Danny's People Virginia Bovell, 2024-08-22 Society disables us more than autism ever could My brain's still fizzing my heart's still sore and I'm already re-reading Sally Phillips Virginia's son Danny has a way of lighting up a room He's warm personable and has an infectious laugh He forms lasting relationships and has known his best friend since they were little He is also nonverbal and autistic and requires round the clock care and a liquid diet And for this reason there are many who would rather not encounter Danny Challenging the view that autism is something that needs to be cured Virginia Bovell testifies to the extraordinary care Danny has received for over 30 years and the everyday kindness and decency of the people the band of angels that surround him She asks us to consider what makes a thriving individual versus an inadequate one what it means to be ill versus what it means to not to conform what roles society values and rewards and how humans might flourish outside of failing political and economic systems An inspiring testament and a celebration of neurodiversity Manni Coe author of Brother Do You Love Me
