Contemporary Hong Kong art biennial 1998 ,1998 I Like Hong Kong Frank Vigneron,2010-06-15

Contemporary Chinese art is nowadays a subject area widely taught and researched in academic and nonacademic publications but it has not yet been studied by localizing the research in specific cultural areas within the Chinese world. Selecting Hong Kong for a first such study was an obvious choice since Hong Kong culture has had for already quite a long time very specific features which have put it apart from the generally accepted definition of Chinese national culture. Although it is not a survey of Hong Kong art as such a study would demand many more books the works of about eighty artists working in Hong Kong and sometimes outside have been analyzed and contextualized in these pages Chinese Contemporary 96-98 Julia Colman, Chinese Contemporary (Gallery : London, England), 1999 香港: 香港当代艺术 Petr Nedoma, Susan Acret, 2003 Hong Kong Culture Kam Louie, 2010-06-01 Does Hong Kong culture still matter This informative and interdisciplinary volume proves unmistakably so. It stands as an essential Hong Kong reader a rich resource not only for those specialized in Hong Kong culture and history but also for students teachers and researchers interested in cosmopolitanism postcolonial conditions as well as cultural globalization. Laikwan Pang The Chinese University of Hong Kong A very timely ambitious and fascinating book. The essays are based on solid research and full of theoretical or analytical insights illustrating the complexity of social and cultural life in Hong Kong. In addition to offering excellent essays on Hong Kong cinema the book also surveys alternative performance art and documentary which are undoubtedly the least researched aspects of Hong Kong's cultural scene. Law Wing Sang Lingnan University Hong Kong as a world city draws on a rich variety of foundational texts in film fiction architecture and other forms of visual culture. The city has been a cultural fault line for centuries a translation space where Chinese-ness is interpreted for Westerners and Western-ness is translated for Chinese. Though constantly refreshed by its Chinese roots and global influences this hub of Cantonese culture has flourished along cosmopolitan lines to build a modern outward looking character. Successfully managing this perpetual instability helps make Hong Kong a postmodern stepping stone city and helps make its citizens such prosperous and durable survivors in the modern world. This volume of essays engages many fields of cultural achievement. Several pieces discuss the tensions of English closely associated with a colonial past yet undeniably the key to Hong Kong's future. Hong Kong provides a vital point of contact where cultures truly meet and a cosmopolitan traveler can feel at home and leave a sturdy mark. Contributors include John Carroll Carolyn Cartier David Clarke Elaine Ho Douglas Kerr Michael Ingham C J W L Wee Chu Yiu Wai Gina Marchetti Esther M K Cheung Pheng Cheah Chris Berry and Giorgio Biancorosso. Appreciation, Wucius Wong, 2011-03-31 Wucius Wong was born in 1936 in Guangdong Province China and moved to Hong Kong at a very young age Originally he wanted to pursue a literary career but gradually shifted his interest in pursuit of an artist's career Started as a self taught artist and attracted to Western modernism he later studied under the tutelage of Lui Shou Kuan in 1958 whose works entailed the exploration of traditional concepts via a modernist approach He went to the United States to study Western art forms from 1961 to 1965 Upon his return he worked as an Assistant Curator at the City Museum and Art Gallery from 1966 to 1974 and later joined the School of Design of the Hong Kong Polytechnic as Senior Principal Lecturer Having participated in various important exhibitions worldwide his works are collected by various museums and institutions around the world The abstract art of Wucius Wong has a powerful mysterious quality being at once vigorously captivating and elusively atmospheric Often compared to the classical Chinese landscape painters of the Northern Song dynasty the artist has mastered the ability to evoke the deeply spiritual and poetic within his sweeping ink works The emotions rendered by his brush span a wide range from the luminous evanescence of the interplay of light on water to the brooding gravity of mountain ranges and the dense complexity of patternistic clouds and roots Perhaps the most affecting element within the paintings of Wucius Wong is his startling clarity in capturing fleeting moments within nature which have the ability to transcend the purely physical and translate into raw emotion This unique perception is the defining factor which elevates his work from the realm of the visible landscape to incisive psychological meditations on existential humanity He is now an Adjunct Professor of the Fine Arts Department of the Chinese University of Hong Kong and serving as honorary adviser to the Leisure and Culture Department of the Hong Kong Government he is also Committee Member of the Art School of the Hong Kong Art Centre and a Member of the Museum Advisory Group of the Consultative Committee on the Core Arts and Cultural Facilities of the West Kowloon Cultural District The Art of Modern China Julia F.
