Contemporary Essentials Of Reading 4:

Issues in Contemporary Christian Thought Duane Olson, Olson's clear and concise overview roots contemporary questions firmly in Christian responses to the Enlightenment. He discusses the range of contemporary opinions, their rationales, and what's at stake. Olson illustrates these alternate frameworks as they play out in central concerns over the being of God in relation to the universe, how to understand the figure of Christ today, and the distinctively new notions of being human. Specifically geared to the novice theologian in college or seminary settings, Olson's text includes Reflection, Research Questions, Suggestions for Further Reading, and a Glossary.

New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers LaToya Jefferson-James, 2022-03-03. New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers is a collection of critical and pedagogical essays that shed new light on the creative depths of Black women writers. On the one hand, some Black women writers have been heavily anthologized; they have more often than not been restricted by critical metanarratives. Some of their works have been lionized, while others remain neglected. On the other hand, some Black women writers have been ignored and understudied. This collection corrects the gaps in our critical thinking about Black women writers by introducing them to a new generation of undergraduate and graduate students and by presenting pedagogical essays to our colleagues currently working in the field.

Contemporary Criminological Theory Roger Hopkins Burke, 2020-12-30. This book offers a critical introduction to trends and developments in contemporary criminological theory. Designed both as a companion to An Introduction to Criminological Theory also by Roger Hopkins Burke and published by Routledge, and as a standalone advanced textbook, it develops themes introduced previously in more detail, incorporates new critical and radical concepts, and explores cutting-edge advances in theory. Key topics include the following: Constitutive, anarchist, green, and species bio-critical cultural abolitionist and convict criminologies; Globalization and organized crime; Southern theory; Critical race theory; Terrorism and state violence; Gender, feminism, and masculinity; Ultra-realism; Radical moral communitarianism. These key issues are discussed in the context of debates about the fragmentation of modernity and the postmodern condition, the rise of political populism, risk, surveillance, and social control, and speculation about living in post-COVID-19 society and the future of neoliberalism. Written in a clear and direct style, this book will appeal to both undergraduate and postgraduate students of criminology, sociology, and politics, and is essential reading for advanced students of criminology looking for a way to engage with contemporary themes and concepts in theory.
