The Continuum Encyclopedia of Animal Symbolism in Art Hope B. Werness, 2004-01-01 Animals and their symbolism in diverse world cultures and different eras of human history are chronicled in this lovely volume The Continuum Encyclopedia of Animal Symbolism in World Art Hope B. Werness, 2007 Symbols in Arts, Religion and Culture Farrin Chwalkowski, 2016-12-14 We are a product of nature Every single cell of our body is made of and depends on nature Our inner soul is heavily influenced by nature We feel sad if the sun is not shining for a few days and feel pleasure when drawn to the wonder of flowers and uplifted by the song of birds We came from nature we are part of nature In short we are nature Nature has been an intimate part of the human experience from the earliest times Different religions and cultures from all corners of the world have honoured and worshipped nature in art ritual and literature in their own unique ways This book shows how we learn about our own human nature our own sense of identity and how we fit into the larger scheme of life and spirit when we come to better understand how our human ancestors through art symbol and myth expressed their relationship with the natural world Animals and Society Margo DeMello, 2021-04-13 Human animal studies is an interdisciplinary field that explores the spaces that animals occupy in human social and cultural worlds It examines the interactions humans and animals have with each other and the ways animal lives intersect with human societies Since existing social orders rely on the exploitation of animals to serve human needs the questions posed by human animal studies touch upon a wide range of fundamental issues Animals and Society provides a broad overview of this rapidly growing field Margo DeMello offers students and scholars a holistic and comprehensive picture of the state of inquiry into the relationships that exist between humans and other animals She considers interactions between animals and humans in social organizations such as the family the legal system and political and religious institutions A major focus is the social construction of animals in world cultures and the way in which these social meanings are used to reinforce and perpetuate hierarchical human relationships such as racism sexism and class privilege The book also examines how different human groups construct a range of identities for themselves and for others through animals This second edition of Animals and Society is fully updated and expanded throughout enhancing the book's relevance for student and activist readers alike It includes many new international examples all new case studies and updated supplementary readings Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Anna H. Perrault Ph.D., Elizabeth S. Aversa, Sonia Ramírez Wohlmuth, Cynthia J. Miller, Cynthia F. Miller, 2012-12-10 This familiar guide to information resources in the humanities and the arts organized by subjects and emphasizing electronic resources enables librarians teachers and students to quickly find the best resources for their diverse needs Authoritative trusted and timely Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Sixth Edition introduces new librarians to the breadth of humanities collections experienced librarians to the nature of humanities scholarship and the scholars themselves to a wealth of information they might otherwise have missed This new version of a classic resource the first update in over a decade has been refreshed to account for the myriad of digital resources that have rewritten the rules of the reference and research world and been expanded to include significantly increased coverage of world literature and languages This book is invaluable for a wide variety of users librarians in academic public school and special library settings researchers in religion philosophy literature and the performing and visual arts graduate students in library and information science and teachers and students in humanities the arts and interdisciplinary degree programs

Animals as Religious Subjects Celia Deane-Drummond, Rebecca Artinian-Kaiser, David L. Clough, 2013-08-01 This book examines one of the most pressing cultural concerns that surfaced in the last decade the question of the place and significance of the animal This collection of essays represents the outcome of various conversations regarding animal studies and shows multidisciplinary at its very best namely a rigorous approach within one discipline in conversation with others around a common theme The contributors discuss the most relevant disciplines regarding this conversation namely philosophy anthropology religious studies theology history of religions archaeology and cultural studies The first section Thinking about Animals explores philosophical anthropological and religious perspectives raising general questions about the human perception of animals and its crucial cultural significance The second section explores the intriguing topic of the way animals have been used historically as religious symbols and in religious rituals The third section re examines some Christian theological and biblical approaches to animals in the light of current concerns The final section extends the implications of traditional views about other animals to more specific ethical theories and practices

