Colonialization Of Islam Dibolution Of Traditional Institutions In Pakistan:

Colonialization of Islam Jamal Malik, 1996 Pakistan Christophe Jaffrelot, 2002-04 This account of Pakistan's complicated political mosaic focuses on ethnic tensions within the country the Mohajir movement Pashtun and Baloch nationalisms and the Punjabization of the country Contributors also look at the country's complex position within the South Asian region including its foreign policy and the dialectic between domestic and foreign policy and the role of the army The book raises many thought provoking questions including the definition of Palestinian identity the control of the state and the deeply flawed institution of democracy Governance of Islam in Pakistan Sarah Holz, 2022-10-15 Modern states increasingly seek to regulate religious expression practice and discourse This is profoundly evident at many levels of Islamic policy interaction from debates about the banning of the Muslim face veil in Europe to civic re education programmes for Muslim citizens in China Governance of Islam in Pakistan provides a systematic account of how interactions between multiple public and private bodies direct the regulation and standardisation of Islam in one of the largest Muslim majority states in the world Analysis centres on the institutional development of the Council of Islamic Ideology a constitutional body tasked with issuing advice to the executive and legislature about the compatibility of laws with Islamic principles Based on archival material that has been subject to little scholarly attention and interviews with Council members and staff of other state bodies Sarah Holz proposes governance as an analytical framework to study the negotiation of religious expression practice and discourse In contrast to the established Islamisation narrative which generally labels such religious institutions as mere rubberstamps in the process of policy making the study of governance offers an alternative approach that enables examination of the dynamic competition and cooperation among multiple actors Through collective interaction the Council and other relevant bodies are active players in the governance of Islam Insights gained from analysis of the ideational structural and functional evolution of the Council offers a Global South perspective on liberal democratic ideas about the functionality of the modern state and its institutional structure Issues of economic cultural and local international political influence bear strongly in governance analysis Engagement with the governance policy tool has applicability across the social sciences but is particularly relevant for South Asian Near and Middle East Studies The 'Ulama in Contemporary Pakistan Mashal Saif, 2020-10-22 Explores how contemporary clerics engage with the historically first and currently most populated Islamic nation state Pakistan The book wed's ethnography with textual analysis to provide insights into some of the country's most significant issues and offers a theoretical framework for assessing state ulama relations across the Muslim world The Pakistan Paradox Christophe Jaffrelot, 2016-06-16 The idea of Pakistan stands riddled with tensions Initiated by a small group of select Urdu speaking Muslims who envisioned a unified Islamic state today Pakistan suffers the divisive forces of various separatist movements and religious fundamentalism A small entrenched elite continue to dominate the country's corridors of power and democratic forces and legal institutions remain weak But despite these seemingly insurmountable problems the Islamic Republic of Pakistan continues to endure The Pakistan Paradox is the definitive history of democracy in Pakistan and its survival despite ethnic strife Islamism and deepseated elitism This edition focuses on three kinds of tensions that are as old as Pakistan itself The tension between the unitary definition of the nation inherited from Jinnah and centrifugal ethnic forces between civilians and army officers who are not always in favour of or against democracy and between the Islamists and those who define Islam only as a cultural identity marker Muslim Education in the 21st Century Sa'eda Buang,Phyllis Ghim-Lian Chew,2014-05-09 Muslim Education in the 21st Century reinvestigates the current state of affairs in Muslim education in Asia whilst at the same time paying special attention to Muslim schools perception of educational changes and the reasons for such changes It highlights and explores the important question of whether the Muslim school has been reinventing itself in the field of pedagogy and curriculum to meet the challenges of the 21st century education It interrogates the schools whose curriculum content carry mostly the subject of religion and Islam as its school culture Typologically these include state owned or privately run madrasah or dayah in Aceh Indonesia pondok traditional Muslim schools largely prevalent in the East Malaysian states and Indonesia pesantren Muslim boarding schools commonly found in Indonesia imam khatip schools in Turkey and other variations in Asia Contributed by a host of international experts Muslim Education in the 21st Century focuses on how Muslim educators strive to deal with the educational contingencies of their times and on Muslim schools perception of educational changes and reasons for such changes It will be of great interest to anyone interested in Asian and Muslim education Guests of God : Pilgrimage and Politics in the Islamic World Robert

