Corpus Studies in Contrastive Linguistics Stefania Marzo, Kris Heylen, Gert De Sutter, 2012 Contrastive Linguistics like other linguistic disciplines is becoming more and more data oriented relying increasingly on the statistical analysis of corpus data to reveal and investigate the similarities and dissimilarities between languages This title illustrates this trend with a representative sample of contrastive linguistic case studies

Current Trends in Contrastive Linguistics María de los Ángeles Gómez González, J. Lachlan Mackenzie, Elsa M. González Álvarez, 2008-12-17 This book examines the contribution of various recent developments in linguistics to contrastive analysis The articles range across a broad gamut of languages with most attention going to the languages of Europe They show how advances in theory and computer technology are together impacting the field of contrastive linguistics Part I focuses from a broadly functional cognitive viewpoint on the close link with typology stressing the importance of embedding the treatment of grammatical categories in their contexts of use Part II turns to methodological issues exploring the enormous potential offered by parallel computer accessible corpora to contrastive linguistics and to enhancing the testability authenticity and empirical adequacy of cross linguistic studies Part III is concerned with contrastive semantics ranging from individual items to entire grammatical constructions and shows how meanings are coupled to language specific cognitive strategies and even to cultural differences in subjective awareness and the fashioning of personal identity

Time Works Wonders Tomasz P. Krzeszowski, 2013 The volume consists of reprints of papers originally published between 1967 and 2009 Terms like congruence equivalence and tertium comparationis as well as fundamental principles of classical structural contrastive studies are defined The study also contains articles which lay foundations of cognitively based contrastive studies

Meaning Through Language Contrast Katarzyna Jaszczolt, Ken Turner, 2003 In four parts this title deals with grammaticalization metaphor in contrast cross cultural pragmatics and speech acts and the semantics pragmatics boundary theory and applications

Conjunctive Markers of Contrast in English and French Maïté Dupont, 2021-06-15 Situated at the interface between corpus linguistics and Systemic Functional Linguistics this volume focuses on conjunctive markers expressing contrast in English and French The frequency and placement patterns of the markers are analysed using large corpora of texts from two written registers newspaper editorials and research articles The corpus study revisits the long standing but largely unsubstantiated claim that French requires more explicit markers of cohesive conjunction than English and shows that the opposite is in fact the case Novel insights into the placement preferences of English and French conjunctive markers are provided by a new approach to theme and rheme that attaches more importance to the rheme than previous studies The study demonstrates the significant benefits of a combined corpus and Systemic Functional Linguistics approach to the cross linguistic analysis of cohesion Towards a History of Linguistics in Poland E.F.K. Koerner, Aleksander Szwedek, 2001-12-04 Apart from the names of Jan Baudouin de Courtenay 1845 1929 Miko aj Kruszewski 1851 1887 and later Jerzy Kury owicz 1895 1978 Polish linguists and Polish linguistics generally have been little known in the West The first two were mentioned with approval by Saussure in an unpublished paper and this reference was picked up by Roman Jakobson and others many years later Kury owicz for his part made himself well known in the West through his important work as Indo Europeanist even Semiticist and as a general linguist The present volume is a first attempt to broaden the perspectives on the Polish contribution to linguistics both inside and outside of Poland during the past centuries Specialists in their respective fields contributed chapters on the origins and development of general linguistics Z W sik applied linguistics F Grucza lexicology T Piotrowski dialectology St Gogolewski and onomastics S Gala followed by five chapters presenting the theories of the arguably most remarkable Polish linguistic thinkers from Baudouin de Courtenay A Adamska Sa aciak Kruszewski F M Berezin and Kury owicz W Smoczy ski to Miko aj Rudnicki 1881 1978 and Ludwik Zabrocki 1907 1977 both written by J Ba czerowski Detailed individual bibliographies a full index of names with life dates of Polish linguists from the Renaissance to the present day and a thorough index of subjects and terms make this volume an important reference tool for anyone wishing to acquaint himself with the rich heritage of Polish linguistic thought Papers and Studies in Contrastive Linguistics ,1999 Vol 1 contains papers delivered at the 2d Karpacz Conference on Contrastive Linguistics 1971 Sociolinguistics Ulrich Ammon, 2005 Contrastive Linguistics Wenguo Pan, Tham Wai Mun, 2007-07-10 Contrastive Linguistics is the first book written by a linguist from mainland China on the histories and principles of comparing and contrasting Chinese and Western languages specifically English From Wilhelm von Humboldt s initial study in comparative linguistics to the present day traditional scholarship in contrastive linguistics has taken a Western perspective and shown how foreign languages relate to the Indo European language family However such a view has a limited scope and there is an alternative history to contrastive linguistics This book is an attempt by Professor Wenguo Pan to redress the balance in contrastive linguistics comparing Western languages to Chinese rather than vice versa He provides a survey of contrastive linguistics in China throughout the past century and aims to open a window for the world to see what the new generations of Chinese linguists are doing in this exciting field and to start a dialogue between scholars of different backgrounds and linguistic traditions Contrastive Linguistics looks at the history of this discipline both in Europe and in China Professor Pan presents a survey of the historical philosophical and methodological foundations of the discipline but also examines its scope in relation to general comparative anthropological and applied linguistics This book will be of interest to academics interested in a new perspective on contrastive linguistics or Chinese linguistics
