Conway,2002-07-31 From the Foreword by Nobel Laureate David Hubel We now have the first clear demonstration of double opponent cells in the primate visual system Given the temperament of those who work in the field of color vision there seems little doubt that heated debates will continue but for the present at least the subject seems to be as close to settled as such things can be in science How the brain represents color remains one of the most controversial topics in neurophysiology We know that color is represented through an opponent mechanism demonstrated by the fact that some colors are exclusive of others Yet how these antagonistic chromatic axes are represented in the cortex has been a mystery Dr Conway mapped the spatial and temporal structure of the cone inputs to single neurons in the primary visual cortex of the alert macaque Color cells had receptive fields that were often Double Opponent an organization of spatial and chromatic opponency sufficient to form the basis for color constancy and spatial color contrast Almost all color cells gave a bigger response to color when preceded by an opposite color suggesting that these cells also encode temporal color contrast In sum color perception is likely subserved by a subset of specialized neurons in the primary visual cortex These cells are distinct from those that likely underlie form and motion perception Color cells establish three color axes sufficient to describe all colors moreover these cells are capable of computing spatial and temporal color contrast and probably contribute to color constancy computations because the receptive fields of these cells show spatial and temporal chromatic opponency Judicial and Statutory Definitions of Words and Phrases ,1928 The Missouri Annotated Code of Civil Procedure Missouri,Harrison Burns,1896 The American Digest Annotated, Key-number Series ,1914 A Digest of the Decisions of the Supreme Court of Arkansas from 1837 to 1917 Thomas Dwight Crawford,1917 The Writings of Henry David Thoreau Henry David Thoreau,1906 Journal Henry David Thoreau,1906 Southern Reporter ,1921 Includes the decisions of the Supreme Courts of Alabama Florida Louisiana and Mississippi the Appellate Courts of Alabama and Sept 1928 Jan 1929 Jan Mar 1941 the Courts of Appeal of Louisiana Current Law ,1905 The Southeastern Reporter ,1915 The Revised Statutes of the State of Illinois Illinois,1874 The Revised Statutes of the State of Illinois, 1905 Illinois,1906 The Revised Statutes of the State of Illinois, 1913 Illinois,1914 Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Supreme Court of South Carolina South Carolina.
