Through Forests of Every Color Joan Sutherland, 2022-06-21 Nautilus Book Award Winner An intimate spiritual and literary journey exploring how Zen koans make us permeable to the joys and the anguish of this life and to the primordial mystery we glimpse behind the veil of the everyday. In Through Forests of Every Color, renowned Zen teacher Joan Sutherland reimagines the koan tradition with allegiance to the root spirit of the koans and to their profound potential for vivifying, subverting, and sanctifying our lives. Her decades of practicing with koans and of translating them from classical Chinese imbues this text with a warm familiarity and ease still suffused with awe. Interlinked essays on koans as art, keeping company with koans, and walking the koan way intersperse with beautifully translated renditions of dozens of traditional Zen koans. Sutherland also shares innovative koans culled from Western literature as well as teachings on how to create idiosyncratic koans or turning words from the circumstances of one's own life. First honored is your yearning, the preparation made on faith that there is something that will receive you if you make yourself ready, writes Sutherland of the koan seeker. Bathed, attended to, washed free of complications, and then aspiring to the deepest kind of beauty, receptive, brave, dedicated, openhearted. Already you've begun to look like the thing you're looking for.
