Warfare and Society in British India, 1757-1947 Ashutosh Kumar, Kaushik Roy, 2022-12-30 This book explores the intricate and intimate relationship between military organization imperial policy and society in colonial South Asia The chapters in the volume focus on technology logistics and state building The present volume highlights the salient features of expansion and consolidation of imperial control over the subcontinent and ultimate demise of the Raj Further it turns the spotlight on to subaltern challenges to imperialism as well as the role of non combatants in warfare The volume Deals with both conventional and guerrilla conflicts and focuses on the frontiers both North West and North East including Burma Looks at the army as an institution rather than present a chronological account of military operations which highlights the complex and tortuous relationship between combat institution colonial state and Indian society Integrates top down approaches in military and strategic studies with the bottom up perspectives and discusses on how the conduct of war organisation and technology is related to the economic societal and cultural impact of war A rich account of the British Army in India this book will be essential reading for scholars and researchers of South Asian history military history political history colonialism and the British Empire

Rethinking Iranian Nationalism and Modernity Kamran Scot Aghaie, Afshin Marashi, 2014-07-01 While recent books have explored Arab and Turkish nationalism the nuances of Iran have received scant book length study until now Capturing the significant changes in approach that have shaped this specialization Rethinking Iranian Nationalism and Modernity shares innovative research and charts new areas of analysis from an array of scholars in the field Delving into a wide range of theoretical and conceptual perspectives the essays all previously unpublished encompass social history literary theory postcolonial studies and comparative analysis to address such topics as Ethnicity in the Islamic Republic of Iran Political Islam and religious nationalism The evolution of U S Iranian relations before and after the Cold War Comparing Islamic and secular nationalism s in Egypt and Iran The German counterrevolution and its influence on Iranian political alliances The effects of Israel s image as a Euro American space Sufism Geocultural concepts in Azar s Atashkadeh Interdisciplinary in essence the essays also draw from sociology gender studies and art and architecture Posing compelling questions while challenging the conventional historiographical traditions the authors many of whom represent a new generation of Iranian studies scholars give voice to a research approach that embraces the modern era s complexity while emphasizing Iranian nationalism s contested multifaceted and continuously transformative possibilities The Mizo Uprising Dr. J. V. Hluna, Rini Tochhawng, 2013-01-03 From March 1 1966 when the Mizo National Front declared independence to June 30 1986 when a Memorandum of Understanding was signed between the MNF and the Indian Government the peace loving Mizo people were caught in the midst of a devastating war Records of this twenty year period are rare as the very keeping of written accounts was considered a crime against the government The Mizo Hills was a district in India s state of Assam and the Assam Legislative Assembly Debates from 1966 to 1972 are one of the few official records available of the period Members of the Assembly bring to light significant events during the course of the insurgency including India s only aerial attack against its own citizens on March 5 1966 and the re settlement of eighty percent of the Mizo Hills population reminiscent of South Vietnam s Agrovilles The book traces the twenty year movement through these debates supplementing them with notes on the course of events gleaned through extensive research leading up to the creation of the state of Mizoram in 1986 The Mizo Peace Accord remains one of the most successful accords in the world and Mizoram one of the most peaceful states in India Revisiting India's Partition Amritjit Singh, Nalini Iyer, Rahul K. Gairola, 2016-06-15 Revisiting India s Partition New Essays on Memory Culture and Politics brings together scholars from across the globe to provide diverse perspectives on the continuing impact of the 1947 division of India on the eve of independence from the British Empire The Partition caused a million deaths and displaced well over 10 million people The trauma of brutal violence and displacement still haunts the survivors as well as their children and grandchildren Nearly 70 years after this cataclysmic event Revisiting India s Partition explores the impact of the Long Partition a concept developed by Vazira Zamindar to underscore the ongoing effects of the 1947 Partition upon all South Asian nations In our collection we extend and expand Zamindar s notion of the Long Partition to examine the cultural political economic and psychological impact the Partition continues to have on communities throughout the South Asian diaspora The nineteen interdisciplinary essays in this book provide a multi vocal multi focal transnational commentary on the Partition in relation to motifs communities and regions in South Asia that have received scant attention in previous scholarship In their individual essays contributors offer new engagements on South Asia in relation to several topics including decolonization and post colony economic development and nation building cross border skirmishes and terrorism and nationalism This book is dedicated to covering areas beyond Punjab and Bengal and includes analyses of how Sindh and Kashmir Hyderabad and more broadly South India the Northeast and Burma call for special attention in coming to terms with memory culture and politics surrounding the Partition

Tribal History of North-East India H. Sudhir, 2014-01-01 This volume is an honour to no one else at all but one among the distinguished forerunners who has made a long lasting contribution in the disciplinary academic of northeast history and tribal studies in the region Professor Lal Dena It is an acknowledgement of the rich treasure of scholarship that Professor Lal Dena has contributed through his scholarly writings with a scientific knowledge of research in the subject It dwells on a variety of close knit contents linked up with one way or another absorbed in the Chin Kuki Mizo study In researching into the multifaceted aspects of the study the work harps on origin traditional religious beliefs and practices customary laws Christianity and social transformation identity ethnic conflict women society polity education civil society etc

