A Double-Edged Sword Brenda E. Novack, 2014-05-19 On first consideration one might not be inclined to view Adolf Hitler and Dietrich Bonhoeffer in relation to Jehanne d Arc Joan of Arc but Brenda E Novack does just that She demonstrates how these three prominent figures who influenced world history all acted in accordance with what they claimed or perceived to be divine sanction of their participation in violence Taking the reader on a unique exploration of their lives and deaths Novack identifies significant similarities and differences in notions of divine call and human response conveyed by these personalities and determines how they align or fail to align with the biblical prophetic tradition Taking Jehanne d Arc as her foundational study the author engages important theological issues such as the nature of revelation evil and morality The process culminates in the construction of a model of righteous warfare and human agency presented as a tool for evaluating claims to divinely sanctioned violence and as a potentially effective alternative to an outmoded and currently inadequate just war model Case studies of Hitler and Bonhoeffer tentatively establish the model s ability to steer humanity away from unnecessary destruction toward justice compassion and peace

After Auschwitz Richard L. Rubenstein, 1966 Expounds a wide spectrum of problems of post Holocaust theology Christianity and Nazism psychoanalytic interpretation of the connection between religion and the Final Solution the religious meaning of the Holocaust the Auschwitz convent controversy Argues that Nazism as theory and practice was neither the ultimate expression of atheism nor a kind of neo paganism on the contrary it was a monotheistic anti religion which emerged as a rebellion against Christianity but greatly used its ideas and images especially that of the mythological Jew Judas Reveals the religiomythic element in the Holocaust e g the perpetrators fulfilled a religious mission which singles out this phenomenon from the other cases of genocide c From the Bibliography of the Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism

Auschwitz Dina Wardi, 2003 Dina Wardi an Israeli Jewish psychologist noted for her work with Holocaust survivors and their children has written an account of her experiences leading a multinational group of Catholic nuns and priests during a conference on anti Semitism persecutions and the Holocaust which included visits to the Auschwitz concentration camp in Poland The result
