M. Livingstone,1998 The traditional dominance of the United States in the business communities of the Pacific region can no longer be taken for granted Japan Korea and increasingly China are the main contenders These are nations which have the potential to take control of this lucrative region and change the face of world commerce for ever In this fascinating and scholarly study James M Livingstone systematically explores the industrial cultural and political background of every key country in the region It is only through a better understanding of the region that other nations will be able to anticipate future developments and participate fully in them

World Scientific Reference On Globalisation In Eurasia And The Pacific Rim (In 4 Volumes) ,2015-11-06 This multi volume set focuses on a key region of the world which contains four of the biggest emerging economies a large number of highly dynamic small and medium sized emerging economies and one of the leading advanced industrial countries It is a region which contains some of the biggest hydrocarbon and mineral deposits in the world and some of the most energy and metal hungry economies in the world With half the world's population it is one of the most dynamic regions of the globe in terms of population movement providing a key focus of foreign investment both inwards and outwards with a high degree of technological dynamism The region plays a central role in the industrial supply networks of the globe In four volumes focusing on respectively foreign investment innovation energy and migration the set focuses on each of the main elements in the production system in turn capital innovation raw materials and labour Volume 1 studies patterns of interchange of financial and direct investment within the region focusing on governance the development of supply chains and technology transfer In Volume 2 the technology theme becomes dominant with a special focus on digital technology It includes technical issues like mobile communications standardisation developmental dimensions including the role of clusters and science parks and political economy issues like the rise of techno nationalism Volume 3 turns to energy issues not just issues of supply and demand but also key problems of climate change security and sustainability across the Eurasian and Asian landmass Volume 4 presents the human dimension looking at people in movement as workers citizens men women or colonisers Among the key issues discussed are the migration from country to town in China the greying of countries like Japan the effect of war on migration marriage migration human trafficking and the depopulation of the Russian Far East The set is a must have for anyone keen to understand the region whose manufacturing core can be described without exaggeration as the workshop of the world of the twenty first century

Forces Shaping the Future of the Engineer and the Engineering Profession JF Coates, Inc,1987 Pacific Asia in the 1990s Masahide Shibusawa,Zakaria Haji Ahmad,Brian Bridges,2025-03-03 First published in 1992 Pacific Asia in the 1990s explores the main economic and political trends among the Pacific Asian countries in the second half of the 1980s It suggests where the potential problems lie and where the opportunities are This book is an unusual collaborative venture in that it combines the complementary viewpoints of a Japanese author a Malaysian author and someone from outside the region The authors examine the broad patterns of economic interdependence and security linkages both within the region and with external partners then analyse in detail the political economy of the newly industrializing economies the patterns of complementarity and competition in Southeast Asia the dilemma of reform or retrenchment facing China and the smaller regional socialist states and the paradoxes of Japan s attempts to define its role in the region and the world Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Energy and Water Development Appropriations for 1997 United States. S. Lee,2000-06-19 The authors of Informal Politics in East Asia first published in 2000 argue that political interaction within the informal dimension behind the scenes politics is at least as common and influential though not always as transparent or coherent as formal politics and that this understudied category of social interaction merits more serious and methodical attention from social scientists This book is a pioneering effort to delineate the various forms of informal politics within different East Asian political cultures and to develop some common theoretical principles for understanding how they work Featured here are contributions by political scientists specializing in the regions of China Taiwan Japan the Korean peninsula and Vietnam The authors apply to this dynamic region the classic core questions of politics who gets what when how and at whose expense      Geothermal Development in the Pacific Rim ,1996