R. Bianchi Formerly Associate Professor of Political Science University of Chicago,2004-09-09 Each year more than two million pilgrims from over 100 countries converge on the holy city of Mecca to reenact the ritual dramas that Muslims have been performing for centuries Making the hajj is one of the most important duties in the life of a Muslim The pilgrimage and its impact on international politics is enormous and growing every year yet Westerners know virtually nothing about it What is the hajj and what does it mean Who are the hajjis What do they do and say in Mecca and how do they interpret their experiences Who runs the hajj and what are their political objectives How does the hajj encourage international cooperation among Muslims and can it also promote harmony between Islam and the West In Guests of God Robert R Bianchi seeks to answer these and many other questions While it is first and foremost a religious festival he shows the hajj is also very much a political event The Muslim world s leading multinational organization the Organization of the Islamic Conference has established the first international regime explicitly devoted to pilgrimage Every large Muslim nation has developed a comprehensive hajj policy and a powerful bureaucracy to enforce it Yet Bianchi argues no authority secular or religious national or international can really control the hajj Pilgrims believe that they are entitled to travel freely to Mecca as Guests of God not as guests of any nation or organization that might wish to restrict or profit from their efforts to fulfill a fundamental religious obligation Drawing on his personal experience as a pilgrim and a wealth of data gathered over the course of ten years of research Bianchi has produced a fascinating look at the hajj filled with personal candid stories from political and religious leaders and hajjis from all walks of life A wide ranging study of Islam politics and power Guests of God is the most complete picture of the hajj available anywhere A History of Pakistan and Its Origins Christophe Jaffrelot,2002 A History of Pakistan and its Origins is a comprehensive detailed and fully up to date study of one of the most diverse volatile and strategically significant countries in the world today Born in turmoil barely half a century ago Pakistan seems to be in an interminable pursuit of its own identity and at the same time finds itself a pivotal player in world politics Its short existence has witnessed much four coups d tat the rise of Islam as a power tensions between ethnic religious and separatist movements the Kashmir conflict and the near constant war footing with India This text charts half a century of nation building in Pakistan while at the same time placing the country within the context of its relations with the outside world Grounding Sectarianism Naveeda Khan,2003 Encyclopaedia of Quranic Studies Maulana Mohammad Razi Khan Afridi,2006 Islamic Contestations Barbara Daly Metcalf,2004 The essays in this volume written over the course of the last quarter century are intended to contribute to understanding the role that Islamic symbols and identities have come to play in Northern India and since 1947 in Pakistan Above all these essays offer a challenge to current negative stereotypes of the Muslim faith demonstrating that the religion is not characterised by political militancy nor dominated by static traditionalism Indian Journal of Strategic Studies ,2002 Secularism and Spirituality Noor Aisha Abdul Rahman,Ah Eng Lai,2006 As an institution that is an integral part of both the Muslim community and the larger Singapore society the madrasah and the education it provides rightly deserve attention at a time of rapid and complex economic social and religious changes and developments globally and locally This book aims to understand the current state and complexity of madrasah education in Singapore and to identify some key issues affecting the field in particular and education and society in general It also aims to serve as an intellectual contribution to the ongoing debates and concerns in the field and which affect the interests of Muslim and national communities Consistent with its aims the book is issue as well as policy driven with a focus on broad policy implications and where policy meets community and culture It is targeted at leaders policy makers educationists teachers parents students and the general public alike Its chapters cover the madrasah s historical evolution recent and current debates and state community negotiations over key issues such as compulsory education students performance and madrasah s autonomy the aims of madrasah education and their attendant problems and perceptions evaluative critiques of madrasah education in diverse contexts and lessons derived public policy management of the proposed change to compulsory education a case example of a madrasah and the concept of education and institutions of learning in Islam Given the vast changes taking place in the wider educational and social landscapes of Singapore this volume is an important and timely contribution towards understanding and managing change of this important educational institution Encyclopaedia of Quranic Studies: Lawful and unlawful under Quran ,2006 Journal of the University of
