The texts used for illustration include In Memoriam A H H Middlemarch Mrs Dalloway Paradise Lost A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man Prospero s Books The Swimming Pool Library and The Tempest Every chapter ends with a set of questions for further consideration an annotated bibliography and a supplementary bibliography while a glossary of critical terms completes the book Derived and adapted from the successful foundation textbook Literary Theories A Reader and Guide Introducing Literary Theories is a highly readable self contained and comprehensive guide that succeeds in making contemporary theory easily understandable Each chapter provides An overview of the theory Notes towards readings of canonical literary texts Questions for further consideration An annotated bibliography A supplementary bibliographyFeatures Complex ideas are clea Studying Fiction Roy Johnson, 1992 This guide offers an introduction to the basic skills and intellectual tools required for making a study of fiction It presents an explanation of the most common features of prose using practical examples drawn from six short stories which are included as part of the study programme The book is carefully structured in logical steps intended to lead the reader from attentive reading to help produce a description of the piece through analysis inspecting comparing and evaluating writing to interpretation making judgements on pieces of work and adopting different points of view The overlapping of certain points and techniques is also explained and the book offers advice on spotting and analyzing specific writing techniques gives practical advice on how to set about studying keeping notes organizing the page of work drafting answers and so on and offers self assessment exercises and a detailed glossary Under Course Work the book also suggests topics for discussion and essay topics for those using the book in a tutor led setting Introducing Critical Theory Stuart Sim, 2004-01-01 The last few decades have seen an explosion in the production of critical theories with deconstructionists poststructuralists postmodernists second wave feminists new historicists cultural materialists postcolonialists black critics and queer theorists among a host of others all vying for our attention The world around us can look very different on the critical theory applied to it This vast range of interpretations can leave one feeling confused and frustrated This book provides a route through the tangled jungle of competing theories

The Languages of World Literature Achim Hölter, 2024-03-04 This volume opens the series of papers presented at the Vienna Congress of AILC ICLA 2016 beginning with eight keynotes Thirty four further papers are dedicated to the central theme of the conference the linguistic side of world literature under different focal points. The volume further contains five roundtables the papers of a workshop of the UNESCO memory of the worlds programme a presentation of the avldigital de platform as well as several bibliographically enriched overviews of the special lexicography of comparative literature up to date versions of the ICLA publications and an example of multiple translations of a famous modern classic. The Essential Guide to English Studies Peter Childs, 2008-09-25 Focusing on what it means to study English in higher education this book guides students through key aspects of English Studies including major topics and approaches subject specific study skills and assessment including seminar presentations assignments and exams Peter Childs offers down to earth practical guidance on developing the skills needed to succeed and includes coverage of literature language and creative writing This is an essential introduction to English Studies for students beginning their studies at university or college and anyone considering taking a degree in English A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literary Theory Selden, 2005-09 Artists, Writers, and Musicians Michel-Andre Bossy, Thomas Brothers, John Craig McEnroe, 2001-10-30 Disney's animated trailblazing Dostoyevsky s philosophical neuroses Hendrix s electric haze Hitchcock s masterful manipulation Frida Kahlo s scarifying portraits Van Gogh s vigorous color and Virginia Woolf s modern feminism this multicultural reference tool examines 200 artists writers and musicians from around the world Detailed biographical essays place them in a broad historical context showing how their luminous achievements influenced and guided contemporary and future generations shaped the internal and external perceptions of their craft and met the sensibilities of their audience Subjective Perspectives in Ian McEwan's Narrations Eva Maria Mauter, 2009-05-12 Thesis M A from the year 2006 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of Paderborn 205 entries in the bibliography language English abstract Ever since McEwan's first publications his work has received considerable attention from critics and scholars Thus it is not surprising that McEwan has been awarded with a number of prizes for his work and that he has been praised to be one of the leading representatives of the young generation Despite the extraordinary praise of McEwan s work it has been discussed most controversially The fact that he often engages taboo subjects like masturbation incest regression child abuse dismemberment sadism masochism etc earned McEwan the reputation of an author who writes to shock his audience McEwan himself appears to be surprised about these attributions and objects them However it seems to be undisputable that the narrations are extremely shocking but it seems that not only the choice of topics is responsible for the extreme response to McEwan's narrations In my opinion the shock value of McEwan's narrations is mainly caused by his particular way to present these topics In keeping with this I consider the form of McEwan's narrations to be as important as their content McEwan seems to experiment with the employment of perspectives subjective perspectives in particular In fact it can be argued that he taps the full potential of the employment of subjective perspectives in his narrations as the reader is confronted with the subjectivity of perspectives on all levels of textual communication In my opinion McEwan s most outstanding accomplishment is his ability of depicting subjective perspectives in all consequence The absence of morality in many of McEwan's narrations for example which is usually regarded as an underlying topic can also be seen as a result of depicting consistently a specific subjective perspective Therefore this paper will exa Contemporary Literary Theory and the Reading of Poetry David Buchbinder, Barbara H.
