Colored Man Round The World:

A Colored Man Round the World David F. Dorr, 1858 A Colored Man Round the World (Classic Reprint) David F. Dorr, 2017-11-22 Excerpt from A Colored Man Round the World When we returned to America after a three years tour I called on this original man to consummate a two fold promise he made me in different parts of the world because I wanted to make a connection that I considered myself more than equaled in dignity and means but as he refused me on old bachelor principles I ed from him and his princely promises westward where the star of empire takes its way re ecting on the moral liberties of the legal freedom of England France and our New England States with the determination to write this book of overlooked things in the four quarters of the globe seen by a colored man round the world About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

A Colored Man Round the World David F. Dorr, 2017-12-11 This collection of observations on his travels in Europe the Middle East and North Africa was privately printed for the author in 1858 under the pseudonym A Quadroon Traveling to Unknown Places Lloyd S. Kramer, 2024-09-24 Traveling to Unknown Places presents a compelling incisive analysis of how French and American writers reshaped their personal and collective identities as they traveled in foreign countries after the social upheavals of the eighteenth century Atlantic revolutions Delving into the experiences of renowned figures like Flora Tristan and Margaret Fuller alongside lesser known postrevolutionary travelers this book illuminates how cross cultural encounters pushed writers to redefine their views of nationality language race slavery gender religion science and political ideologies Lloyd Kramer deftly demonstrates how unsettling journeys challenged cultural preconceptions and fostered introspective writings that transcended geographical boundaries By interweaving the perspectives of women and men whose travels led them far beyond their youthful social origins Kramer unveils a rich tapestry of evolving selfhood ambition and political consciousness across the Atlantic world Each traveler s experience was unique but long journeys connected all these nineteenth century writers with others who had traveled before and trips into unknown distant cultures also carried travelers toward previously unknown places within themselves A Colored Man Round the World David F. Dorr, 2020-04-24 This is a reproduction of the original artefact Generally these books are created from careful scans of the original This allows us to preserve the book accurately and present it in the way the author intended Since the original versions are generally quite old there may occasionally be certain imperfections within these reproductions We re happy to make these classics available again for future generations to enjoy U.S. Orientalisms Malini Johar Schueller, 2001

Uncovers the roots of Americans construction of the Orient by examining the work of nineteenth century authors
