Contesting Apartheid U S Activism 1960 1987:

Contesting Apartheid Donald R. Culverson, 2019-03-08 This book examines how U S citizen groups have been drawn to the issue to develop more comprehensive explanations of American connections to the production and distribution of wealth and poverty in southern Africa and to expand options for transnational citizen activism Conservatism and Racism, and Why in America They Are the Same Robert C. Smith, 2010-09-09 In this provocative wide ranging study Robert C Smith contends that ideological conservatism and racism are and always have been equivalent in the United States In this carefully constructed and thoroughly documented philosophical historical and empirical inquiry Smith analyzes conservative ideas from John Locke to William F Buckley Jr as well as the parallels between the rise and decline of the Civil Rights Movement in the 1950s and 1970s and the ascendancy of the conservative movement to national power in 1980 Using archival material from the Reagan library the book includes detailed analysis of the Reagan presidency and race focusing on affirmative action the Voting Rights act the Grove City case welfare reform South Africa policy and the Martin Luther King Jr holiday Conservatism and Racism and Why in America They are the Same goes beyond a focus on the right wing concluding with an analysis of the enduring impact of the conservative movement and the Reagan presidency on liberalism race and the Democratic Party Struggle for a Free South Africa Derek Charles Catsam, 2024-02-15 This book explores anti apartheid movements on university and college campuses across Africa and the United States in the 1970s and 1980s In the wake of the March 1960 Sharpeville Massacre in South Africa the country s apartheid policies drew increasing critical international attention By the 1970s South Africa found itself isolated due to growing sporting economic and cultural boycotts Africans across the continent showed solidarity with Black South Africans through a range of boycotts and protests by hosting South Africans exiled from their home country and by vilifying the apartheid government at every turn This volume looks at elite institutions as well as state colleges and universities in the United States and the actions of university students in Nigeria Kenya Ghana and South Africa during the anti apartheid movements in the 1970s and 1980s revealing the local manifestations of a global struggle The chapters showcase how vibrant campus anti apartheid movements were what universal problems emerged and where unique concerns manifested at a wide range of institutions Taking innovative approaches and offering case studies Struggle for a Free South Africa reveals the myriad ways the anti apartheid struggle manifested in a range of academic environments and how those campaigns have been remembered and documented This book was originally published as a special issue of Safundi Urban Politics of Human Rights Janne Nijman, Barbara Oomen, Elif Durmuş, Sara Mielle, Lisa Roodenburg, 2022-11-14 Increasingly urban actors invoke human rights to address inequalities combat privatisation and underline common aspirations or to protect vested private interests The potential and the pitfalls of these processes are conditioned by the urban and deeply political These urban politics of human rights are at the heart of this book An international line up of contributors with long term engagement in this field shed light on these politics in cities on four continents and eight cities presenting a wealth of empirical detail and disciplinary theoreticalisation perspectives They analyse the city society the urban actors involved and the mechanisms of human rights mobilisation In doing so they show the commonalities in rights engagement in today s globalised and often deeply unequal cities characterised by urban law private capital but also communities that rally around concepts as the right to the city Most importantly the chapters highlight the conditions under which this mobilisation truly contributes to social justice be it concerning the simple right to presence cultural rights accessible housing or in times of COVID health care Urban Politics of Human Rights provides indispensable reading for anyone with a practical or theoretical interest in the complex deeply political and at times also truly promising interrelationship between human rights and the urban Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license Black Power, Inc. Jessica Ann Levy, 2026-01-13 No detailed description available for Black Power Inc United States Relations with South Africa Y. G.-M. Lulat, 2008 Relations between the United States and South Africa or the parts of the world these nations now occupy go nearly as far back as the very beginning of their inception as permanent European colonial intrusions This book is a critical overview of these relations from the late seventeenth century to the present Unprecedented in its scope and supported by substantive and detailed notes together with an extensive bibliography chronology glossary and appendices the book distinguishes itself from extant works in a number of other ways Set against the backdrop of a wider interdisciplinary exploration of both ideational and structural issues of historical context it not only gives attention to the importance of contributions from nonofficial actors in shaping official relations but also considers the impact of the geo political location of South Africa within southern Africa where the presence of other nations particularly Angola Mozambique Namibia and Zimbabwe looms large Methodologically written from the perspectives of both traditional narrative history and Khaldunian interpretive historical analysis the book consequently sits at the interdisciplinary interstice of political economy and sociology where the aim is to advance our understanding of the Braudelian interconnectedness of world history as an important diachronic determinant of the diplomacy of foreign relations Written for both scholars and policy analysts this book s examination of the agency of the marginalized should also be of interest to activists and the reading public Canadian Journal of African Studies , 2001
