The Source Loretto Dennis Szucs, Sandra Hargreaves Luebking, 2006 Genealogists and other historical researchers have valued the first two editions of this work often referred to as the genealogist's bible. The new edition continues that tradition. Intended as a handbook and a guide to selecting, locating, and using appropriate primary and secondary resources, The Source also functions as an instructional tool for novice genealogists and a refresher course for experienced researchers. More than 30 experts in this field—genealogists, historians, librarians, and archivists—prepared the 20 signed chapters, which are well written, easy to read, and include many helpful hints for getting the most out of whatever information is acquired. Each chapter ends with an extensive bibliography and is further enriched by tables, black and white illustrations, and examples of documents. Eight appendixes include the expected contact information for groups and institutions that persons studying genealogy and history need to find.

The Science of Ghosts Joe Nickell, 2012-07-03 Are ghosts real? Are there truly haunted places, only haunted people, or both? And how can we know? Taking neither a credulous nor a dismissive approach, this first of its kind book solves those perplexing mysteries and more, even answering the question of why we care so very much. Putting aside purely romantic tales, this book examines the actual evidence for ghosts, from eyewitness accounts to mediumistic productions such as diaphanous forms materializing in dim light, spirit photographs, ghost detection phenomena, and even CSI-type trace evidence. Offering numerous exciting case studies, this book engages in serious investigation rather than breathless mystifying Pseudoscience, folk legends, and outright hoaxes are challenged and exposed while the historical cultural and scientific aspects of ghost experiences and haunting reports are carefully explored The author the world s only professional paranormal investigator brings his skills as a stage magician private detective folklorist and forensic science writer to bear on a topic that demands serious study Cataloging Bulletin Hennepin County Library.
