Camels Lament:

The Camel's Lament Charles Edward Carryl, 2004 A poem in which a camel compares his life with that of other animals of the world     The Camel's Lament Charles E. Carryl, 2021-04-20 Enjoy this classic children's poem now available as a hardcover Help kids appreciate what makes them unique with this humorous poem about a camel explaining how he's not like any other animal out there The Camel's Lament has entertained countless children since it was first penned in the early 1900s and continues to do so in this stunning edition Charles Santore's beautiful best-selling illustrations capture the spirit of this classic poem and bring the imaginative verses to life This brilliant edition is sure to hold a treasured place on every family bookshelf     The Collected Poems of Li He Li He, 2017-03-14 The definitive collection of works by one of the Tang Dynasty's most eccentric and badly behaved poets now back in print for the first time in decades Li He is the bad boy poet of the late Tang dynasty He began writing at the age of seven and died at twenty-six from alcoholism or according to a later commentator sexual dissipation or both An obscure and unsuccessful relative of the imperial family he would set out at dawn on horseback pause write a poem and toss the paper away A servant boy followed him to collect these scraps in a tapestry bag Long considered far too extravagant and weird for Chinese taste Li He was virtually excluded from the poetic canon until the mid-twentieth century Today as the translator and scholar Anne M Birrell writes Of all the Tang poets even of all Chinese poets he best speaks for our disconcerting times Modern critics have compared him to Rimbaud Baudelaire Keats and Trakl The Collected Poems of Li He is the only comprehensive selection of his surviving work most of his poems were reputedly burned by his cousin after his death for the honor of the family rendered here in crystalline translations by the noted scholar J D Frodsham     Poems from the Divan of Hafiz Ḥāfiz, 1928     Poems from the Divan of Hafiz, Firdawsi, and Omar Khayyam Various Authors, 1928-01-01 Shemsuddin Mahommed better known by his poetical surname of Hafiz was born in Shiraz in the early part of the fourteenth century His names being interpreted signify the Sun of the Faith the Praiseworthy and One who can recite the Koran he is further known to his compatriots under the titles of the Tongue of the Hidden and the Interpreter of Secrets The better part of his life was spent in Shiraz and he died in that city towards the close of the century The exact date either of his birth or of his death is unknown He fell upon turbulent times His delicate love songs were chanted to the rude accompaniment of the clash of arms and his dreams must have been interrupted often enough by the nip of famine in a beleaguered town the inrush of conquerors and the flight of the defeated The history of Persia in the fourteenth century is exceedingly confused Beyond a succession of wars and turmoils there is little to be learnt concerning the political conditions under which Hafiz lived Fifty years before the birth of the poet Hulagu a grandson of the great Tartar invader Chinghis Khan had conquered Baghdad putting to death the last of the Abbaside Khalifs and extinguishing the direct line of the race that had ruled over Persia since 750 For the next 200 years there is indeed a branch of the family of Abbas living in Cairo members of which were set up as Khalifs by the Mamluk Sultans of Egypt but they were destitute of any real authority and their position was that of dependants in the Mamluk court. The sons and grandsons of Hulagu succeeded him as lords of Persia and Mesopotamia, paying a nominal allegiance to the Great Khan of the Mongols in Cambalec or Peking but for all practical purposes independent and the different provinces of their empire were administered by governors in their name. About the time of the birth of Hafiz that is to say in the beginning of the fourteenth century a certain Mahmud Shah Inju was governing the province of Fars of which Shiraz is the capital in the name of Abu Said the last of the direct descendants of Hulagu. On the death of Mahmud Shah Abu Said appointed Sheikh Hussein ibn Juban to the governorship of Fars a lucrative and much coveted post. Sheikh Hussein took the precaution of ordering the three sons of Mahmud Shah to be seized and imprisoned but while they were passing through the streets of Shiraz in the hands of their captors their mother who accompanied them lifted her veil and made a touching appeal to the people calling upon them to remember the benefits they had received from their late ruler the father of the three boys. Her words took instant effect the inhabitants rose released her and her sons and drove Sheikh Hussein into exile. He however returned with an army supplied by Abu Said and induced Shiraz to submit again to his rule. In 1335 a year or two after these events Abu Said died and the power of the house of Hulagu crumbled away. There followed a long period of anarchy which was brought to an end when Oweis another descendant of Hulagu seized the throne. He and his son Ahmed reigned in Baghdad until Ahmed was driven out by the invading army of Timur. But during the years of anarchy the authority of the Sultan