Religion, the Supernatural and Visual Culture in Early Modern Europe Jennifer Spinks, Dagmar Eichberger, 2015-07-28 This volume brings together some of the most exciting new scholarship on these themes and thus pays tribute to the ground breaking work of Charles Zika Seventeen interdisciplinary essays offer new insights into the materiality and belief systems of early modern religious cultures as found in artworks books fragmentary texts and even in Protestant relics Some contributions reassess communal and individual responses to cases of possession others focus on witchcraft and manifestations of the disordered natural world Canonical figures and events from Martin Luther to the Salem witch trials are looked at afresh Collectively these essays demonstrate how cultural and interdisciplinary trends in religious history illuminate the experiences of early modern Europeans Contributors Susan Broomhall Heather Dalton Dagmar Eichberger Peter Howard E J Kent Brian P Levack Dolly MacKinnon Louise Marshall Donna Merwick Leigh T I Penman Shelley Perlove Lyndal Roper Peter Sherlock Larry Silver Patricia Simons Jennifer Spinks Hans de Waardt and Alexandra Walsham

Monkey Tales Around the World Terry L. Norton, 2024-12-03 Here are 63 traditional stories from world folklore about our nearest relatives monkeys and apes As with many tales about other animals those about monkeys and apes sometimes reflect what we as humans admire about ourselves However the stories more frequently embody features that we dislike Whether they depict monkeys and apes as annoying or clever pranksters imitative nuisances and troublemakers loyal and wise friends or heroic and noble characters who sacrifice themselves for others the selections in this anthology about our closest primate kin can tell us much about ourselves and what it means to be human

The Continuum Encyclopedia of Native Art Hope B. Werness, 2000 Unlike earlier works devoted to the identification and taxonomy of primitive art styles this comprehensive reference with entries spanning the deity archetype A a to Zuni fetishes focuses on the symbols meaning and significance of art in indigenous cultures The author explains such differences between native and Western art as the inseparability of moral issues from aesthetics and her use of group preferred names to counter stereotypes Illustrated with eight color plates copious line drawings and maps Indexed by unpaginated broad categories and sub categories e g animals and snakes Very well referenced Werness is a practicing artist and art professor at California State U Stanislaus Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Sardine Trevor Day, 2018-09-15 The sardine is a paradoxical fish Seemingly insignificant it has made fortunes for some and when stocks have collapsed caused hardship for many its status shifting from utilitarian food to gourmand s delight And in this book Trevor Day diver fish watcher and marine conservationist travels across four continents to meet the sardine in both its natural and cultural environment Tracing the fish s journey from minuscule egg to dinner plate Day interweaves the story of the sardine with the rise and fall of entire fisheries A wide ranging look at the cluster of fish species called sardines Day s book explores their relationship both with other marine creatures and with us Elite predators feast on sardines yet these silvery slivers are fast breeding and opportunistic enough to likely survive their hunters for many millennia to come Whether swimming free as a shoaling fish at the mercy of predators packed in tins and as a metaphor for overcrowding or grilled on the streets of Lisbon as part of the Feast of St Anthony sardines have come to represent conformity vulnerability and tradition And as Day s biography of this familiar but under appreciated fish reveals the sardine is a barometer for the health of our oceans a fish with lessons for us all about our stewardship of the seas Library Journal , 2003 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Choice , 2005 American Reference Books Annual Bohdan S. Breaking and Shaping Beastly Bodies Aleksander Pluskowski, 2007 An important human trait is our inclination to develop complex relationships with numerous other species In the great majority of cases however these mutualistic relationships involve a pair of species whose co evolution has been achieved through behavioural adaptation driving positive selection pressures Humans go a step further opportunistically and it sometimes seems almost arbitrarily elaborating relationships with many other species whether through domestication pet keeping taming for menageries deifying pest control conserving iconic species or recruiting as mascots When we consider medieval attitudes to animals we are tackling a fundamentally human and distinctly idiosyncratic behavioural trait The sixteen papers presented here investigate animals from zoological anthropological artistic and economic perspectives within the context of the medieval world
