Contesting Art Art Politics And Identity In The Modern World:

Contesting Art Jeremy MacClancy, 2020-08-27 Art is a major political weapon of our times Today peoples around the world use art to boost their own identity and to attack the ways others represent them At a time of increasing intercultural exchange art has become a primary means through which groups reinforce their challenged sense of culture This pioneering book breaks with the tradition of the anthropology of art as the depoliticized study of aesthetics in exotic settings Transcending artificial distinctions between the West and the Rest it examines the increasingly significant relations among art identity and politics in the modern world Among the themes investigated by the contributors how African painters undermine racist stereotypes yet remain dominated by the Western art market the role of anthropology museums in the perpetuation of the Western market in tribal art the internal and external political disputes underlying the repatriation of cultural property Anthropology, Art and Cultural Production Maruska Svasek, 2007-02-20 This book provides an introduction to anthropological perspectives on art Svasek defines art as a social process We study not only the artefacts themselves and the values attributed to them but also the process of production and its wider context Providing a critical overview of various anthropological theories of art Svasek offers a new perspective which centres on the analysis of commoditisation aestheticisation and object agency She explores the process of collecting and exhibiting art works and how this relates to art s production distribution and consumption in an increasingly global market The book outlines the significance of art and aesthetics in everyday life and examines the shifting boundaries between art and other categories such as kitsch souvenirs propaganda and pornography Finally Svasek argues for an anthropological perspective that links the production and consumption of artefacts to political religious and other cultural processes Ideal as a teaching text this book gives a detailed overview of themes that are central to the fields of art history art sociology and cultural studies

Language in Life, and a Life in Language: Jacob Mey, a Festschrift Ken Turner, 2012-11-02 This is a collection of invited papers that honours Professor Jacob Mey on the occasion of his eightieth birthday Professor Mey is and has for a long time been at once one of the most respected enterprising industrious scholarly and now avuncular members of the numerous linguistics communities in which he has worked He has made over a distinguished working life significant contributions to all of the sub disciplines of linguistics from phonetics through phonology morphology syntax semantics and especially pragmatics He has sought to make connections between these sub disciplines and broader areas of thought These connections have resulted in ground breaking advances in for example Japanese sociolinguistics pragmatics and artificial intelligence Marxist linguistics pragmatics and therapy pragmatics and machine processed information gender and language literary pragmatics and societal pragmatics The collection ends with an in depth discussion between Professor Mey and one of the editors in which Professor Mey speaks fully and frankly about his life in language and language in life Artifak Hugo DeBlock, 2018-11-29 In Vanuatu commoditization and revitalization of culture and the arts do not necessarily work against each other both revolve around value formation and the authentication of things This book investigates the meaning and value of art objects as commodities in differing states of transit and transition in the local place on the market in the museum It provides an ethnographic account of commoditization in a context of revitalization of culture and the arts in Vanuatu and the issues this generates such as authentication of actions and things indigenized copyright and kastom disputes over ownership and the nature of kastom itself

Constellations of the Transnational ,2015-06-29 In the wake of proliferating discourses around globalisation and culture some central questions around cultural politics have acquired a commonsensical and hegemonic character in contemporary intellectual discourse The politics of difference the possibilities of hybridity and the potential of multiple liminalities frame much discussion around the transnational dimensions of culture and post identity politics In this volume the economic political and social consequences of the focus on culture in contemporary theories of globalization are analysed around the disparate fields of architecture museum discourse satellite television dub poetry carnival and sub national theatre The discourses of hybridity diaspora cultural difference minoritization are critically interrogated and engaged with through close analysis of cultural objects and practices The essays thus intervene in the debate around modernity globalization and cultural politics and the volume as a whole provides a critical constellation through which the complexity of transnational culture can be framed Thinking through the particular the essays limn the absent universality of forms of capitalist globalization and the volume as a whole provides multiple perspectives from which to enter the singular modernity of our times in all its complexity

Ballroom Jonathan S. Marion,2008-05-01 Competitive ballroom is much more than a style of dance Rather it is a continually evolving and increasingly global social and cultural arena of fashion performance art sport gender and more Ballroom explores the intersection of dance cultures dress and the body Presenting the author s experiences at an international range of dance events in Europe the US and UK as well as featuring the views of individual dancers the book shows how dancing influences mind and body alike For students of anthropology dance cultural and performance studies Ballroom provides an ethnographic picture of how dancers and others live their lives both on and off the dance floor

Asian Material Culture Marianne Hulsbosch,Elizabeth Bedford,Martha Chaiklin,2009 This richly illustrated volume offers the reader unique insight into the materiality of Asian cultures and the ways in which objects and practices can simultaneously embody and exhibit aesthetic and functional characteristics as well as everyday and spiritual aspirations Though each chapter is representative rather than exhaustive in its portrayal of Asian material culture together they clearly demonstrate that objects are entities that resonate with discourses of human relationships personal and group identity formations ethics values trade and above all distinctive futures balance on the human and cultural aspects of the idea of being Basque in the modern world Everyday nationalism the human and cultural aspects of identity is a neglected subject in the literature on nationalism in Europe Jeremy MacClancy redresses the balance in this unusual and sharp book on the human and cultural aspects of the idea of being Basque in the modern world The style is fresh and colloquial dealing with several of the kinds of issues that usually appear in popular magazines cuisine football art and graffiti but the treatment is serious and illustrative of underlying currents in social life MacClancy argues that the ethnographic understanding of nationalisms rather than the orthodox studies of ideology political parties social classes and centre periphery clashes offers a more nuanced comprehension of the lived reality of people in areas where nationalism is a significant force This is very much nationalism from the bottom up JEREMY MACCLANCY is Professor of Social Anthropology at Oxford Brookes University Series editors Wendy James Nick Allen "Old Things" on the Loose Julia J.
