Globalization and Inequality in Emerging Societies B.

Rehbein, 2011-10-27 This volume studies the relation between globalization and inequalities in emerging societies by linking Area and Global Studies aiming at a new theory of inequality beyond the nation state and beyond Eurocentrism Peasant Violence and Antisemitism in Early Twentieth-Century Eastern Europe Irina Marin, 2018-07-11 This book is a transnational study of rural and anti Semitic violence around the triple frontier between Austria Hungary Romania and Tsarist Russia at the beginning of the twentieth century It focuses on the devastating Romanian peasant uprising in 1907 and traces the reverberations of the crisis across the triple frontier analysing the fears spectres and knee jerk reactions it triggered in the borderlands of Austria Hungary and Tsarist Russia The uprising came close on the heels of the 1905 1907 social turmoil in Tsarist Russia and brought into play the major issues that characterized social and political life in the region at the time rural poverty the Jewish Question state modernization and social upheavals The book comparatively explores the causes and mechanisms of violence propagation the function of rumour in the spread of the uprising land reforms and their legal underpinnings the policing capabilities of the borderlands around the triple frontier as well as newspaper coverage and diplomatic reactions Teaching and Program Variations in International Business Erdener Kaynak, John R Schermerhorn, Jr, 2021-02-25 Use the Internet and cutting edge strategies to make your program more competitive To remain competitive in an increasingly global economy universities must develop effective strategies for teaching international business A successful program can attract not only the best qualified local students but also top notch students from other countries enriching the formal curriculum with cultural diversity and building valuable multinational bonds among students Teaching and Program Variations in International Business is an informative guide to successful strategies for teaching international business It draws on the practical experience of several highly respected international business programs as well as research into students perceptions of their university experiences This book covers many aspects of designing an international business curriculum from the most effective ways to organize international fieldwork to the differences between foreign and domestic students expectations of the university In addition it offers solid information on encouraging cross cultural awareness and cooperation Teaching and Program Variations in International Business is an invaluable guide to many areas of teaching international business and will give you a working knowledge of how to use advanced technologies to facilitate virtual teamwork among students in different countries how to harness the Internet to provide an effective low cost experience of international cooperation and foreign cultures how to integrate international field experience into a broader teaching strategy what skills students need to operate effectively in other cultures how you can foster global competence and teach critical managerial skills the contrasts between the perspectives of developed and emerging countries how to identify the essential components of a well designed information system in a global environment Any university can teach the facts of international business Only the best prepared can teach the truths Teaching and Program Variations in International Business can help you build a curriculum to help your students learn the truths of working in and with a different culture

Contrasts in Emerging Societies. Readings in the Social and Economic History of South-eastern Europe in the Nineteenth Century. Selected and Translated by G.F. Cushing [and Others] ... and Edited by Doreen Warriner. [With Maps.]. Doreen WARRINER, George Frederick Cushing, 1965 The BRICS and Beyond Assoc Prof Li Xing, 2014-10-28 The world is in an era of great transformations Globalization transnational capitalism September 11 the 2008 global financial crises and the emergence of the second world in general and the BRICS in particular are characterized by a diffusion of power away from the traditional North Western powers and towards the global South Such great transformations have reshaped the terrain and parameters of social economic and political relations both at the national and the global levels and have exerted pressure on the exiting international order in terms of both opportunities and constraints This new era also urges the need for re conceptualizing the changing world order especially with regard to one of the core conceptual categories and analytical apparatus in the studies of IR and IPE hegemony The world will witness a new era of interdependent hegemony in which both the existing First World and the emerging Second World are intertwined in a constant process of shaping and reshaping the international order in the nexus of national interest regional orientation common economic and political agenda political alliance and potential conflicts This collection juxtaposes from different perspectives and approaches the discussion on the political economy of the emerging world order with a focus on the rising powers The Journal of Developing Areas, 1967 Contrasts in Emerging Societies Doreen Warriner, 1980 Contrasting Economic Patterns Nicolas Pulber, 1963
