Jeffres, David J. Atkin, Kimberly A. Neuendorf, 2022-12-05 This volume bridges the divide between film and media studies scholarship by exploring audience expectations of film and TV genre in the age of digital streaming using qualitative thematic and quantitative data driven analyses Through four ground breaking surveys of audience members and content creators the authors have empirically determined what audiences expect of various genres the extent to which these definitions match those of scholars and critics and the overall variation and complexity of audience expectations in the age of media abundance They also examine audience habits and preferences drawing from both theory and original empirical analyses with a view toward the implications for the moving image in a rapidly changing media environment The book draws from the data to develop a number of new concepts including genre repertoire genre hybridity audience interest maximization and variety seeking and a new stage of genre development genre bending It is an ideal resource for students and scholars interested in the symbiotic relationship between audiences and the moving image products they consume as well as the way the current digital media environment has impacted our understanding of film and TV genres

Topologies of Digital Work Mascha Will-Zocholl, Caroline Roth-Ebner, 2022-01-05 This book provides a unique contribution to the controversial discussion that surrounds the digitalisation and virtualisation of work With a focus on the new formation of space and place it critically discusses the idea that places in the context of work are increasingly losing their importance and becoming more arbitrary with new technical possibilities Theoretical considerations that deal conceptually with the understanding of space and work are taken into account as well as empirical results from different professional and work fields across various regions of our globalised world The book is applicable to researchers and students of sociology of work media and communications organization studies workplace studies labour process studies economics human geography anthropology and learning sciences Chapter 1 4 and 11 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com
