Continuities In Cultural Evolution:

Continuities in Cultural Evolution Margaret Mead, 1999 Margaret Mead once said I have spent most of my life studying the lives of other peoples faraway peoples so that Americans might better understand themselves Continuities in Cultural Evolution is evidence of this devotion All of Mead s efforts were intended to help others learn about themselves and work toward a more humane and socially responsible society Scientist writer explorer and teacher Mead brought the serious work of anthropology into the public consciousness This volume began as the Terry Lectures given at Yale in 1957 and was not published until 1964 after extensive reworking The time she spent on revision is evidence of the importance Mead attached to the subject the need to develop a truly evolutionary vision of human culture and society This was desirable in her eyes both in order to reinforce the historical dimension in our ideas about human culture and to preserve the relevance of historical and cultural diversity to social economic and political action Given the present state of academic and public discourse alike this volume speaks to us in a language we badly need to recover Margaret Mead 1901-1978 was associated with the American Museum of Natural History in New York for over 50 years Her early work on child rearing and personality resulted in such works as Coming of Age in Samoa 1928 Growing up in New Guinea 1930 and Sex and Temperament in Three Primitive Societies 1935 After collaborating with Ruth Benedict in developing the application of anthropology to contemporary cultures she focused increasingly on processes of culture change in such works as New Lives for Old Cultural Transformation Manus 1928 1953 1956 Culture and Commitment 1970 and Rap on Race with James Baldwin 1971 She taught at Columbia University and the New School for Social Research Stephen E Toulmin is the Henry R Luce Professor for the Center for Multiethnic and Transnational Studies at the University of Southern California His works include The Inner Life the Outer Mind Cosmopolis The Hidden Agenda of Modernity and Beyond Theory

was asked by a member of the interdisciplinary committee of the Social Science Research Council to prepare a survey of several cultures for publication she ended up creating a model for future ethnological survey texts as well as furthering the understanding of cultural relativism in anthropological studies The result of her work Cooperation and Competition Among Primitive Peoples is fascinating The essays do not purport to be source materials on the peoples being studied but rather have been assembled as interpretative statements meant to provide a background for planning future research in this field in our own society In many respects this volume is a pioneer effort in anthropological literature It remains firmly part of the genre of cooperative research or interdisciplinary research though at the time of its original publication that phrase had yet to be coined Additionally this work is more theoretical in nature than a faithful anthropological record as all the essays were written in New York City on a low budget and without fieldwork The significance of these studies lies in the fact that Cooperation and Competition Among Primitive Peoples was the first attempt to think about the very complex problems of cultural character and social structure coupled with a meticulous execution of comparative study This work will be of great interest to anthropologists cultural theorists and students of interdisciplinary research The distinguished contributors include Margaret Mead the editor of this volume who authored The Arapesh of New Guinea The Manus of the Admiralty Islands and The Samoans Jeannette Mirsky who contributed The Eskimo of Greenland and The Dakota Ruth Landes who wrote The Ojibwa of Canada May Mandelbaum Edel author of The Bachiga of East Africa Irving Goldman who contributed The Ifugao of the Philippine Islands The Kwakiutl of Vancouver Island The Zuni of New Mexico and The Bathonga of South Africa Buell Quain who penned The Iriquois and Bernard Mishkin author of The Maori of New Zealand Margaret Mead 1901-1978 was associated with the American Museum of Natural History in New York for over fifty years becoming Curator of Ethnology in 1964 She taught at Columbia University and the New School for Social Research as well as a number of other universities and served as president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the American Anthropological Association Among her many books is Continuities in Cultural Evolution available from Transaction Publishers
