to see what still exists from the fascinating gold rush days The San Juan mountain region is full of mining camps ghost towns mills and other mining structures that were centers of activity over a century ago Every settlement has its own special history that was molded by its industrious and dedicated people Prospectors headed to the mountains motivated by their dreams As gold strikes were made communities popped up as tent cities Gradually the tents were replaced by log cabins When a sawmill was completed frame structures were built Stores with massive false fronts were erected shoulder to shoulder Many towns have withstood the test of time while others are in various stages of decay To tour these sites is exhilarating The flapping shutters and creaking boards will amplify your imagination So should this book Colorado
