Contender For The Faith:

The Contender Vol. 8 No. 4 Rev. Raymond Jackson, 1976-06-15 Oftimes when people are approached and questioned concerning their lukewarm condition dealing with their relationship toward God and asked if they don't realize they should not grow cold and indifferent immediately one of these many excuses begin to be given Oh but preacher if you only knew this or you only knew that you just don't realize what I have been through You just don't realize what so and so said about me or did to me I have searched the Bible and nowhere can I find one chapter or verse where justification can be given for any such statement attitude or excuse Such answers may well be our excuse however there is nothing in the word of God whereby you can base or substantiate such an excuse upon W.W. Christianity as well as the Old Testament Jewish saints have all believed that someday there would be a resurrection of the dead but not until Paul s revelation unto the church was it known the order of the resurrection and that God intended to have a translation or catching away of the living saints who were pleasing unto him However since Paul s great revelation the church now knows that the blessed hope Titus 2 13 according to the revelation of scripture assures us though our physical body be dead and decayed beneath the sod when that hour arrives we have the blessed assurance our corruptible bodies according to Rom 8 especially verses 11 23 as well as our spirits were included in the redeemed purchased price of Calvary and therefore also awaits the change from mortal to immortality Somewhere before us Paul s revelation declares there will be a catching away of a living realm of people Just when how or what all the glorious circumstances surrounding this event will consist of I do not know We only know what the scripture teaches and it teaches in many places since Paul s revelation to the church there is a resurrection for the dead saints and a translation for the living saints and both events are to transpire within the same time period Be a Contender, Not Just a Contestant! Kenneth L.
