Working-Class Community in the Age of Affluence Stefan Ramsden, 2017-02-24 It has appeared to many commentators that the most fundamental change in what it is meant to be working class in twentieth century Britain came not as a result of war or of want but of prosperity Social investigators documented how the relative affluence of the 1950s and 1960s improved the material conditions of life for working class Britons whilst eroding their commitment to the shared life of traditional communities Utilising an oral history case study of sociability and identity in the Yorkshire town of Beverley between the end of the Second World War and the election of Margaret Thatcher's government Working Class Community in the Age of Affluence challenges this influential narrative An introductory essay outlines how sociologists and historians understood the complex social cultural and economic changes of the post war decades through the prism of affluence and traces how these changes came to be seen as deleterious to the traditional working class community The book then proceeds thematically exploring change across areas of social life including family neighbourhood workplace and associational life This book represents the first sustained historical analysis of change and continuity in working class community living during the age of affluence It suggests not only that older social practices persisted but also that new patterns of sociability could strengthen as much as undermine community Ultimately Working Class Community in the Age of Affluence asks us to rethink assumptions about the decline of local solidarities in this pivotal period and to recognise community as a key feature of working class life across the twentieth century

A. van den

Heuvel, Raymond Illsley, Anne Jamieson, C. P. M. Knipscheer, 1992 Paperback This is a reflection on the ageing societies in the Western World It is organised in three parts the first on social relationships family and ageing the second on the labour market retirement and the pension system and the last part on health care and ageing The emphasis is on the opportunities and challenges and not on the problems of an ageing society In contrast to many studies in this area the editors do not like to dramatise the future of ageing societies and prefer to look at the process in proportion The editors are of the opinion that there is a cumulation of negative scenarios without any perspective on the possible opportunities because of the changing age structure of society The Transformation of Community-based Long Term Care Elizabeth A. Binney, 1995

Abstracts of the Annual Meeting -- American Anthropological Association American Anthropological Association, 1996 Families in Later Life Lillian Sousa, 2009 This book aims to help provide an understanding of the relationship between the elderly generation and the multigenerational families they belong to through an analysis of family and individual development in later life and a study of the structural and functional complexion of the multigenerational family the basic unit of analysis The increase of life expectancy and the consequent later ageing of the population is making Western families undergo considerable changes The demographic ageing of societies is increasing the number of living generations and decreasing the number of living relatives within these generations These ageing societies are also seeing a changing of some traditional life transitions such as individuals delaying economic independence from parents marriage or long term cohabitation as well as parenting Themes discussed in this book are 1 multigenerational families are now commonplace in the western countries 2 legacies and inheritance are an important theme for the integrity of families in later lives since the increase of welfare states the economic importance of inheritance decreases 3 a substantial proportion of elderly persons and their families live in poverty having to deal with the diminishing of their sensorial and physical capacities as well as lower income and higher medical expenses 4 families have to combine the care giving of elderly relatives with the care taking of their own children and a professional career 5 counselling becomes an important factor for older adults since many families issue then arise

Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Contexts Of Ageing Class Cohort And Community : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Contexts Of Ageing Class Cohort And Community : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
