Female Philosophers in Contemporary Taiwan and the Problem of Women in Chinese Thought Jana S. Rošker, 2021-09-20 This book illuminates the problem of women in Chinese philosophy through the lens of the lives and work of two contemporary Taiwanese female philosophers It takes two approaches that have been relegated quite unfairly to the margins of dominant discourses The first is concerned with the work of women philosophical theorists who are still overshadowed by their male colleagues regardless of where they live their theoretical potential and the value of their research The second approach is related to the question of the role of Taiwanese philosophy in maintaining the continuity of the Chinese intellectual tradition in the second half of the twentieth century The book thus connects these two issues and provides a bridge linking them Although discrimination against female philosophical theorists on the one hand and the failure to recognize the important contribution of Taiwanese philosophy to the development of modern Chinese philosophy on the other seem at first glance to have little in common both harbor a problem that has its roots in discourses of exclusion emanating from the political historical and social inequalities associated with power structures
