Mike Nichols Mark Harris,2022-02-01 One of The Hollywood Reporter s 100 Greatest Film Books of All Time A National Book Critics Circle finalist One of People s top 10 books of 2021 An instant New York Times bestseller Named a best book of the year by NPR and Time A magnificent biography of one of the most protean creative forces in American entertainment history a life of dazzling highs and vertiginous plunges some of the worst largely unknown until now by the acclaimed author of Pictures at a Revolution and Five Came Back Mike Nichols burst onto the scene as a wunderkind while still in his twenties he was half of a hit improv duo with Elaine May that was the talk of the country Next

he directed four consecutive hit plays won back to back Tonys ushered in a new era of Hollywood moviemaking with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf and followed it with The Graduate which won him an Oscar and became the third highest grossing movie ever. At thirty five he lived in a three story Central Park West penthouse drove a Rolls Royce collected Arabian horses and counted Jacqueline Kennedy Elizabeth Taylor Leonard Bernstein and Richard Avedon as friends. Where he arrived is even more astonishing given where he had begun. Born Igor Peschkowsky to a Jewish couple in Berlin in 1931 he was sent along with his younger brother to America on a ship in 1939. The young immigrant boy caught very few breaks. He was bullied and ostracized an allergic reaction had rendered him permanently hairless and his father died when he was just twelve leaving his mother alone and overwhelmed. The gulf between these two sets of facts explains a great deal about Nichols's transformation from lonely outsider to the center of more than one cultural universe: the acute powers of observation that first made him famous; the nourishment he drew from his creative partnerships; most enduringly with May; his unquenchable drive; his hunger for security and status; and the depressions and self medications that brought him to terrible lows. It would take decades for him to come to grips with his demons. In an incomparable portrait that follows Nichols from Berlin to New York to Chicago to Hollywood Mark Harris explores with brilliantly vivid detail and insight the life work struggle and passion of an artist and man in constant motion. Among the 250 people Harris interviewed Elaine May Meryl Streep Stephen Sondheim Robert Redford Glenn Close Tom Hanks Candice Bergen Emma Thompson Annette Bening Natalie Portman Julia Roberts Lorne Michaels and Gloria Steinem Mark Harris gives an intimate and evenhanded accounting of success and failure alike. The portrait is not always flattering but its ultimate impact is to present the full story of one of the most richly interesting complicated and consequential figures the worlds of theater and motion pictures have ever seen. It is a triumph of the biographer's art.

Bringing the Neuroscience of Learning to Online Teaching Tracey Tokuhama-Espinosa, 2021

This practical resource draws on the best of neuroscience to inform decision making about digital learning. We live in unprecedented times that have pushed schools to make many decisions that have been postponed for years. For the first time since the inception of public education teachers have been invited to redesign the learning landscape by integrating an intelligent selection of digital educational resources and changing pedagogical approaches based on information from the learning sciences. This handbook will help teachers make the most of this opportunity by showing them how to use digital tools to differentiate learning; employ alternative options to standardized testing; personalize learning; prioritize social emotional skills; and inspire students to think more critically. The author identifies some gems in quality teaching that are amplified in online contexts including 40 evidence informed pedagogies from the learning sciences. This book will help all educators move online teaching and learning to new levels of confidence and success. Book Features: Provides quick references to key planning tools like decision trees, graphics, app recommendations, and step by step directions to help teachers create their own online learning courses. Guides teachers through a 12 step model for instructional design that meets both national and international standards Shows educators how to use an all new Digital Resource Taxonomy to select resources and how to research and keep them up to date Explains why good instructional design and educational technology are complementary with best practices in learning sciences like Mind Brain and Education Science Shares ways teachers can leverage technology to create more time for the personalized aspects of learning Shows educators how to design online courses with tools that let all students begin at their own starting points and how to differentiate homework Offers evidence informed pedagogies to make online intimate and authentic for students Audiobook Narration: A Beginner's
