Contours Of The Heart South Asians Map North America:

Contours of the Heart Sunaina Maira, Rajini Srikanth, 1996 This book comes at a critical time in the history of South Asians in North America As the number of South Asian immigrants increases in the United States and Canada a familiar tension has been the immigrant conflict between home as a physical site in North America and home as an emotional concept tied to the ancestral country and the second generation's questioning of both notions This anthology critically explores this familiar tension and the concept of home It focuses on the transformative experiences that lead individuals to declare or reject new forms of belonging in North America Setting up home may require contesting existing roles inventing hybrid identities or seeking social and political change The anthology challenges undifferentiated stereotypical images of South Asians in North America portraying instead the subtleties of their varied sometimes invisible experiences It includes fiction poetry essays and photography

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang, 2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience

Contemporary Ethnic Geographies in America Ines M. Miyares, Christopher A. Airriess, 2006-10-19 Ethnic diversity has marked the United States from its inception From the migration of the ancestors of Native Americans to the increasingly diverse immigrant populations arriving today it is impossible to separate ethnicity from an understanding of the United States as a country and Americans as a people At an ever increasing pace America today is experiencing watershed changes in its social cultural and ethnic racial geographies Considering the impact of these transformations this unique text examines the experiences of a range of ethnic groups in both historical and contemporary context It begins by laying out a comprehensive conceptual framework that integrates immigration theory globalization transnational community formation and urban cultural and economic geography The contributors then present a rich set of case studies of key ethnic and racial communities including those of long standing significance such as Native Americans African Americans and Mexican Americans along with the Latin American and Asian groups that make up the vast majority of newer immigrants Each case offers a brief historical overview of the group s immigration experience and settlement patterns and discusses its contemporary dynamics All of these people have transformed and been transformed by the places in which they have settled Exploring these changing communities places and landscapes this book offers a nuanced understanding of the evolution of America s contemporary ethnic geographies Contributions by Christopher A Airriess Daniel D Arreola Kate A Berry Thomas D Boswell Elizabeth Chacko Brian J Godfrey Zolt n Grossman Michael Hawkins Terry Ann Jones Wei Li Ines M Miyares L HoMana Pawiki Marie Price Michael Reibel Dana G Reimer Emily Skop James A Tyner Milton Vickerman and Bobby M Wilson

Biopsychosocial Approaches to Understanding Health in South Asian Americans Marisa J. Perera,Edward C. Chang,2018-08-07 This volume is the first comprehensive and interdisciplinary text to holistically improve understanding of the health of South Asians residing in the United States by considering biological psychological and sociocultural factors of health The vast literatures of diverse fields psychology medicine public health social work and health policy are integrated by leading scholars scientists and practitioners in these areas to explore the impact of South Asian cultural factors on health health risk and illness Chapters incorporate available theoretical and empirical information on the status of chronic health conditions in South Asians in the United States with consideration of future directions to improve understanding of the health of this group Cultural and ethnic insights imperative for clinical community medical practitioners to provide effective and culturally appropriate care and treatment from an interdisciplinary lens are provided

Diaspora and Multiculturalism ,2021-12-28 In postcolonial theory we have now reached a new stage in the succession of key concepts After the celebrations of hybridity in the work of Homi Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak it is now the concept of diaspora that has sparked animated debates among postcolonial critics This collection intervenes in the current discussion about the new diaspora by placing the rise of diaspora within the politics of multiculturalism and its supercession by a politics of difference and cultural rights theory The essays present recent developments in Jewish negotiations of diasporic tradition and experience discussing the reinterpretation of concepts of the old diaspora in late twentieth century British and American Jewish literature The second part of the volume comprises theoretical and critical essays on the South Asian diaspora and on multicultural settings between Australia Africa the Caribbean and North America The South Asian and Caribbean diasporas are compared to the Jewish prototype and contrasted with the Turkish diaspora in Germany All essays deal with literary reflections on and thematizations of the diasporic predicament

South Asian Migration in Comparative Perspective. Movement, Settlement and Diaspora Yasurō Hase,Hiroyuki Miyake,Fumiko Oshikawa,2002

