Contexts Of Reading:

Contexts of Reading Carolyn N. Hedley, Anthony N. Baratta, 1985 Reading the New Testament in the Manifold Contexts of a Globalized World Eve-Marie Becker, Jens Herzer, Angela Standhartinger, Florian Wilk, 2022-12-12 This volume gathers the perspectives of teachers in higher education from all over the world on the topic of New Testament scholarship. The goal is to understand and describe the contexts and conditions under which New Testament research is carried out throughout the world. This endeavor should serve as a catalyst for new initiatives and the development of questions that determine the future directions of New Testament scholarship. At the same time it is intended to raise awareness of the global dimensions of New Testament scholarship especially in relation to its impact on socio political debates. The occasion for these reflections are not least the present questions that have been posed with the corona pandemic and have received a focus on the system relevance of churches which is openly questioned by the media. The church and theology must face this challenge. Towards that end it is important to gather impulses and suggestions for the discipline from a variety of contexts in which different dimensions of context related New Testament research come to the fore New Literacies, New Contexts? John Patrick Tiedemann, 2011 Codex and Context: Reading Old French Verse Narrative in Manuscript, Volume I Keith Busby, 2022-07-04 Reading the Bible in Islamic Context Daniel Crowther, Shirin Shafaie, Ida Glaser, Shabbir Akhtar, 2017-11-08 In the current political and social climate there is increasing demand for a deeper understanding of Muslims the Qur'an and Islam as well as a keen demand among Muslim scholars to explore ways of engaging with Christians theologically culturally and socially. This book explores the ways in which an awareness of Islam and the Qur'an can change the way in which the Bible is read. The contributors come from both Muslim and Christian backgrounds bring various levels of commitment to the Qur'an and the Bible as Scripture and often have significantly different perspectives. The first section of the book contains chapters that compare the report of an event in the Bible with a report of the same event in the Qur'an. The second section addresses Muslim readings of the Bible and biblical tradition and looks at how Muslims might regard the Bible. Can they recognise it as Scripture? If so what does that mean and how does it relate to the Qur'an as Scripture? Similarly how might Christian readers regard the Qur'an? The final section explores different analogies for understanding the Bible in relation to the Qur'an. The book concludes with a reflection upon the particular challenges that await Muslim scholars who seek to respond to Jewish and Christian understandings of the Jewish and Christian scriptures. A pioneering venture into intertextual reading this book has important implications for relationships between Christians and Muslims. It will be of significant value to scholars of both Biblical and Qur'anic Studies as well as any Muslim seeking to deepen their understanding of the Bible and any Christian looking to transform the way in which they read the Bible Codex and Context: Reading Old French Verse Narrative in Manuscript, Volume II Keith Busby, 2022-06-08 Reading, 2005 Situated Literacies David Barton, Mary Hamilton, Roz Ivanič, 2000 This is a varied collection of key writings from leading
