Combate Perpetuo El:

El combate perpetuo Marcos Aguinis,1995      Latin America's New Historical Novel Seymour Menton,2010-07-22
Beginning with the 1979 publication of Alejo Carpentier's El arpa y la sombra the New Historical Novel has become the dominant genre within Latin American fiction In this at times tongue in cheek postmodern study Seymour Menton explores why the New Historical Novel has achieved such popularity and offers discerning readings of numerous works Menton argues persuasively that the proximity of the Columbus Quincentennial triggered the rise of the New Historical Novel After defining the historical novel in general he identifies the distinguishing features of the New Historical Novel Individual chapters delve deeply into such major works as Mario Vargas Llosa's La guerra del fin del mundo Abel Posse's Los perros del paraíso Gabriel García Márquez's El general en su laberinto and Carlos Fuentes' La campaña A chapter on the Jewish Latin American novel focuses on several works that deserve greater recognition such as Pedro Orgambide's Aventuras de Edmund Ziller en tierras del Nuevo Mundo Moacyr Scliar's A estranha nação de Rafael Mendes and Angelina Muñoz's Tierra adentro

Harbinger of Modernity Dalia Wassner,2013-09-25 In Harbinger of Modernity Marcos Aguinis and the Democratization of Argentina Dalia Wassner presents an integrated analysis of the civic work and literary oeuvre of Marcos Aguinis who served as Secretary of Culture during Argentina's transition from dictatorship to democracy Situating his writings in their historical and intellectual context Wassner explores Aguinis's engagement with the dialectic of modernization as a Jewish public intellectual equally dedicated to fostering Argentine democracy and to inscribing himself in the annals of westernization Encompassing intellectual history literary criticism Latin American history and Jewish studies Wassner's work illuminates the intersecting roles of Jews and public intellectuals in bringing democracy to post dictatorship Argentina      Jewish Writers of Latin America Darrell B. Lockhart,2013-08-21 Jewish writing has only recently begun to be recognized as a major cultural phenomenon in Latin American literature Nevertheless the majority of students and even Latin American literary specialists remain uninformed about this significant body of writing This Dictionary is the first comprehensive bibliographical and critical source book on Latin American Jewish literature It represents the research efforts of 50 scholars from the United States Latin America and Israel who are dedicated to the advancement of Latin American Jewish studies An introduction by the editor is followed by entries on 118 authors that provide both biographical information and a critical summary of works Argentina Brazil and Mexico home to the largest Jewish communities in Latin America are the countries with the greatest representation but there are essays on writers from Venezuela Chile Uruguay Peru Colombia Costa Rica and Cuba      The Argentine Novel Myron I. Lichtblau,2002 Long a scholar of Romance languages at Syracuse University Lichtblau 1925 2000 extended his 1997 bibliography from 1990 through 1999 and added some earlier works left out of the original Citations from the mother volume are included but without the critical commentaries and bibliographical references The arrangement is alphabetical by author and the articles discuss in Spanish both novels and critical studies of them and of the author No index

Manifestos and Polemics in Latin American Modern Art Patrick Frank, 2017-02-15 Bringing together sixty five primary documents vital to understanding the history of art in Latin America since 1900 Patrick Frank shows how modern art developed in Latin America in this important new work complementing his previous book Twentieth Century Art of Latin America Revised and Expanded Edition Besides autobiographies manifestos interviews and artists statements the editor has assembled material from videos blogs handwritten notes flyers lectures and even an after dinner speech As the title suggests many of the texts have a polemical or argumentative cast In these documents many of which appear in English for the first time the artists themselves describe what they hope to accomplish and what they see as obstacles Designed to show how modern art developed in Latin America the documents begin with early modern expressions in the early twentieth century then proceed through the avant garde of the 1920s the architectural boom of midcentury and the Cold War years and finally conclude with the postmodern artists in the new century
