Understanding the Law of Obligations Andrew Burrows, 2000-11-15 NEW in paperback From the Reviews of the hardback edition This is a fascinating and thought provoking collection of eight essays Taken together they represent a coherent and compelling exposition of the English law of obligations One is left with the picture of an author who remains a devotee of practical scholarship and the deductive technique of the common law and has a grasp on its intricacies second to none Edwin Peel The Law Quarterly Review 1999

These essays all concerned with various aspects of contract tort and unjust enrichment are a pleasure to peruse and a distinct cut above the usual lacklustre collection of past triumphs now beyond their sell by date Without exception they are both topical and relevant together they form a readable scholarly and eclectic mixture of exposition and polemic of speculation and analysis Andrew Tettenborn The Cambridge Law Journal 1999 quite simply the most convincing and complete explanation of the law of obligations that is currently available the book is thorough compelling definitive and highly important Paul Kearns Anglo American Law Review 1999 an extremely important work produced by a leading academic David Wright Adelaide Law Review

Getting Incentives Right Robert D. Cooter, Ariel Porat, 2016-12-13 How tort contract and restitution law can be reformed to better serve the social good Lawyers judges and scholars have long debated whether incentives in tort contract and restitution law effectively promote the welfare of society If these incentives were ideal tort law would reduce the cost and frequency of accidents contract law would lubricate transactions and restitution law would encourage people to benefit others Unfortunately the incentives in these laws lead to too many injuries too little contractual cooperation and too few unrequested benefits Getting Incentives Right explains how law might better serve the social good In tort law Robert Cooter and Ariel Porat propose that all foreseeable risks should be included when setting standards of care and awarding damages Failure to do so causes accidents that better legal incentives would avoid In contract law they show that making a promise often causes the person who receives it to change behavior and undermine the cooperation between the parties They recommend several solutions including a novel contract called anti insurance In restitution law people who convey unrequested benefits to others are seldom entitled to compensation Restitution law should compensate them more than it currently does so that they will provide more unrequested benefits In these three areas of law Getting Incentives Right demonstrates that better law can promote the well being of people by providing better incentives for the private regulation of conduct
