Contrasting Prisoners Rights A Comparative Examination Of Germany And England:

Contrasting Prisoners' Rights Liora Lazarus, 2004 This work aims to provoke reflection on the English conception and treatment of prisoners rights through juxtaposition with prisoners rights in Germany The systems are compared and placed against a wider social background and the methodological problems of comparative law are considered Handbook on Prisons Yvonne Jewkes, Ben Crewe, Jamie Bennett, 2012-08-21 This is the most comprehensive and ambitious book on prisons to have been published a key text for anybody studying the subject and an essential work of reference for practitioners working in prisons and other parts of the criminal justice system It is especially timely in view of the many changes and debates about the role of prisons and their future organisation and management as part of the National Offender Management Service A key aim of the book is to explore a wide range of historical and contemporary issues relating to prisons imprisonment and prison management and to chart likely future trends Chapters in the book are written by leading scholars in the field and reflect the range and depth of prison research and scholarship Like the Handbook of Policing and Handbook of Crime Prevention and Community Safety the Handbook on Prisons will be the essential book on the subject

The Death of Punishment Robert Blecker, 2013-11-19 For twelve years Robert Blecker a criminal law professor wandered freely inside Lorton Central Prison armed only with cigarettes and a tape recorder The Death of Punishment tests legal philosophy against the reality and wisdom of street criminals and their guards Some killers poignant circumstances should lead us to mercy others show clearly why they should die After thousands of hours over twenty five years inside maximum security prisons and on death rows in seven states the history and philosophy professor exposes the perversity of justice Inside prison ironically it s nobody s job to punish Thus the worst criminals often live the best lives The Death of Punishment challenges the reader to refine deeply held beliefs on life and death as punishment that flare up with every news story of a heinous crime It argues that society must redesign life and death in prison to make the punishment more nearly fit the crime It closes with the final irony If we make prison the punishment it should be we may well abolish the very death penalty justice now requires Domestic Counter-Terrorism in a Global World Daniel Alati, 2017-07-14 Although both Canada and the United Kingdom had experienced terrorism prior to the attacks of 9 11 and already had in place extensive provisions to deal with terrorism the events of that day led to the enactment of new and expansive counter terrorism legislation being enacted in both jurisdictions This book explores these changes to counter terrorism laws and policies in the UK and Canada in order to demonstrate that despite the force of international legal instruments including the heavily scrutinized UN Security Council Resolution 1373 the evolution of counter terrorism policies in different jurisdictions is best analyzed and understood as a product of local institutional structures and cultures The book compares legal and political structures and cultures within Canada and the United Kingdom It analyses variations in the evolution post 9 11 counter terrorism measures in the two jurisdictions and explores the domestic reasons for them While focus is primarily geared towards security certificates and bail with recognizance investigative hearings in Canada and detention without trial control orders and TPIMs in the UK the use of secret evidence in the wider national security context terrorist listing civil litigation criminal prosecutions etc is also discussed The book reveals how domestic structures and cultures including the legal system the relative stability of government local human rights culture and geopolitical relationships all influence how counter terrorism measures evolve In this sense the book utilizes a methodology that is both comparative and interdisciplinary by engaging in legal political historical and cultural analyses This book will be particularly useful for target audiences in the fields of comparative law and criminal justice counter terrorism law human rights law and international relations and politics Domestic Application of the ECHR Eirik Bjorge, 2015 The first sustained critique of how domestic courts in the EU apply the European Convention on Human Rights and interact with the European Court of Human Rights at Strasbourg This book considers the British French and German approaches to the ECHR and shows that domestic courts apply and develop the Convention faithfully and positively Prison Segregation Ellie Brown, 2023-04-21 Prison Segregation The Limits of Law explores the use of segregation in English prisons by examining how law is used and experienced and how human rights are upheld It draws on empirical research through interviews with staff and prisoners to understand how law works or not in a site of the prison which is traditionally characterised by real imbalances of power The book draws on one of the first research studies of its kind an in depth ethnographic study of law culture and norms within the segregation unit It adopts a socio legal perspective to explore i how segregation is and should be used in prisons and how the law sets the parameters of that usage in theory ii the complex web of laws and rules as applies to segregation and their relationship with the actors responsible for their implementation iii how laws and rules can be undermined by the culture and context within which they are implemented It relies on the voices of prisoners and staff as well as observations and descriptions to bring experiences to life The accounts from staff and prisoners sometimes joyous sometimes harrowing provide a rich and rare insight into the segregation unit It provides access to and insights into parts of our criminal justice system which are typically impenetrable Whilst it is an academic study of law and power in segregation units and prison more broadly it is also a very human account of lived experiences The book is multi disciplinary in nature and will appeal to those with an interest in law sociology criminology and psychology It will also appeal to those seeking to understand socio legal research methods in the field of criminal justice However the book is also pragmatic and has a number of recommendations which would be of interest to practitioners lawyers prison managers and policy makers Michigan Law Review , 2004-06 IBSS: Political Science: 2005 Vol. 54 The British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2006-11-03 First published in 1952 the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences anthropology economics political science and sociology is well established as a major bibliographic reference for students researchers and librarians in the social sciences worldwide Key features Authority Rigorous standards are applied to make the IBSS the most authoritative selective bibliography ever produced Articles and books are selected on