Salaam America Aminah Mohammad-Arif,2002 Brought into sharp focus by the events of 11 September 2001 in New York this study examines the regrouping of the religious community and the reinvention of group identity in first and second generation immigrants By transplanting many of their institutions to the US particularly in New York Muslim immigrants succeeded in establishing their presence in the American landscape without arousing significant concern in the host community On the Outside Looking In(dian) Phillipa Kafka,2003 On the Outside Looking In dian analyzes works over the past century translated into or written in English by feminist Indian women writers such as Krupabai Satthianadhan Rokeya Sakhawat Hossein Maitreyi Devi Kamala Das Anita Desai Bharati Mukherjee and others These writers condemn patriarchal customs and laws for depriving Indian women of all castes and classes as well as women of other cultures of their basic human rights by sanctioning child marriage sati purdah and the wearing of the burqa while prohibiting widow remarriage the expression of sexuality and the pursuit of an education to promote self sufficiency and equal economic political and social status with men Journal of Asian American Studies ,2006 Official publication of the Association for Asian American Studies explores all aspects of the Asian American experience Publishes original works of scholarly interest to the field including new theoretical developments research results methodological innovations public policy concerns pedagogical issues and book media reviews

Asian American Studies Esther Mikyung Ghymn,2000 The essays in Asian American Studies address some of the concerns that have affected Asian Americans and their American born children More specifically scholars from disciplines such as literature cultural studies anthropology and sociology discuss works by some Asian American authors the often stereotypical representation of Asian Americans in the media and in everyday life the intergenerational conflicts that may arise within families as a result of the Americanization process but also how Asian Americans have been able to combine aspects of American culture and the culture of their countries of origin Engagingly written the essays in this book offer students and the general public perspectives and information about a variety of issues concerning Asian Americans

RaceFile ,1997 TDR. ,2006 Traveling Subjects Polish Association for American Studies. International Conference,2004 Writing Imagined Diasporas Joel Kuortti,2007 Joel Kuortti TM s Writing Imagined Diasporas South Asian Women Reshaping North American Identity is a study of diasporic South Asian women writers It argues that the diasporic South Asians are not merely assimilating to their host cultures but they are also actively reshaping them through their own new voices bringing new definitions of identity As diaspora does not emerge as a mere sociological fact but it becomes what it is because it is said to be what it is the writings of imagined diasporas challenge oenational discourses Diaspora brings to mind various contested ideas and images It can be a positive site for the affirmation of an identity or conversely a negative site of fears of losing that identity Diaspora signals an engagement with a matrix of diversity of cultures languages histories people places times What distinguishes diaspora from some other types of travel is its centripetal dimension It does not only mean that people are dispersed in different places but that they congregate in other places forming new communities In such gatherings new allegiances are forged that supplant earlier commitments New imagined communities arise that not simply substitute old ones but form a hybrid space in between various identifications This book looks into the ways in which diasporic Indian literature handles these issues In the context of diaspora there is an imaginative construction of collective identity in the making That a given diaspora comes to be seen as a community is the result of a process of imagining at the same time creating new marginalities hybridities and dependencies resulting in multiple marginalizations hyphenizations and demands for allegiance The study concentrates on eleven contemporary women writers from the United States and Canada who write on South Asian diasporic experiences The writers are Ramabai Espinet Jhumpa Lahiri Amulya Malladi Sujata Massey Bharati Mukherjee Uma Parameswaran Kirin Narayan Anita Rau Badami Robbie Clipper Sethi Shauna Singh Baldwin and Vineeta Vijayaraghavan Terrain Tracks Purvi Shah,2006 Poetry Asian American Studies In this debut prize winning book of poetry Purvi Shah explores migration and belonging The book celebrates and riffs upon roots while opening up dialogues on contemporary American issues Through movement on trains in nature and with family TERRAIN TRACKS charts the possibilities and edges of desire love hope and our journeys for home The Publishers Weekly ,1999 Asian-American Writing: Theory, poetry & the performing arts Somdatta Mandal,2000 Critical Essays on Diasporic Writings K.
