Columbus Documents Luciano Fernando Farina, Robert W. Tolf, 1992 Attending to Early Modern Women Karen Nelson, 2013-07-11 This volume considers women's roles in the conflicts and negotiations of the early modern world. Essays explore the ways that gender shapes women's agency in times of war, religious strife, and economic change. How were conflict and concord gendered in histories, literature, music, and political, legal, didactic, and religious treatises? Four interdisciplinary plenary topics ground this exploration: Negotiations, Economies, Faiths, Spiritualities, and Pedagogies. Scholars focus upon many regions of the early modern world: the Atlantic world, the Mediterranean world, Granada, Indonesia, the Low Countries, England, and Italy, inflected by such religions as Islam, Catholicism, and Reformed Protestantism as they came into contact with indigenous spiritualities and with one another. Essays and workshop summaries analyze how gender and class are implicated in economic change and assess the ways gender and religion map onto voyages of trade, exploration, or imperialism. They investigate how women as individuals and as members of political or family networks were instrumental in transmitting, promoting, supporting, or thwarting different religions during times of religious crises. This volume also offers methods for teaching and researching these topics. It will be invaluable to scholars of medieval and early modern women's studies, especially those working in history, literature, languages, musicology, and religious studies. Premodern Places David Wallace, 2008-04-15 This book recovers places appearing in the mental mapping of medieval and Renaissance writers from Chaucer to Aphra Behn. A highly original work which recovers the places that figure powerfully in premodern imagining. Recreates places that appear in the works of Langland, Chaucer, Dante, Petrarch, Spenser, Shakespeare, Aphra Behn, and many others. Begins with Calais, peopled by the English from 1347 to 1558, and ends with Surinam, traded for Manhattan by the English in 1667. Other particular locations discussed include Flanders, Somerset, Genoa, and the Fortunate Islands, Canary Islands. Includes fascinating anecdotes such as the story of an English merchant learning love songs in Calais. Provides insights into major historical narratives such as race and slavery in Renaissance Europe. Crosses the traditional divide between the medieval and Renaissance periods. The Public Intellectual Helen Small, 2008-04-15 New essays by prestigious thinkers such as Edward Said, Bruce Robbins, Jacqueline Rose, and Stefan Collini on the public role of writers and intellectuals. Program of the ... Annual Meeting Organization of American Historians. Meeting, 1992 Choice, 1991 The Cumulative Book Index, 1994 A world list of books in the English language. School Library Journal, 1990 Library Journal, 1990-07 The Hispanic American Historical Review James Alexander Robertson, 1996 Includes Bibliographical section. A Guidebook to Resources for Teachers of the Columbian Encounter Rolena Adorno, 1992 World Holiday, Festival, and Calendar Books Tanya Gulevich, 1998 Briefly describes some 1,000 resources on world holidays, festivals, and calendars. Entries encompass dictionaries, guidebooks, folklore, and ethnic studies, children's books, historical studies, scholarly analysis, and philosophical discussions, and works about calendars and time reckoning systems.
