The Fire Robin Blaser, 2006-09-29 Spanning four decades of meditation on the avant garde in poetry art and philosophy the essays collected in The Fire reveal Robin Blaser's strikingly fresh perspective on New American poets deconstructive philosophies current events and the state of humanities now The essays gathered in one volume for the first time include commentaries on Jack Spicer Charles Olson Robert Duncan Mary Butts George Bowering Louis Dudek Christos Dikeakos and J S Bach Blaser emerged from the Berkeley Renaissance of the 1940s and 1950s having studied under legendary medieval scholar Ernst Kantorowicz and having been a major participant in the burgeoning literary scene His response to the cultural and political events of his time has been to construct a poetic voice that offers a singular perspective on a shareable world and to pose that voice alongside others as a source of countermemory and potential agency Conceived as conversations these essays brilliantly reflect that ethos as they re-read the cultural events of the past fifty years The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974 TSWNTIETH CENTURY AUTHORS STANLEY J. KUNITZ, 1955 New Critical Nostalgia Christopher Rovee, 2024-01-02 New Critical Nostalgia weighs the future of literary study by reassessing its past It tracks today's impassioned debates about method back to the discipline's early professional era when an unprecedented makeover of American higher education with far reaching social consequences resulted in what we might call our first crisis of academic life Rovee probes literary study's nostalgic attachments to this past by recasting an essential episode in the historiography of English the vigorous rejection of romanticism by American New Critics in the new light of the American university's tectonic growth In the process he demonstrates literary study's profound investment in romanticism and reveals the romantic lyric's special affect nostalgia as having been part of English's professional identity all along New Critical Nostalgia meticulously shows what is lost in reducing mid century American criticism and the intense quirky and unpredictable writings of central figures such as Cleanth Brooks Josephine Miles and W K Wimsatt to a glib monolith of New Critical anti romanticism In Rovee's historically rich account grounded in analysis of critical texts and enlivened by archival study readers discover John Crowe Ransom's and William Wordsworth's shared existential nostalgia witness the demolition of the immature Percy Shelley in the revolutionary textbook Understanding

Poetry explore the classroom give and take prompted by the close reading of John Keats consider the strange ambivalence toward Lord Byron on the part of formalist critics and romantic scholars alike and encounter the strikingly contemporary quantitative studies by one of the mid century s preeminent poetry scholars Josephine Miles These complex and enthralling engagements with the romantic lyric introduce the reader to a dynamic intellectual milieu in which professionals with varying methodological commitments from New Critics to computationalists working in radically different academic locales from Nashville and New Haven to Baton Rouge and Berkeley wrangled over what it means to read with nothing less than the future of the discipline at stake