of Baghdad had been considerably curtailed. On Abu Said's death Abu Ishac one of the three sons of Mahmud Shah Inju who had so narrowly escaped from the hands of Sheikh Hussein took possession of Shiraz and Isfahan finally ousting his old enemy while Mahammad ibn Muzaffar who had earned a name for valour in the service of Abu Said made himself master of Yezd. From this time onward the governors of the Persian provinces seem to have given a nominal allegiance now to the Sultan of Baghdad now to the more distant Khalif. The position of Shiraz between Baghdad and Cairo must have resembled that of Venice between Rome and Constantinople and like Venice she was obedient to neither lord. Abu Ishac had not steered his bark into quiet waters. In 1340 Shiraz was besieged and taken by a rival Atabeg and the son of Mahmud Shah was obliged to content himself with Isfahan. But in the following year he returned captured Shiraz by a stratagem and again established himself as ruler over all Fars. The remaining years of his reign are chiefly occupied with military expeditions against Yezd where Mahammad ibn Muzaffar and his sons were building up a formidable power. In 1352 determined to put an end to these attacks Mahammad marched into Fars and laid siege to Shiraz. Abu Ishac whose life was one of perpetual dissipation redoubled his orgies in the face of danger. Uncertain of the fidelity of the people of Shiraz he put to death all the inhabitants of two quarters of the town and contemplated insuring himself of a third quarter in a similar manner. But these measures did not lead to the desired results. The chief of the threatened quarter got wind of the King's design and delivered up the keys of his gate to Shah Shudja son of Mahammad ibn Muzaffar and Abu Ishac was obliged to seek refuge a second time in Isfahan. Four years later in 1357 he was given up to Mahommed who sent him to Shiraz and with a fine sense of dramatic fitness had him beheaded in an open space before the ruins of Persepolis      The Manners and Customs of the Ruala Bedouins Alois Musil,1928      Poems from the Divan of Hafiz Hâfiz (Shîrâzî.),1897      The Garden of Heaven Hafiz,2012-03-01 Poetry is the greatest literary form of ancient Persia and modern Iran and the 14th century poet known as Hafiz is its preeminent master This collection is derived from Hafiz s Divan collected poems a classic of Sufism      Arabian Poetry for English Readers William Alexander Clouston,1881      The Poems of Li Ho (791-817) He Li,1970      Hafiz ,2012-04-27 Discover How Hafiz s Spiritual Life and Vision Can Enlighten Your Own Hafiz is known throughout the world as Persia s greatest poet with sales of his poems in Iran today only surpassed by those of the Qur an itself His probing and joyful verse speaks to people from all backgrounds who long to taste and feel divine love and experience harmony with all living things This beautiful sampling of Hafiz s works captures his deep spiritual understanding offering a glimpse into the vision that has inspired people around the world for centuries Considered by his contemporaries as an oracle and often referred to as Tongue of the Hidden and Interpreter of Secrets Hafiz followed Sufism s inner path on a quest to discover the hidden meaning of the universe and shares his experiences and desire for union with the Divine in symbolic language that borders on magical Infused with the spirit of love and joy this unique collection offers insight into Haiz s spiritual philosophy and carefree mysticism that addresses the earthly beauty pain ecstasy and longing that define human nature and the divine adoration that promises to set the spirit free Ambiguity is a major characteristic of Persian poetry and Hafiz was one of the greatest masters of this artistic quality each reader tends to see his or her own experiences reflected in the poems As a result it is usually unclear whether in a given verse he means actual wine or spiritual wine a male or a female beloved a human beloved or God and so forth But after reading the same images over and over in ever changing contexts one gradually leaves behind the ordinary material world and enters into a realm in which everything symbolizes the beautiful qualities of the beloved who ultimately is God and the source of Love from the Preface by Ibrahim Gamard annotator and translator Rumi and Islam Selections from His Stories Poems and Discourses Annotated Explained      Delphi Collected Poetical Works of Hafez (Illustrated) Hafez,2017-01-28 www.delphiclassics.com      Cambridge IGCSE English as a Second Language Coursebook with Audio CD Peter Lucantoni,2014-07-24 Cambridge IGCSE English as a Second Language Fourth edition matches the requirements of the revised University of Cambridge International Examinations 0510 and 0511 syllabus The series is written by an experienced IGCSE teacher and trainer and is endorsed by Cambridge International Examinations Together with the Workbook sold separately this Coursebook is an exam preparation course offering clear practical support for students The units utilise a diverse range of topical stimulus material to enliven the subject They also include imaginative activities and exam tips designed to build confidence and develop the skills needed to succeed Audio CD is included for listening activities
