Focusing on new reference sources published since 2008 and reference titles that have retained their relevance this new edition brings O Gorman s complete and authoritative guide to the best reference sources for small and medium sized academic and public libraries fully up to date Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and

Eurasia Mary Zirin,Irina Livezeanu,Christine D. Worobec,June Pachuta Farris,2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes      Text & Presentation, 2004 Stratos E. Constantinidis,2009-12-21 Text Presentation is an annual publication devoted to all aspects of theatre scholarship It represents a selection of the best research presented at the international interdisciplinary Comparative Drama Conference This anthology includes papers from the 28th annual conference held in Columbus Ohio Topics covered include Euripides German and Russian theatre dramatic antecedents of the striptease surrogate love in The Glass Menagerie surrealist drama Greek comedy and the American concept musical and theatre and politics      Finding My Way Duncan Brown,2023-12-01 This book reflects on South African literature from the perspective of 2020 It emerges from Duncan Brown s experiences of three decades of working in this field of writing and scholarship It is a personal intellectual exploration and an engagement with the institutional history of literary studies in South Africa and elsewhere Finding My Way also attempts to find more creative engaging and intriguing modes of writing about literature and the humanities universally It seeks to recover a sense of the imaginative the literary and the affective not only as things to value in the literary texts we read but also as ways of understanding and reading texts as ways of writing criticism of registering how books make us feel as well as how they make us think Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa      The Legacy of World War II in European Arthouse Cinema Samm Deighan,2021-06-11 World War II irrevocably shaped culture and much of cinema in the 20th century thanks to its devastating global impact that changed the way we think about and portray war This book focuses on European war films made about the war between 1945 and 1985 in countries that were occupied or invaded by the Nazis such as Poland France Italy the Soviet Union and Germany itself Many of these films were banned censored or sharply criticized at the time of their release for the radical ways they reframed the war and rejected the mythologizing of war experience as a heroic battle between the forces of good and evil The particular films examined made by arthouse directors like Pier Paolo Pasolini Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Larisa Shepitko among many more deviate from mainstream cinematic depictions of the war and instead present viewpoints and experiences of WWII which are often controversial or transgressive They explore the often complicated ways that participation in war and genocide shapes national identity and the ways that we think about bodies and sexuality trauma violence power justice and personal responsibility themes that continue to resonate throughout culture and global politics The Walls Behind the Curtain Harold B. Segel, 2012-11-11 Because of their visibility in society and ability to shape public opinion prominent literary figures were among the first targets of Communist repression torture and incarceration Authors such as Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn famously documented the experience of internment in Soviet gulags Little however has been published in the English language on the work of writers imprisoned by other countries of the Soviet bloc For the first time The Walls Behind the Curtain presents a collection of works from East European novelists poets playwrights and essayists who wrote during or after their captivity under communism Harold B Segel paints a backdrop of the political culture and prison and labor camp systems of each country detailing the onerous conditions that writers faced Segel then offers biographical information on each writer and presents excerpts of their writing Notable literary figures included are Vaclav Havel Eva Kanturkova Milan Simecka Adam Michnik Milovan Djilas Paul Goma Tibor Dery and Visar Zhiti as well as many other writers This anthology recovers many of the most important yet overlooked literary voices from the era of Communist occupation Although translated from numerous languages and across varied cultures there is a distinct commonality in the experiences documented by these works The Walls Behind the Curtain serves as a testament to the perseverance of the human spirit and a quest for individual liberty that many writers forfeited their lives for Polish Literature from 1918 to 2000 ,2008 An Anthology of Bulgarian Literature Ivan Mladenov, Henry R. Cooper, 2007

Recommended Reference Books for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries and Media Centers Martin Dillon, 2004-04-30 Essential for reference work and indispensable for collection development this book helps you quickly identify the best most affordable and most appropriate new reference titles in any given field The approximately 500 books reviewed in this 23rd annual edition have been selected from American Reference Books Annual Libraries Unlimited 2003 as the best works for smaller libraries A must if your budget precludes ARBA this time saving tool also makes an excellent supplement Choice ,2004
