The Cinema of Krzysztof Kieślowski Marek Haltof, 2004 Since his death in 1996 Krzysztof Kieslowski has remained the best known contemporary Polish filmmaker and one of the most popular and respected European directors internationally renowned for his ambitious Decalogue and Three Colors trilogy In this new addition to the Directors Cuts series Marek Haltof provides a comprehensive study of Kieslowski's cinema discussing industrial practices in Poland and stressing that the director did not fit the traditional image of a great East Central European auteur He draws a fascinating portrait of the stridently independent director's work noting that Kieslowski was not afraid to express unpopular views in film or in life Haltof also shows how the director's work remains unique in the context of Polish documentary and narrative cinema

Krzysztof Kieslowski Renata Bernard, Steven Woodward, 2016-03-14 Krzysztof Kieslowski's untimely death came at the height of his career after his Three Colors trilogy of films garnered international acclaim and an Oscar nomination and he had been proclaimed Europe's most important filmmaker by many critics Born in 1941 he was only fifty four years old when he died Kieslowski himself tried to tell the story of his life and career in the 1993 book Kieslowski on Kieslowski This collection by contrast reveals the shifting voice of a filmmaker who was initially optimistic about his social and cultural role then felt himself buffeted by the turbulent politics and events of the People's Republic of Poland As described in the chronology in this book he found himself subject to the economic censorship of post Communist filmmaking How Kieslowski responded at each moment of his life what he tried to achieve with each of his films is finely detailed in thirty five selections These pieces bring together his thesis from the famous Lodz film school a manifesto written just before the dark days of martial law in Poland diary entries from the first time he was working outside Poland and numerous rare interviews from Polish French and English language sources

Working Stiffs, Union Maids, Reds, and Riffraff Tom Zaniello, 2018-05-31 The revised and expanded edition of Working Stiffs Union Maids Reds and Riffraff offers 350 titles compared to the original edition's 150 The new book is global in scope with examples of labor films from around the world Viewers can turn to this comprehensive annotated guide for films about unions or labor organizations labor history working class life where an economic factor is significant political movements if they are tied closely to organized labor production or the struggle between labor and capital from a top down either entrepreneurial or managerial perspective Each entry includes a critical commentary production data cast list MPAA rating if any suggested related films annotated references to books and websites for further reading and information about availability of films for rental and or purchase This edition addresses both historical and contemporary films and features many more documentaries and hard to find information about agitprop and union financed films Working Stiffs Union Maids Reds and Riffraff An Expanded Guide to Films about Labor features fifty eight production stills and frame enlargements It also includes a greatly expanded Thematic Index of Films Two new sections will help the reader discover labor films in chronological order or by nationality or affiliation with certain cinematic movements To read Tom Zaniello's blog on the cinema of labor and globalization featuring even more reviews visit <http://tzaniello.wordpress.com> Praise for the earlier edition Zaniello has created a useful and far reaching guide with abundant information These are the sorts of films that prove what James Agee wrote in these pages nearly fifty years ago The only movies whose temper could possibly be described as heroic or tragic or both have been made by leftists The Nation Zaniello has done a monumental job identifying the films that should be included in this genre Working Stiffs Union Maids Reds and Riffraff is sorely needed and long overdue Cineaste An engaging and opinionated book Even though mining trucking Jimmy Hoffa and class warfare are the book's major themes what holds the project together is Zaniello's sense of fun and wit Zaniello is a better writer than most major film critics Village Voice Literary Supplement Orphans of the East Constantin Parvulescu, 2015-06-08 An analysis of films produced in post World War II Eastern Europe featuring the trope of the orphan and the issues these characters addressed Unlike the benevolent orphan found in Charlie Chaplin's The Kid or the sentimentalized figure of Little Orphan Annie the orphan in postwar Eastern European cinema takes on a more politically fraught role embodying the tensions of individuals struggling to recover from war and grappling with an unknown future under Soviet rule By exploring films produced in postwar Hungary the German Democratic Republic Czechoslovakia Romania and Poland Constantin Parvulescu traces the way in which cinema envisioned and debated the condition of the post World War II subject and the new man of Soviet style communism In these films the orphan becomes a cinematic trope that interrogates socialist visions of ideological institutionalization and re education and stands as a silent critic of the system's shortcomings or as a resilient spirit who has resisted capture by the political apparatus of the new state By using the trope of an orphan Constantin Parvulescu demonstrates how films made in countries such as Hungary East Germany Poland Czechoslovakia and Romania reflected on the specific problems affecting Eastern Europe after 1945 such as the loss of population economic backwardness the legacy of the Holocaust while engaging in wider debates especially the superiority of socialism over capitalism Economically and elegantly written it demonstrates that cinema produced in the periphery can be central to our understanding of films as ideological tools This is one of the best books on Eastern European cinema ever written Ewa Mazierska University of Central Lancashire Groundbreaking The author's comparative transnational perspective in chapters devoted to close textual analyses of each narrative demonstrates the value of reading film as a primary source for understanding the relationships among state power intergenerational trauma and revolutionary subjectivity Parvulescu's highly original portrayal of a landscape of parentless children evokes the trauma of war and the specificity of the socialist experiment in the former Eastern Bloc Catherine Portuges University of Massachusetts Amherst Parvulescu has taken a highly innovative approach to socialist and post socialist cinema in the region and one that is vividly illustrated by a superb selection of films Studies in European Cinema Camera Afield Sid Latham, 1976 Microeconomics Buford Curtis Eaton, Diane F. Eaton, 1995 This core introductory intermediate text explains the principles of microeconomics and persuades students to think like an economist when posed with real world problems Each chapter opens with a question from ordinary life then sets up the structure of a model required to solve the problem and explains the more general theories attached A high degree of pedagogy and case studies should ensure student understanding of key concepts Presented is a problem solving approach that reveals the working methodology of the microeconomics theorist from the specific application to the general theory Microeconomics and full year intermediate level courses in Microeconomics It is also intended as a supplement for Managerial Economics courses and one semester MBA Introduction to Microeconomics courses