Modern Practices in North East India Lipokmar Dzüvichü, Manjeet Baruah, 2017-11-13 This book brings together essays on North East India from across disciplines to explore new understandings of the colonial and contemporary realities of the region Departing from the usual focus on identity and politics it offers fresh representations from history social anthropology culture literature politics performance and gender Through the lens of modern practices the essays in this volume engage with diverse issues including state making practices knowledge production and its politics history writing colonialism role of capital institutions changing locations of orality and modernity production and reception of texts performances and literatures social change and memory violence and gender relations along with their wider historical geographical and ideational mappings In the process they illustrate how the specificities of the region can become useful sites to interrogate global phenomena and processes for instance in what ways ideas and practices of modernity played an important role in framing the region and its people Further the volume underlines the complex ways in which the past came to be imagined produced and contested in the region With its blend of inter disciplinary approach analytical models and perspectives this book will be useful to scholars researchers and general readers interested in North East India and those working on history frontiers and borderlands gender cultural studies and literature

The Global Challenge and Marginalization Márcio Moraes Valença, 2008 Marginality is often seen as a reflection of division in which there is an unequal relationship of economic and political power between two extremes In this way it is a common thing to find oppositional couples like North South Rich Poor Homogenous Heterogenous Centre Periphery Inclusion Exclusion Developed Underdeveloped and New Old in much of the literature dealing with marginality These oppositions come about out of a socially and politically unbalanced society which is organised according to the differentiation of individuals in a hierarchical exclusionary fashion In this book there are 25 chapters written by 36 academics from 27 universities located in 14 countries and in 4 continents on this fascinating subject matter The Journal of Oromo Studies, 2003 Contesting Stereotypes and Creating Identities Andrew J. Fuligni, 2007-05-31 Since the end of legal segregation in schools most research on educational inequality has focused on economic and other structural obstacles to the academic achievement of disadvantaged groups But in Contesting Stereotypes and Creating Identities a distinguished group of psychologists and social scientists argue that stereotypes about the academic potential of some minority groups remain a significant barrier to their achievement This groundbreaking volume examines how low institutional and cultural expectations of minorities hinder their academic success how these stereotypes are perpetuated and the ways that minority students attempt to empower themselves by redefining their identities The contributors to Contesting Stereotypes and Creating Identities explore issues of ethnic identity and educational inequality from a broad range of disciplinary perspectives drawing on historical analyses social psychological experiments interviews and observation Meagan Patterson and Rebecca Bigler show that when teachers label or segregate students according to social categories even in subtle ways students are more likely to rank and stereotype one another so educators must pay attention to the implicit or unintentional ways that they emphasize group differences Many of the contributors contest John Ogbu's theory that African Americans have developed an oppositional culture that devalues academic effort as a form of acting white Daphna Oyserman and Daniel Brickman in their study of black and Latino youth find evidence that strong identification with their ethnic group is actually associated with higher academic motivation among minority youth Yet as Julie Garcia and Jennifer Crocker find in a study of African American female college students the desire to disprove negative stereotypes about race and gender can lead to anxiety low self esteem and excessive self defeating levels of effort which impede learning and academic success The authors call for educational institutions to diffuse these threats to minority students identities by emphasizing that intelligence is a malleable rather than a fixed trait Contesting Stereotypes and Creating Identities reveals the many hidden ways that educational opportunities are denied to some social groups At the same time this probing and wide ranging anthology provides a fresh perspective on the creative ways that these groups challenge stereotypes and attempt to participate fully in the educational system

The History of Discrimination in U.S. Education E. Tamura, 2008-02-15 How have power and agency been revealed in educational issues involving minorities More specifically how have politicians policymakers practitioners and others in the mainstream used and misused their power in relation to those in the margins How have those in the margins asserted their agency and negotiated their way within the larger society What have been the relationships not only between those more powerful and those less powerful but also among those on the fringes of society How have people sought to bridge the gap separating those in the margins and those in the mainstream The essays in this book respond to these questions by delving into the educational past to reveal minority issues involving ethnicity gender class disability and sexual identity Journal of Peace Studies ,1997

Revisiting North East India in the Era of Globalisation Asok Kumar Ray,2007 Order in Chaos Wasbir Hussain,2006 Papers presented at the Dialogue Road to Peace and Progress in South Asia Learning from the Neighbourhood held at Guwahati during 19 21 December 2005 The Book Review ,2003 Summerhill ,2006 Ethnicity & Inter-community Conflicts Aheibam Koireng Singh,2008 Ethnicity And Inter Community Conflicts A Case Of Kuki Naga In Manipur One Problem Which Has Been In Prominence In Most Of The States In Northeastern Region Is The Rise Of Sectarianism Characterized By The Agenda Of Exclusivist Identities Such Negative Disability Studies in India Renu Addlakha,2020-11-29 Since the 1970s the international disability rights movement the United Nations and national governments across the world have attempted to ameliorate the status of the disabled population through a range of legislative and policy measures primarily in the areas of health education employment accessible environments and social security While the discourse in the disability sector in India has shifted from charity and welfare to human rights and entitlements disability studies as an interdisciplinary academic terrain that focuses on the contributions experiences history and culture of persons with disabilities has not yet taken root This volume collates some of the most recent pioneering work on disability studies from across the country The essays presented here engage with the concept of disability from a variety of disciplinary positions sociocultural contexts and subjective experiences within the overarching framework of the Indian reality The contributors including some with disabilities themselves provide a well rounded perspective in shifting focus from disability as a medical condition only needing clinical intervention to giving it due social and academic legitimacy This book outlines key issues that would be germane to any disability studies endeavour in India and South Asia and will appeal to academics activists institutions laypersons and professionals involved in social welfare sociology disability studies women s studies psychiatry rehabilitation and social and preventive medicine New Challenges for the Welfare Society Vesa Puuronen,2004
