Contemporary News Reporting:

The Evolution of News Reporting Tom Robinson, 2010 This title gives readers a balanced look at the evolution of news reporting and the surrounding arguments Readers will learn the history of journalism and the effects of modern Internet news on the newspaper industry Color photos and informative sidebars accompany easy to follow text Features include a table of contents timeline facts additional resources web sites a glossary a bibliography and an index Essential Viewpoints is a series in Essential Library an imprint of ABDO Publishing Company

The Power of News Michael Schudson, 1995 Some say it's simply information mirroring the world Others believe it's propaganda promoting a partisan view But news Michael Schudson tells us is really both and neither it is a form of culture complete with its own literary and social conventions and powerful in ways far more subtle and complex than its many critics might suspect A penetrating look into this culture The Power of News offers a compelling view of the news media's emergence as a central institution of modern society a key repository of common knowledge and cultural authority One of our foremost writers on journalism and mass communication Schudson shows us the news evolving in concert with American democracy and industry subject to the social forces that shape the culture at large He excavates the origins of contemporary journalistic practices including the interview the summary lead the preoccupation with the presidency and the ironic and detached stance of the reporter toward the political world His book explodes certain myths perpetuated by both journalists and critics The press for instance did not bring about the Spanish American War or bring down Richard Nixon TV did not decide the Kennedy Nixon debates or turn the public against the Vietnam War Then what does the news do True to their calling the media mediate as Schudson demonstrates He analyzes how the news by making knowledge public actually changes the character of knowledge and allows people to act on that knowledge in new and significant ways He brings to bear a wealth of historical scholarship and a keen sense for the apt questions about the production meaning and reception of news today

News Writing and Reporting for Today's Media Bruce D. Itule, Douglas A. Anderson, 2006 News Writing and Reporting takes students on the beat into the press box council chambers and courthouse and to a speech and press conference It introduces them to current issues such as cultural sensitivity multimedia journalism and legal and ethical considerations that journalists face every day Throughout the text reporters and editors offer their down to earth advice and whenever possible professional journalists covering actual stories are used as instructional models Students are exposed to the work of professionals while gathering the tools to follow in their footsteps

Contemporary Public Opinion Maxwell McCombs, 2017-10-03 This book discusses the public opinion process with a focus on the role that the news media play in shaping public opinion Although heavily influenced by the agenda setting perspective the view that the news media define the important issues of the day and determine how these issues are presented the authors neither support nor refute this claim They present instead a variety of contemporary scholarship integrated into a coherent picture of public opinion for a general audience

Emerging Issues in Contemporary Journalism

Bala A. Musa, Cindy J. Price, 2006 Significant changes in information technology media ownership and management structure journalistic culture and communication policy are rapidly reshaping the media landscape Media proliferation has multiplied the sources and volume of news entertainment and advertising available to society This book provides a broad and in depth analysis of the factors driving the new trends in 21st Century journalism and mass communication It gives a roadmap for understanding the new media environment and its implications for the communication industry and audience alike

Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing Frank Barnas, Ted White, 2013-10-08 Jargon buster convergent journalism Media convergence is the most significant development in the news industry in the last century The ability to interchange text audio and visual communication over the Internet has fundamentally transformed the way news organizations operate Convergence has enabled media companies to gather disseminate and share information over a variety of platforms Throughout the history of journalism it has been common for journalists to study one medium such as traditional print or broadcast and to anticipate a career working only in their chosen field However the 21st century journalist has fluidity to write and deliver news content in a variety of formats source <http://www.convergencejournalism.com> Broadcast News Writing Reporting and Producing presents a solid foundation for any student learning how to become a broadcast journalist in today's world of convergent journalism it is more important than ever that broadcast textbooks cover the most current trends in media Convergent journalism the coverage of news across multiple delivery platforms such as the internet television podcasts ipods blogs etc is here to stay broadcast journalism continues to morph as newer and more advanced content platforms are hatched and developed and broadcast journalists must understand how to write report and produce for multiple platforms simultaneously Just one crucial fact remains students will need training on how to perform successfully in a world in which current events aren't just shown on the ten o'clock evening news Broadcast News Writing Reporting and Producing will be completely overhauled to reflect the trends of convergent journalism on every page New co author Frank Barnas brings a multi faceted perspective of writing reporting and producing that allows for multi platform delivery systems and shows students with real world examples the functions and practices of today's media The new edition will be rewritten and restructured to accommodate common 16 week course modules and will be divided into four major sections of the news gathering writing reporting and producing Sidebars featuring how examples used in the text relate to convergence in journalism help students to draw connections easily between current stories and trends in the industry The comprehensive approach of this text brings a multi faceted perspective of writing reporting and producing that is needed more than ever in today's world of convergent journalism This newest edition is being completely overhauled by the experienced journalist Frank Barnas New photos and illustrations a restructuring of the text expanded end of chapter exercises newer and more relevant examples and more information on producing all contribute to giving readers what they need most a nuanced understanding of how the media of today function in a world without news boundaries
