Summary of Steven Hassan's Combating Cult Mind Control

Everest Media,2022-06-13T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 I am a therapist who helps people who have been damaged by cults I help them start their lives over and avoid the trauma associated with the often illegal abduction method called deprogramming 2 I spoke with Bruce s parents who had flown to Boston from Minneapolis They wanted to bring him back to meet with me I asked Bruce about himself and why his parents were so concerned and he said they had not yet told him about pledge service 3 It is easy to help someone who is already in a cult but those who are being recruited are usually already under the group s control It is difficult to help people who have been in a cult for many years 4 I help people leave destructive cults and I do this by sensitizing them to the problem of mind control or undue influence It is difficult to help someone leave a cult so the best way to deal with this problem is to educate people about it

Understanding Religious Abuse and Recovery Patrick J. Knapp,2021-04-21 Currently there are at least four major identifiable perspectives on how people best understand and recover from religious abuse Both secular and faith based Christian adherents can be variously identified in each of these approaches This book examines these viewpoints and evaluates their various strengths and limitations It concludes that each perspective is helpful to the extent possible given the limitations of its respective philosophic or theological assumptions This book summarizes each viewpoint and suggests a larger contextual perspective helpful to better understand involvement in and recovery from religiously abusive environments The conclusion is an integration of the various conceptual frameworks and a different model SECURE is described that includes essential principles and practical strategies necessary for recovery from religious abuse Suggestions are made for future research and study both for academics with interest in the cultic studies and counseling fields and for various people negatively affected by religious abuse and in need of recovery
